EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, JUNE 8, 1903.

LIVELY RIOT TOOK PLACE BETWEEN ANGRY FOREIGNERS
IN A SECOND STREET HOTEL*Prompt Police Interference All That Prevented
a Bloody Tragedy From Being Enacted.

A riot scene, the like of which was never before enacted in this community, occurred in the office of the National hotel, Second street, at a few minutes past 11 o'clock Saturday night. A dozen Italian laborers and two Irish bosses, all employed by Sims & Co., railroad contractors, caused the affray. Though no deaths resulted, several were badly injured and blood flowed freely.

Officer McDermott, who, after the hardest struggle of his life, succeeded in effecting a quietus by arresting the two most conspicuous parties, John P. Hines and Charles Miglorette, showed most remarkable nerve and came out of the melee without a scratch and with a reputation for fearlessness that will ever stay with him.

For a few minutes the murder of some of the participants seemed inevitable. The sons of Italy had lost all sense of reason and were in the battle to avenge by killing. The Irish bosses realized their extremely dangerous predicament and in defense of their lives were fighting in desperation.

When Officer McDermott arrived on the scene he was accompanied by a reporter of the News Review. Both had passed the hotel office but a moment before and were attracted back to the apartment by some one yelling in a loud voice for an officer. Upon arriving at the office the situation was grasped in a glance, and McDermott, closely followed by the reporter, dashed inside. The fight at this time was being waged in narrow quarters behind the clerk's desk.

McDermott sternly demanded quiet, but his order, if heard at all, was passed by unnoticed. He saw that speedy action was necessary if a terrible tragedy were to be averted, and with the bravery of a Custer he jumped into the thickest of the fray. On a cot lay Hines, practically at the mercy of Miglorette, while the latter's brothers were fighting desperately among themselves, evidently in an attempt to give the Italian the opportunity to finish the man who at the time was in a helpless condition.

Having found that words had no influence on the infuriated mob, McDermott commenced applying his physical strength. After knocking aside and trampling a number of the rioters, he reached the cot and exerting his every muscle he seized Miglo-

of damage back where the first car left the rails. As was stated in the beginning the box cars were run in onto the switch, and were ranged along on the track as nicely as though they had been pushed in by an engine after the switch had been opened in the regular way. The switch leads from the main track to the south end of the Patterson foundry, and the cars went a whole distance, running off the end of the switch and into the bank at Walnut street with great force.

When the "wild cat" could get no farther there was naturally a smash-up at the rear, and an empty box car, the last one on the train, came near being telescoped. As it was the end of a common flat car ran into the rear of the box car, derailing it and smashing a great hole in the side. The rear trucks of this car were on the main track, together with five other cars, and the caboose, none of which were damaged in the least, while the front trucks were on the switch, fully 15 feet from the main track. It was a most peculiar looking mixup, and it is safe to say no one ever saw a more remarkable accident.

So much damage had been done that several hours were necessary to clear away the debris, and the wrecking crew was occupied until well on toward evening before the main tracks were free from wreckage. Traffic was not so seriously interfered with as if the wreck had occurred on a week day, but a number of the passenger trains were delayed by the fact that they could not get through on the main track.

IN PROBATE COURTWills Filed And Orders Given in Connection With the Estates of Decedents.

Lisbon, June 8.—(Special).—The will of the late Joseph Bryan, of Perry township, has been admitted to probate. He leaves all his property to his wife, Sarah A. Bryan, whom he names as executrix.

John B. Crofts, named as executor in the will of the late Joseph March, of Madison township, having refused to accept the trust, Susan March has been appointed administratrix with the will annexed under $1,000 bond. No appraisalment.

Ellen Pedlar has applied to the court for an increase of allowance made by the appraisers to the widow of the late William Pedlar, of Franklin township, and the application is set for hearing June 23 at 10 o'clock.

The Fidelity & Trust company, of Baltimore, Md., has filed its application for release from the bond of James W. Brady as guardian of William D. and Zella Brady, Leetonia minors. The application will be heard June 22.

Paving Job Completed.

Lisbon, May 8.—(Special).—The paving of the northwest corner of the public square in Lisbon has been completed.

ANNUAL MEETING
OF GRAND LODGE*LOCAL DELEGATES OF THE K. OF P. AT CONVENTION.*Great Gathering of Members of the Order at Canton Tomorrow.

The thirty-fourth annual meeting of the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, will be held in Canton this year, the first session being scheduled for tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Bart van Fossen is the regular representative of Peabody lodge, of this city, and he left this morning for Canton, accompanied by Martin Meas and O. D. Nice, both of whom are past chancellors and entitled to a seat in the grand lodge.

The members of the uniform rank will leave in the morning for Canton and will arrive there in time to participate in the big parade. The committee of arrangements has issued the program to be followed during the week, and in addition to laying out a vast amount of work for the convention, has provided all the amusements that it will be possible for the visitors to indulge in.

On Tuesday morning the uniform rank and any others who see fit to make the trip will visit the tomb of the late President McKinley at West Lawn cemetery. The members will go in a body and an appropriate ceremony had been arranged to be carried out at the cemetery.

Memorial Sunday was observed by the Canton lodge at the Grand Opera House yesterday, and was attended by many visitors and not a few of the out-of-town brethren.

Headquarters have been established at the Hotel McKinley, where a reception will be held tonight. Immediately after this reception the amplified first rank will be conferred at the Grand Opera House. The work will be done by the Cleveland team, composed of 100 members, and all are urged to take part. A large number of the members of the local lodge will leave the city tomorrow morning for Canton.

LANGLEY'S SLAYER
IS STILL IN JAIL*Word from St. Louis Is That He Will Be Tried And Convicted.

In reply to a letter written the corner of St. Louis regarding the slayer of Frank Langley, Mayor Weaver received the following this morning:

"The slayer of Frank Langley is now safe in jail. The shooting took place so lately that the courts have not had time to act upon the case, but there will be no question of his conviction at the proper time."

Two McCooks Can't Come.

Lisbon, June 8.—(Special).—Secretary Potts, of the centennial board, is in receipt of letters from Rev. Henry C. McCook, of Philadelphia, and Hon. Willis McCook, of Pittsburgh, members of the "Fighting McCook" family, stating that they will be unable to attend the centennial. General Anson G. McCook, ex-congressman from New York, is expected, however, and is on the program for an address.

Smallpox Patient Nearly Well.

Lisbon, June 8.—(Special).—Frank Perry, the Leetonia smallpox victim, has about recovered and the spread of the disease seems to have been effectively prevented, no other cases having been reported.

Licensed to Marry.

Lisbon, June 8.—(Special).—John C. Avery, of Youngstown, and Miss Sarah Greenough, of Lisbon, have been licensed to marry.

CLOSE WATCH
ON SALOON MEN*Police Entered Four Places On Sunday and Took Two Crowds Into Custody.*AN EVEN DOZEN ARRESTS*The Sum Total of the Business Done By the Finest on Saturday Night and Sunday—The Alleged Offenders and the Charges.

As the result of police activity an even dozen alleged violators of the law were arrested between the early hours of Saturday night and yesterday afternoon. Among those taken in custody by the officers were John McFadden and Benjamin Scharr, saloonists of Second street, both charged with keeping their places of business open on Sunday.

The first saloon raided was that of McFadden. Chief Flynn, after a consultation with the day police, ordered that unusual vigilance be kept and all decided to make him a visit. It was about 10 o'clock yesterday morning when the chief, accompanied by Officers McDermott, Saulsbury, Dawson and Aufderheide, piled into McFadden's place. They found the proprietor and four other men. The men were not drinking at the time, but there were several empty whisky glasses and a bottle of beer on a table. The four men giving as their names William Robinson, James Newman, Sparr Wallham and Sherman Carroll were taken to the city hall, charged with loitering in the saloon.

In the afternoon an attempt was made to land three saloon keepers, but the officers were only successful in one case, Frank Rigo's and John Michael's places were found to be unoccupied. McDermott and Saulsbury got Scharr. They ran on to two farmers from Hancock county and made the trio furnish bond for their appearance.

James Penny, who has rested in the city jail every Saturday night since the new administration went into effect and upon numerous occasions before, was picked up by Officer Dawson. The officer thought for a moment that he would let James pass by when he started through the Diamond, but the old offender could not resist the temptation to shout and make himself obnoxious, and as a matter of duty the policeman landed him. He gave an order on his wages and was released.

William Fortune had not been behind the bars for nearly a month and becoming anxious to see the interior once more hit upon the right plan to make a success of it when he tanked up and fell into the path of Officer Dawson. He also gave an order and is now enjoying freedom.

The Case Continued.

The case of Daniel J. Madden against Richard Bell, manager of the Consolidated China company, in which the plaintiff sues for $275 alleged to be due him as salary for his work while traveling as salesman for the company, came up for trial in the court of Squire McCarron this afternoon. Attorneys Thompson and Bowdler represented the plaintiff and Attorney George E. Davidson the defendant. After considerable argument the justice agreed to continue the case until June 22, when the defense expects to be ready for trial.

Archbishop of Manila.

Rome, June 8.—(Special).—It is announced that Rev. J. J. Harty, of St. Louis, has received the appointment of archbishop of Manila.

WIFE BEATER'S BRUTALITY AROUSING A NEIGHBORHOOD

That Ogden Allison, a wife beater of the Calcutta road, is not now behind the bars at city hall, with a serious charge against him, is due only to the fact that his neighbors want to avoid becoming involved in so disgraceful an affair as took place yesterday afternoon.

Allison is a teamster when he works, but the neighbors say it is seldom he indulges in anything so strenuous. The story, as told by a neighbor, is one of the most cruel imaginable, and extends over a long period. The News Review's informant said:

"Allison has lived in this community for a year, and at times has been known to commit acts of violence most inhuman. We are as a rule a peaceable people, and until Allison and his family took up their abode over the Strauss grocery we have never been disturbed by drunken people. Yesterday afternoon Allison came home and began to abuse his family. His wife remonstrated, and he turned his attention solely to her. He was seen to knock her down and kick her, and then the residents could stand it no longer and determined to interfere. Before they could reach the scene, however, Mrs. Allison had been beaten nearly insensible, and has been unable to raise her head from the pillow ever since. Allison was caught and held until his wife could be removed to a place of safety. The residents of the neighborhood are very indignant, and it may be charges will be preferred."

DEATH CHAMBER
WILL BE CROWDED*TWO CONDEMNED MEN THERE NOW AND MORE COMING.*Prospect of Many Executions at Columbus in a Short Time.

Columbus, June 8.—(Special).—In a short time the death chamber at the Ohio penitentiary will be crowded with occupants. It now contains two condemned men—Al Wade and Philip Nagle—and others will be received soon. One of these is Ben Wade, a brother of Al, who has just been found guilty of murder in the first degree at Toledo, and as there was no recommendation for mercy the death sentence will be imposed on him. The Wade brothers and Ben Landis were arrested for the murder of Miss Sullivan in Lucas county and Landis is in jail awaiting trial. The indications are he will suffer the fate of the other two men. The three are desperate crooks. Al Wade will die in the electric chair on the 27th of this month unless the governor intercedes, which is unlikely.

Philip Nagle was sentenced to death on April 15, but he was respite by the courts pending further investigation of his case. He was convicted of murdering a companion, whose body was found horribly mutilated in a sewer.

Samuel Keller, of Butler county, who decapitated his wife, has been found guilty and will receive the extreme penalty. The crime was a most atrocious one. The "Strangler," Alfred A. Knapp, the multi-wife murderer, is also confined in the Butler county jail and is almost certain of landing in the chair. Cincinnati has seven men under indictment for first degree murder and several of these are reasonably sure of receiving the death sentence. Cleveland has one convicted murderer who is doomed to this fate.

It was the horror of officiating at these executions that caused Warden v. Darby to resign.

A GREAT PARADE
OF OLD SOLDIERS*All the G. A. R. Posts in the County to Be Represented at Lisbon Centennial.

Lisbon, June 8.—(Special).—One of the most conspicuous features of the coming centennial will be the parade of old soldiers on Grand Army day, Thursday, June 18. Assurances have been received that every G. A. R. post in the county will be represented, and it is calculated that there will be at least 1,500 men in line, which will make the parade the greatest spectacle of its kind ever seen in the county. The marching column will be under command of Dr. A. C. Yengling, of Salem, state G. A. R. commander, and his staff, all in full uniform.

Senator Hanna and other notables will have places on the reviewing stand on the public square. After the parade an army bean bake will be given by the W. R. C. in a tent near the square.

THE HORSE FELL
ON RIDER'S FOOT*John Brooks Meets With a Mishap That Will Lay Him Up a While.

John Brooks, a well known and popular young man of the city, is lying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Timmons, on Lincoln avenue, with a badly crushed foot, the result of an accident that befel him Saturday evening while riding a horse through California hollow. The animal became frightened and attempted to run, but slipped and fell owing to the muddy condition of the road from the rain of that day. Brooks' right foot was caught beneath the animal and painfully hurt.

He was taken to the Timmons home, where he boards, and Dr. Bailey rendered medical attention. It was found that one of the bones of the foot was broken and he will be laid up for at least a month.

Going to the Klondike.

Lisbon, June 8.—(Special).—John Costello and W. H. Hepburn expect to leave for the Klondike next week in the interest of the gold company recently organized in Lisbon.

Big Shipments Ready.

There are said to be 25,000,000 bushels of coal in Pittsburgh harbor awaiting shipment, if the present rise in the river should bring enough water.

Best selling agents—Review ads.REV. C. G. JORDAN DECIDES
TO RESIGN HIS PASTORATE
AND BECOME AN EVANGELIST*Great and Unwelcome Surprise in the Announcement Made to the Presbyterian Congregation.

The congregation of the First Presbyterian church was given a great and most unwelcome surprise at the evening service yesterday when Rev. C. G. Jordan, who has had charge of the congregation for several years, announced his intention of giving up his work in this city and entering the evangelistic field.

An effort will be made to induce Rev. Mr. Jordan to reconsider his determination, but it is certain he will not do so. Since coming to East Liverpool Rev. Mr. Jordan has made hundreds of friends, and the acquaintanceship has not been confined to the Presbyterian denomination either. Wherever he has been called in his ministerial work, in or out of the church, he has endeared himself to the people of this city, and his announced intention will be received with deep regret by all. The little minister has been a power for good in the community, and the loss of his services will be sorely felt among the church people and good citizens generally.

Rev. Mr. Jordan's resignation will take effect next October, and he will at once take up the work in the evangelistic field, which he has determined to adopt at the sacrifice of good prospects for an unusually successful career in the regular ministerial line. The church officers will not begin at once to obtain a successor to Rev. Mr. Jordan, as it is thought there is still a possibility that he may be induced to stay. His place will be hard to fill.

SUCCESSFUL APPLICANTS
FOR CERTIFICATES*List of Those Who Passed the Recent Teachers' Examination With Honor.

Wellburg, W. Va., June 8.—L. M. Wright, in order to show his wife yesterday that a pistol was empty, pointed a revolver at his breast and pulled the trigger. He dropped dead before his wife and little son.

In a Critical Condition.

Lisbon, June 8.—(Special).—Mrs. Adner Hephner, of Leetonia, who was operated on a week ago for the removal of a tumor, is now in a critical condition.

VOTE-GETTING
GOES ON MERRILY*Saturday Was a Big Day and Coupons Came in in Great Bunches.*WEEK WILL BE LIVELY

The voting proceeds, rain or shine, dull weather makes no difference with the coupon gatherers. They were particularly active on Saturday and the result was that the totals of several of the candidates in the race for the News Review prizes were materially increased. There is every prospect that votes will come in faster than ever during the present week, as all the candidates and their friends are hustling and taking steps to see that every possible vote be cast.

The following candidates have received 100 votes or more:

Thomas Neal, Riverside Park, 23,812
Thomas Lownds, Fourth street, 19,099
J. E. Anderson, Lincoln avenue, 17,872

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

NEW YORK NOTES.

Taken altogether, the crockery business during the last week showed quite a material improvement and according to all conditions of the trade the prospects for the future are very bright. There were, of course, a few who would have welcomed a heavier inquiry, but the average volume of business transacted for the month of May will probably exceed that for the corresponding month last year, according to the New York Commercial. The fact that many of the traveling men are again on the road has resulted in larger mail orders, but the local retail business is not as large as it might be.

As far as the American wares are concerned the usual demand at this season of the year continues. Both the eastern and western factories are being operated regularly and some of the former are well enough filled with orders to keep them running all summer. Aside from the special trade there is a firm call for staple goods and an especially good call for hotel china, the demand for which has developed unusually early this year, in view of the active and profitable season anticipated at the seashore and mountain resorts.

The demand for English pottery is about on a par with last season's trade, although the present time is generally the duller of the year. French goods are in fairly big request and importers report but a slight falling off in the size of the orders for this favorite line of china. Judging from the number and size of the orders which came in during last month, there can be no doubt that German wares are retaining their popularity.

NO. 9 TO HELP.

No. 9, at an important meeting held last Friday night, opened nominations for officers and transacted considerable other business of importance. The local has decided to assist in every way possible in the campaign of the kilndrawers to increase their membership. Heretofore there has been talk that the two locals did not pull together, but in reality the relations are most cordial. No. 9 is now stronger than ever before and the kilndrawers are making rapid gains.

TO BEGIN SOON.

The new additions that are to be made to the works of the Pottery Mining & Milling company will be started shortly. Contracts have been placed for the mechanical appliances that will be used in the same and work on the buildings will begin at once.

NEW SLIP OUTFIT.

It is stated that the National China company will put in a new outfit of slip house machinery during the July week. The contract has been placed and the installation will be made as soon as the plant shuts down for the midsummer loaf.

PHILLIPS HAS RETIRED.

WEAK, NERVOUS, WORN OUT WOMEN

The world is full of women whose life is one long struggle against diseases peculiar to their sex—whose days and nights are full of quiet, patient suffering. The head the seat of pain and pressure—the result of nerve depression and physical weakness brought on by uterine or ovarian trouble—the nerves on edge—inclined to laugh or cry at anything—an ever present dragging in the back, hips and limbs—a feeling of utter weariness, lassitude and despondency. To these people the Dr. A. W. Chase Nerve Pills are of incomparable value, having as they do the power to rebuild, to reinvigorate and resupply every organ, every nerve, every muscle, with the lost energy and to ensure a complete return to health, strength and vigor again.

Mrs. Margaret Tracy, of No. 178 Seventh street, East Liverpool, Ohio, says: "One of my family was very nervous, subject to nervous spells—weak and miserable—could not sleep and the indignation was very poor. I asked the invalid to take Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store. The result was splendid—the medicine built her up—enriched the blood—made the nerves strong—gave restful sleep and so strengthened the stomach that digestion is perfect—the old time languid, played out feeling has given place to one of strength and energy and as a result we are more than pleased with the medicine."

THE SURPRISE CLOTHING HOUSE.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

New Home for Secretary Cortelyou and Assistants—A Handsome Eight Story Structure.

Washington, June 8.—The department of commerce and labor will be located in its new home, the Willard building, on Fourteenth street, only a few doors from Pennsylvania avenue, though it will be a few days later before Secretary Cortelyou moves from his present quarters in the Builders' Exchange. The new building is a handsome eight-story structure. As the department of commerce and labor after July 1 will be one of the largest departments in the government, all the bureaus cannot be accommodated in the new building.

Secretary Cortelyou, with his immediate force, will occupy part of the third floor.

Fatal Railway Accident.

San Jose, Cal., June 8.—One man was killed two persons fatally and several others badly injured in a runaway car accident on the Alum Rock Park electric railway. Deputy Assessor Edwin F. Goodrich, of this city, was killed outright. Alice Myers, aged 24 years, and Willie Baker, aged 11, were perhaps fatally injured.

APPROVAL GIVEN THE ARMY'S WORK

Rousing Meetings Held in the Interests of the Local Salvationists.

MANY PLEDGES OF MONEY

Great Help Given the Building Fund as the Result of the Rally Day Efforts—Eloquent Address by Colonel Holz at the Opera House.

The special services held in the city yesterday by the Salvation Army as a part of the campaign to raise a fund sufficient to wipe out the debt upon the building lot purchased some time ago, upon which it is intended to build a substantial barracks, would certainly be satisfactory to Adjutant Snider and his corps and to Colonel R. E. Holz and other visiting officers, both as to the interest manifested and the amount of money contributed. The people of the city have certainly demonstrated their approval of the great work the Salvation Army is engaged upon and its ability to cope with the conditions with which it is confronted.

Pledges of financial aid, which were given yesterday, warrant the statement that the indebtedness upon the site for the proposed structure will soon be met and that the officers will then see the way clear for the consummation of the project. The new barracks mean much to the organization in this city and the scope of its work will be increased many fold. Arrangements will be made so that the way-faring and unfortunate can be cared for, both as to shelter and food, one of the noblest aims of the army. Adjutant Snider can be assured of the hearty cooperation of the religious element of the city in any movement that tends to increase the usefulness of his faithful band.

The meeting at the opera house last night was a rousing one, the commodious auditorium being filled to its capacity. Mayor Weaver presided. He believes in the army and its work and expressed his hearty commendation of the plans to widen its usefulness. The great religious movements of the sixteenth century, that led by John Wesley and others, were a part of the Divine plan, he thinks, and the same is true of the Salvation Army. He introduced Colonel Holz, of Cleveland, the principal speaker of the evening.

Colonel Holz is not a stranger to the people of East Liverpool and in the audience were many old friends. He had intended to make an old fashioned gospel exhortation, but upon request this plan was altered and he talked of the accomplishments of the army since its organization many years ago. The army in this city, he stated, promises to help the administration in sustaining a high condition of morality and righteousness.

In replying to the question what he thought of the Salvation Army, Jan Maclaren, the noted divine and writer, said: "I like it, because it makes religion where there was none before." This is, in brief, the fundamental principle of the army, said Colonel Holz. It goes into homes where religion is practically unknown and where it is most needed. It is the aim to make religion, not simply to take care of unfortunate and feed the hungry.

The history of the organization in the past 37 years bears evidence of the work accomplished and that it is equal to the task. In 50 countries the Salvation Army is preaching the gospel, in doors and out of doors. Its 16,000 officers conduct 35,000 open air meetings every week and 40,000 indoor meetings, which are heard by more than 5,000,000 members and hundreds upon hundreds of outsiders who gather at the open air meetings, many of whom have not darkened a church door in years.

Much has been accomplished since the army entered this city with but a handful of soldiers, and particularly pleasing is the progress made in the last 18 months. It has been such, said Colonel Holz, as to warrant asking the people to stand by them and be ready to help in widening the field of work by securing the new structure.

Adjutant Snider followed with a brief statement of the condition of the army locally. When the trustees met Saturday evening there was a debt of $875 on the lot, but since the opening of the campaign almost $400 has been donated. It is his hope to raise the entire amount during the campaign, so that they can proceed with the erection of the barracks. The opportunity was then given the congregation to make offerings and the response was most liberal.

Several of the Cleveland officers made brief talks, the meeting becoming of the nature of personal experiences in Salvation Army work. Colonel Holz then took up his gospel sermon and delivered a most eloquent and able address.

It was announced from the platform that a free entertainment would be given tonight at the opera house by the Juniors, who have been practicing several months upon the program. Colonel Holz and several other prominent officers will be present and participate in the meeting. A most cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

In the churches of the city yesterday forenoon Salvation Army officers spoke as follows: First M. E., Colonel W. E. Holz; First Presbyterian, Major W. O. Hunter; First United Presbyterian, Major W. T. Bennett; Methodist Protestant, Staff Captain Boyd; Second United Presbyterian, East End, Adjutant Robert Butts. The services were all well attended and much interest shown.

A POWERFUL SERMON AGAINST THE SALOON

Rev. Purley A. Baker Argues That It Has No Right to Exist in Ohio.

Rev. Purley A. Baker, of Columbus, superintendent of the Ohio division of the Anti-Saloon league, addressed a large congregation at the First M. E. church last evening. For fully an hour the eloquent speaker spoke on the saloon, describing in an intensely interesting manner the evil it has brought upon the nation, the plans that have been adopted to wipe it out of existence and the wonderful strides that the league is making to secure its abolition.

In comparison with the work of temperance organizations when the league was instituted, Rev. Mr. Baker cited statistics, and in anticipation of the accomplishment of at least as much good in the future, he appealed to the members of the congregation for assistance from the standpoint of religious duty and free American citizenship. Upon the latter he laid much stress and every listener was deeply impressed.

"The work before us," said the speaker, "is to abolish the saloon for the protection of the generation that is now growing up and will soon enter upon womanhood and manhood. The saloon as an institution in Ohio is an outlaw by the constitution of the state, according to the clause, 'No license to liquor traffic shall be given.' The clause has never been repealed. It is on another contradictory clause, said to be so by those construing it from a technical standpoint, that the legislature allows the saloon to exist today. The clause referred to reads, 'But the legislature may provide against the evils resulting from the traffic.' They are provided for by the assessment of a fine on the seller. The assessment is commonly called a tax.

"The saloon in this state is outlawed by the federal court, Chief Justice Field having held that we have no inherent right to allow... Judge Cook, of your own circuit court, has decided against it. It is outlawed also by business expulsion, social ostracism and religious anathema. That it exists is due to the appetite of men and their greed for money.

"Every civilized nation on the globe harbors a movement for the abolition of the curse. America has risen to the first rank to overthrow the traffic. Forget that you are a Methodist, a Presbyterian, a Baptist, a Lutheran, or the member of any other religious denomination; remember only that you are an American citizen. If we appreciate, and I pray to God that we may, the splendid heritage of true American citizenship, it will be but a matter of a very short time until the saloon will go."

In closing his remarks, the speaker stated that the people will have the opportunity to crush the saloon in this city. He intimated that the time is not far off, but did not name the date.

AT ST. ALOYSIUS CHURCH

Trinity Sunday Observed With Impressive Services Yesterday.

Trinity Sunday was observed at St. Aloysius' church yesterday. Owing to indisposition Rev. Father Smyth did not deliver the expected sermon. He made a few remarks upon the feast of

Trinity, explaining that it honored the mystery of the unity of the godhead, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, being three persons and yet but one God.

The choir rendered Millard's mass, with the usual excellence for which it is noted. The soloists during the mass were Miss Mary Shaffer, soprano; Miss Margaret King, contralto; Robert Vancutley, bass; John Wheatley, tenor and Miss Elizabeth Hamill, organist and directress.

Mysterious Attack.

Evansville, Ind., June 8.—The county officials are investigating a peculiar attack on the steamer Park City, on the way for Bowling Green, Ky., just as she was entering the mouth of Green river. The steamer was fired on by several men and their fire was returned with Winchester from the boat. The passengers were panic-stricken, but none were hurt. No cause for the attack is known.

Relief from Drought.

Reading, June 8.—More rain fell in the Schuylkill valley than the total since the middle of last April. It will greatly relieve the effects of the drought, and farmers have hopes that some of their crops will be substantially benefited. In many cases however, there will be less than half a yield, notwithstanding this rain.

Winner of the Grand Prix.

Paris, June 8.—The Grand Prix de Paris, of 200,000 francs, about one mile and seven furlongs, was run at Longchamps, in the presence of an immense concourse. It was won by Edmond Blane's Quo Vadis, while his Cais and Vincius were respectively second and third. W. K. Vanderbilt's Alpha came in fourth.

Twelve Inches of Rain.

Greenfield, O., June 6.—A heavy storm passed over this section, doing great damage to wheat and fruit. The path of the storm was about one mile wide. Hailstones as large as eggs fell and in some places the icy missiles were 12 to 15 inches deep on the ground.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with."

Floods in Idaho.

Kalispell, Mont., June 8.—Disastrous floods in northern Idaho, caused by the rapidly melting snow in the mountains are causing considerable trouble to the Great Northern railroad. Long stretches of embankment along the Kootenai river have caved in, and it probably will be two weeks before traffic over the regular route can be resumed. No casualties, however, have occurred. The town of Benner's Ferry, Idaho, is flooded and the people are going around town in rowboats.

His Third Attempt.

Gloucester, Mass., June 8.—Howard Blackburn, who already has made two voyages across the Atlantic alone in small dories, started in his 15-foot dory America in a third attempt to cross the ocean, with Havre as his objective point. His intention is to return via Gibraltar, Western Islands, Porto Rico and Cuba and exhibit his boat at the St. Louis exposition. A large crowd on the wharves and craft in the harbor gave him a hearty send-off.

Injured by Ferocious Dogs.

Cincinnati, June 8.—John Fiskus, aged 15, was fatally hurt by a kennel of 25 hounds. As he was approaching the kennel of Julius Ernest the hounds seized him and tore him almost to pieces. Mrs. Ernest was seriously hurt in trying to rescue the boy. Finally Charles Fissell mounted a horse and undertook to ride over the dogs. Both rider and horse were seriously bitten, especially the latter.

Automobile Causes Death.

New York, June 8.—Frightened by a big automobile a horse driven by John Tanges, a wealthy resident of Greenlawn, Long Island, swerved from the road, upsetting the cart, and Mrs. Tanges was thrown into a ditch, receiving a fracture of the skull from the fall. She died in 20 minutes. In the excitement no attempt was made to obtain the names of the automobile party, who continued on their way.

Hail Two Feet Deep.

Hillsboro, O., June 6.—A storm accompanied by hail visited this county. In places the hail covered the ground to the depth of two feet. The corn and wheat fields in the path of the storm are ruined. A heavy rain fell later, and numerous bridges and culverts have been washed out. The storm was about one mile wide.

Church Struck by Lightning.

Cleveland, June 8.—St. Paul's church, the fashionable Euclid avenue house of worship, where the Hanna-McCormick nuptials are to be held next Wednesday, was struck by lightning, and considerably damaged, the current entering near the spire and tearing a large hole in the roof.

Ladies and Children Invited.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous Little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not purge, weaken or sicken, many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others give and sicken, while the Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. The sympathy of workingmen generally will go out to the Philadelphia textile workers who are striking, not for higher wages nor recognition of the union, but for lower wages and shorter hours. They are simply demanding a 9-hour day, instead of ten hours. Theirs is a strike against overwork. Modern machinery and modern methods keep the operatives under too tense a strain to put in such long hours with satisfactory results either to themselves or their employers.

Rev. C. G. Jordan's announced determination to quit his pastorate and enter the evangelistic field will be received with sincere regret by the people of East Liverpool. Although a young man, his ability and energy have won him such success in this city as few men, whatever their experience in the ministry, have achieved. The religious field is full of opportunity for such men, and those who know him best are confident that Mr. Jordan will do noble work wherever he may go.

LAWRENCE MALEY

QUITS MORGANTOWN

The Boy Pitcher Now At Home—Why He Left the Varsity Team.

Larry Maley, known throughout this section as the "Boy Wonder," returned home Saturday night from Morgantown, W. Va., where he has been playing with the West Virginia University team during the season. While with the college boys he played under the name of Robert Cunningham. The Morgantown Evening Post has the following to say of his resignation:

"Robert Cunningham, one of the University base ball pitchers, left this morning for his home at Berkeley Springs. He will stop off at Pittsburg for two or three days. The Athletic Association committee was, it is said, investigating into the matter of Cunningham's eligibility to membership on the base ball team, it having been reported that he was aringer in, etc. It would make no difference, anyway, whether or not Cunningham had ever received a salary for pitching, as he is a youth of 19 and could not very well be termed a professional ball player."

"In the fall he matriculated at the University and has since been a constant attendant at classes. Before leaving this morning Cunningham stated that he did not come here to play ball, and he did not at the time of entering school know whether or not he would play ball on the Varsity team. The annoyance connected with the proposed investigation angered the young twirler and he packed his clothes and went home. His departure, and Groninger's absence at his home on account of the illness of his sister, leaves the Varsity team with but one man for the rubber, Smith, and to use a term more expressive than elegant the Varsity team is just now 'up against it and away up in the air'."

"Games are scheduled with Waynesburg at Waynesburg, Friday, June 12, and with W. & J. at Washington, Pa. Saturday June 13. No games are booked for commencement, but Manager Cole expects to secure a game for Wednesday, June 17, and for commencement day, Thursday, June 18.

"Cunningham has a brilliant future before him. He has almost everything he might want, and with a year's more experience will be ripe for any league. He has been unfortunate in receiving poor support whenever his delivery was hit, which has caused several games to be charged as defeats for the locals."

A Peculiar Railway Accident.

Pittsburg, June 8.—Killed while sitting comfortably in a street car imagining himself safe, was the fate of Philip House, aged 22, of Sharpsburg. House died at the Mercy hospital from injuries received in an accident at the Carnegie car barn. Motorman Henry Uorathy, on car No. 1648, on taking his car from the barn, had crossed over the westbound track and had not yet closed the switch, when car No. 1651, run by George Wishart, from Pittsburg, containing about 25 passengers, ran into the open switch, sideswiping the other car. House was sitting on the back of a seat near the motorman, and when the cars crashed together he was thrown against the other car and in some manner was fatally injured, his head and chest being crushed.

Much Firing Around Jackson.

Jackson, Ky., June 8.—There was much firing in and about the town. There is no town marshal since James Cockrill was killed and Sheriff Callahan makes no arrests. Curtis Jett and Thomas White had a long conference with their counsel. The Marcus people express no confidence in the trial. Ellzer Jones arrived with 60 farmers from Magallowa county, from whom the buy will be selected.

WELLSVILLE

Impressive and Beautiful Exercises By the Woodmen at Spring Hill Cemetery.

About 35 members of the Woodmen of the World, of Toronto, arrived in Wellsville on the Sunday morning train. In the afternoon, headed by a band, which they brought with them, they marched to the Spring Hill cemetery and unveiled the monument, placed there by them in memory of the late W. T. Brooks. The unveiling was conducted with interesting exercises as provided in the ritual of the order. Several appropriate selections were rendered by the band. The Woodmen returned home on the evening train.

W. T. Brooks was the son of John Brooks, of this city, and this city was formerly his home. For the past few years, however, he lived in Toronto and died in that city last fall. The remains were brought here, his former home, for burial, the Woodmen conducting the services. Mr. Brooks was well known in this city and quite a large crowd were at the unveiling exercises.

IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL

Knights Templar and Religious Services in Honor of Theodore Starrett.

Short religious services, conducted by Rev. Edwin Weary, of East Liverpool, were held over the remains of the late Theodore Starrett Saturday afternoon at the house on West Main street, Wellsville. Sunday afternoon the Knights Templar, of which lodge Mr. Starrett was a member, conducted services according to the ritual of the order. Short services were held at the house, then at Spring Hill cemetery in charge of Pilgrim commandery of East Liverpool.

The funeral procession was one of the largest in Wellsville for many days. The Knights Templar led, followed by the F. & A. M., the P. H. U. coming next, followed by a long string of carriages. It rained during the whole time at the cemetery, but this did not mar the beauty of the services.

The floral contributions were abundant and beautiful, especially those of the lodges, which were magnificent.

COLORED FIGHTERS

Two Men and a Woman Taken to Jail and All Given Large Fines.

Peacefully and quietly Alexander Johnston and his lady love, Sarah Smith, both colored, were enjoying a stroll along Jag alley Saturday evening. They had gone but a short distance when they were met by Sam Anderson, also colored.

Sam had been indulging in firewater and stopped the couple and wanted the woman to leave Johnston and go with him. She refused and he began to abuse her.

Johnston went to her assistance. The two men drew pen knives and each received several slashes, none of them serious. The three were marched off to the city jail where they spent Saturday night and Sunday. Before Mayor Fogo this morning Miss Smith was assessed $12.00; Johnston $13.00 and Anderson $23.00. Johnston's and the woman's fine will be settled, but Anderson still lingers with a chance of going to the Canton work house.

Saved Her Home From Burning.

By using rare presence of mind Mrs. J. S. Mackie, of Nevada street, saved her home from being destroyed by fire. The gas stove was burning in the pantry and Mrs. Mackie and her daughter Mayme were busily engaged with the household work. Mrs. Mackie noticed the odor of burning wood and told her daughter to look at the stove. Miss Mackie stepped to the pantry door and found the whole interior of the room a mass of flames. The girl screamed and the mother ran for water. The fire was put out with small loss.

Fine Dogs Stolen.

Jenks Hamilton, of Wellsville, is mourning the loss of his two bull dogs. They were stolen from the kennel between the hours of 1 and 4 on Sunday morning. For "Pat," one of the dogs, Mr. Hamilton was offered a large amount, but refused to sell. For the other, "Nell," he has also received good offers but declined them. The police are looking for the dogs.

SOUTH SIDE

TRYING TO WIN OVER A CONTRACTOR

Chester Union Carpenters Desire to Have the Scale in Full Effect.

The members of the Chester local carpenters' and joiners' union are just now engaged in an effort to win over a non-union contractor, who has steadily refused to sign the scale.

When the East Liverpool local of the carpenters' union decided to make a demand for the 8-hour day, the Chester workmen engaged at the same occupation took similar action, although they determined to be guided by the outcome of the East Liverpool situation. It will be remembered it was several weeks before the East Liverpool journeymen were granted their request, and in the meantime the Chester men said nothing. In the latter part of April the Chester local, by motion, decided to lay its demands before the contractors, and they embodied in the scale the request that the bosses either sign or refuse to do so by the first of May. The men concerned in Chester were sure they could win, and in fact, never had any reason to believe from the attitude of the contractors that their terms would not be granted. Several meetings were held by the bosses and finally they decided to be governed entirely by what the builders' exchange of East Liverpool decided to do. The East Liverpool journeymen were out at this time, and had been since April 1, and when the difficulty was no nearer a settlement at the end of four weeks, the Chester contractors concluded to break away and act independently.

Before the scale of the Chester workmen expired the assurance was given them that, dating from the first of May, the request would be complied with. All but one of the boss carpenters of Chester signed the scale, and arranged matters so that not a single man in their employ lost a minute's work. The contractor who refused claimed he had a just reason for the refusal. He stated there was not a man employed by him who could earn $3 a day in the eight hours. Therefore he would not sign up, and has not since done so. The union has investigated and is now engaged in trying to induce the contractor to sign.

For some time no effort was made by this contractor to work a crew, but as the days passed and none of the union men were willing to take up his end of the fight, he began to look about for workmen of another stripe. A week ago he employed four men, all of whom were outside the union. The Chester local sent a committee to visit the men employed and reported that they scarcely knew the meaning of the word union. One of them said he owned a farm in the country, had his crops in, had built a barn or two and had come to town for the purpose of making money at the carpenter trade to pay a year's taxes. He did not want to join the union and was going back to the country in a few weeks. The other men on the job were of about the same sort, and though the members of the committee realized they had nothing to fear from them, they would rather union men be employed. A report was made to the union, and it was then decided to renew their efforts to bring the contractor into line.

The scheme of the Stewarts to develop a large tract on the Newell farm has been successful as far as it has progressed, and work will be commenced within a few days, it is thought. About $3,000 is needed to fully test the territory, and this amount has already been raised.

The latest transaction is that which may result in the transfer of the interests of the LaBelle and Franzheim leases to a company headed by A. B. Smith, of Wellsville. The land was originally taken up by F. A. Chapman, a well known oil man from down the river, but who was too busy at that time to develop the field to any satisfactory extent. The land is located on Tomlinson's run on what is known as the old Baxter farm. One well was drilled when the lease was secured, and 250 pounds of rock pressure of gas was secured. Nothing more was done, and the new concern proposes to see what can be done in the way of securing a gas supply.

The demonstration was made more than a year ago, and when it had been completed, the holders of the lease arranged to have the hole closed up, succeeding after a great deal of difficulty in having the supply anchored. It is expected that the transaction will go through within a few days.

ATTRACTIVE BILL

For the Present Week Arranged for the Patrons of Rock Springs Park.

With the opening of the summer theatre tonight the last of a long list of attractions for the benefit of the patrons of Rock Springs park will have been completed and put in shape to amuse and edify the people. The East Liverpool amusement lovers are the most liberal to be found anywhere, and they are the very first to recognize and appreciate real merit and enterprise.

Manager Strouss has taken no little pains in making the first bill such as would please the most fastidious, and in the Grand Duchess Opera company he has succeeded admirably. The aggregation is a strong one and is made up of several of the best vaudeville stars in the country. The attraction is sure to please and will undoubtedly

OIL OPERATIONS TO BECOME ACTIVE

The Southside Territory Soon to Receive More Attention Than Ever Before.

Oil operations on the Southside promise to be active during the coming summer and several transactions of importance have already been made in the territory adjoining the town of Chester. A number of new rigs have been brought to the field, and will be kept very busy during the season.

The scheme of the Stewarts to develop a large tract on the Newell farm has been successful as far as it has progressed, and work will be commenced within a few days, it is thought. About $3,000 is needed to fully test the territory, and this amount has already been raised.

Tomorrow evening the management has consented to book a private party for a dance. There will be a large number of East Liverpool's best people at the park, and the pavilion will be given over to their special use.

Wednesday has been taken up by the street railway employees, and the annual picnic of the members of Assembly No. 52, of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees of America will be held as their annual outing. The entire day will be devoted to the picnic and among other things a base ball game between the motormen and press team will be played.

The Wellsburg Knights of Pythias will be at the park on Thursday, and will be transported to Chester by special train. It is thought about 1,200 will be present.

An excursion will be run from Wheeling on Friday night and the principal amusement will be dancing.

There was a great crowd at the park yesterday and the excellent musical program provided by McGraw's orchestra was much enjoyed.

THE DAWSON REUNION

Will Be Held at Rock Springs, But the Date Has Not Yet Been Fixed.

The executive committee of the association of Dawsons has not yet decided upon a date for the annual picnic and reunion. The head of the executive committee is Harry Boyd, of Beaver, and in April the gentleman sent out notices for a meeting of the body to be held in this city, but no definite date was decided upon at that time.

When the last reunion was held a year ago it was decided to hold the next meeting at Rock Springs, but no date was secured. When the executive committee got together this year an attempt was made to hit upon a date that would suit the majority of the members, and a great many suggestions were made, but for various reasons it was not decided.

The principal reason for the postponement was the fear on the part of a few of the members of the committee that the annual outing would conflict in some way with the Hookstown fair. A majority of the Dawsons and their connections are residents of Beaver county, Pa., and Hancock county, W. Va., and always attend the fair. It is the intention of the executive committee that the reunion be held at a time when it will not conflict with the Hookstown fair.

A Hancock County Graduate.

On June 11 the commencement exercises of the West Virginia university at Morgantown will begin, and the ceremonies will be of more or less interest to the people of Chester. There will be 64 graduates. The only one in the list that hails from Hancock county is Robert Morrow Brown, of New Cumberland. Mr. Brown is well known to the people of the Southside, and has many friends in the upper portion of the county. He will be turned out a full-fledged attorney, and will arrive home about the middle of the month. Mr. Brown has not yet decided where he will hang out his shingle, but it will be in Hancock county or some place in West Virginia undoubtedly.

RIFLED THE HOUSE

A Sneak Thief Went Through the Dwelling of Aruhtru Simms in Chester.

A sneak thief broke into the residence of Arthur Simms on Phoenix avenue, Chester, Saturday night, and in the absence of Mr. Simms and his wife rifled every drawer and other receptacle about the house in search of valuables. In a bed room which the family kept under lock and kept the thief secured a pocketbook containing $9.50. How he gained admission is a mystery, and especial care was taken to secure the door when the family left home.

An umbrella, which was prized very highly, was also taken, together with a number of other articles of considerable value. The children had been left at home, and when the thief left the house was seen by them, but no alarm was raised at the time as they supposed he belonged there. The little ones were not able to furnish a description of the thief, and it is not likely he will ever be captured.

Baseball This Afternoon.

The Rock Springs cafe employees are playing base ball this afternoon with the painting crew, who have been working at the resort for several weeks. The cafe boys have a good lineup and in some manner have succeeded in winning every game in which they have participated. The painters are confident of victory, and will rely upon their ability to kick for victory. The teams will line up this way:

Cafe—Millhouser, c; G. Cochran, p; C. Smith, s; E. Frost, 1b; O. Strowe, 2b; W. Smith, 3b; C. Woods, lf; O. Thornton, m; C. M. Smith, r.

Painters—James, c; McDonald, p; John Smith, s; G. Bevington, 1b; Mulligan, 2b; Peppin, 2b; Irwin, lf; H. Finley, m; McElravy, r.

FANS WERE KEPT ON ANXIOUS SEAT

Up to the Eighth Inning the Game With Braddock Was Close.

FOUR RUNS THEN SCORED

By the Y. M. C. A. Which Gave the Home Team the Game—Third Victory in Four Games—Work of the Visitors Rather Poor.

While the Y. M. C. A. team has not been making any world record for shutouts, the percentage of victories since the series with Jamestown would certainly entitle it to a top notch position in the race for the pennant. Saturday, in one of the most exciting games of the season, the locals won again from Braddock, making the third victory in the last four games. The fans were kept on the anxious seat up until the eighth inning when the locals took what proved to be a commanding lead by scoring four runs. Once before they had what seemed to be a safe lead, but the visitors forged ahead of them.

As in the game Friday, the work of the visitors' infield was on the yellow order, the three errors of the short stop and third baseman proving very costly. The locals were fortunate enough to sandwich in a few hits among the misplays and this tells most of the story of the game. Miller, off side slab artist, who did so well in the afternoon game Memorial day, was not at his best and Keifer could not hold him. His two wild pitches and two passed balls by Keifer came near losing the game.

The visitors counted twice before the locals succeeded in even making a safe hit. In the second Bowes singled to center and stole second. Myers' short fly back to second fell safe and counted for a hit. Bowes moving up to third and scoring on a throw to second to catch Myers.

A base on balls to Smith, his steal and a single by Rafferty scored another in the third with none out. Reark's fine fielding ended the inning.

The locals took the lead in their half of the third. Harker started the trouble with a single to left and Emmerling moved him up a sack with a sacrifice. Miller's short fly to right dropped safe and Gibson found Kilgore for a pretty single toward right. Harker scoring. Youngson sent a sizzling hot grounder to Kilgore that nearly put him out of the business, but

DYSPEPSIA REMEDY THAT CURES

If Mi-on-a Does Not Cure Will Read Will Return Your Money.

Mi-on-a, the famous dyspepsia remedy, has made so many cures among his customers that Will Read says, "If this remedy does not cure you, we will cheerfully return your money."

Anyone who has dyspepsia, indigestion, headaches, dizzy feelings or liver troubles, should take advantage of this chance to be made well without any risk of spending their money to no purpose. Mi-on-a will cure; will regulate the digestion; will enable anyone to eat what he wants. If it does not do all this, the medicine will not cost you a cent.

Remember that Mi-on-a is the only medicine for the cure of dyspepsia that is sold under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

he held onto it and threw Brown out. Wallace rapped a safe one to right center and Miller and Gibson counted.

Four runs for the visitors in the sixth seemed to clinch the game, but the locals and the roosters were not discouraged. Keifer started the trouble by miffing the third strike on Peters and then threw wild to Wallace, Peters taking second. Bowes dumped one in front of the plate and was safe. Brown knocked down Davis' hard hit grounder and threw him out, Peters and Bowes scoring. Myers hit to Miller and was safe by the poor throw to first, Wallace chopping the ball Kilgore singled and West went to first on four bad ones filling the bags Davis scored on a passed ball and Myers counted in the same way.

The locals came near tying the score in their half when two runs were scored. Brown reached first when West fumbled his grounder and purloined second. Keifer singled to right, scoring him. Keifer stole second and scored on a wild throw to first on Harker's grounder.

The game was won in the last half of the eighth, when Wallace was given life at first on West's fumble of his grounder. Brown sent one to Kilgore too hot to handle and scored with Wallace on Keifer's single.

Keifer and Reark were run down between bases, after Harker hit to the infield, the play being a very peculiar one. Harker was sent to second on a balk and stole third. Emmerling walked and Miller singled, scoring Harker with the last run of the game.

EAST LIVERPOOL A. C. WON BY 10 TO 2.

The Boys From This City Did Some Excellent Playing—Wellsville Not in It.

Wellsville having sent the East End, Pittsburg, team home on account of inability to play good ball, asked the East Liverpool A. C. team to fill the date Saturday. Not having sufficient time to collect their whole team together, they went to Wellsville with only seven players. The home team, having two extra men, agreed to fill two positions.

Grafton went on first base and McGrew to middle field. Grafton played a magnificent game on first. Many times the ball was thrown low to him but with ease he picked them up and did not have an error. McGrew also played a fine game in the field and both men did their share of the batting, being the cause of at least seven

runs, assisted by errors.

Riley pitched as though he was looping the loop and all the rest of the Wellsville team played about the same way—like a crowd of school boys.

The visitors first went to bat and started things rolling in the first inning by scoring two runs. The home team followed with two runs, but after that were unable to score. In the seventh the home team had three men on bases and only one out. Even then it was impossible for any man to cross the plate. The crowd watched eagerly for the end to come, which proved a slaughter.

The visitors put up as fine a game of ball as has been witnessed in Wellsville. Every man played well and about all touched Riley up for a hit or two. The visitors were very happy over their victory. Stafford, as umpire, did not give satisfaction, and it is claimed, worsted Wellsville on many decisions.

CARROLL CLUB WON EASILY FROM CHESTER

In First Game of East Liverpool League Played at Y. M. C. A. Park.

One of the opening games of the East Liverpool league teams was played Saturday afternoon at Y. M. C. A. park, Chester, by the Carroll club and the Chester team. By superior batting and base running and the contribution of eight errors by Chester the Carroll club won easily by a score of 10 to 2. It was interesting throughout and was witnessed by quite a large crowd. Dechant, pitcher for the Carroll club, played a pretty game. The score:

OUTDOING EXPECTATIONS

Wonderful Success of B. C. Ansley's Half-Price Sale of Dr. Howard's Dyspepsia Specific.

We are always glad to print in the News Review a story about a remarkable success achieved by advertising, and especially so when the article advertised is one of superior merit.

Not so very long ago, B. C. Ansley, one of East Liverpool's most enterprising druggists, succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard company to allow him to sell their Specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price, as an introductory offer.

The results of this advertising have been phenomenal, and there has been hardly a week without Mr. Ansley being obliged to order fresh supplies. Such was his confidence in the remedy that he personally guaranteed every package of the Specific that he sold, and agreed to refund the money if it did not cure. His faith was well founded, for out of the hundreds of packages he has sold, only one has been returned.

Mr. Ansley does not know how much longer he will be able to continue selling Dr. Howard's Specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price, but will as long as the present supply holds out. Some of his customers have said they would pay a dollar a bottle rather than be without it.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

Zeke Wilson, formerly of Cleveland, has won every game he has pitched for Atlanta this year.

Only two members of the Philadelphia National league team are hitting over .300. They are Keister and Wolverton.

William Blezine, a New Jersey man, has gone violently insane, trying to solve the problem of greater speed for the motorcycle.

By scoring their fifth successive shutout Saturday the Pirates, of Pittsburgh, established a record that will probably stand for many years to come.

"Bucky" Moore, the left-handed pitcher from Crestline, who has been pitching good ball for the Warren team this season, has received flattering offers to join the Bellevue and Terre Haute teams. He will likely accept.

CHRONIC SORES

Signs of Polluted Blood.

There is nothing so repulsive looking and disgusting as an old sore. You worry over it till the brain grows weary and work with it until the patience is exhausted, and the very sight of the old festering, sickly looking place makes you irritable, despondent and desperate.

A chronic sore is the very best evidence that your blood is in an unhealthy and impoverished condition, that your constitution is breaking down under the effects of some serious disorder. The taking of strong medicines, like mercury or potash, will sometimes so pollute and vitiate the blood and impair the general system that the merest scratch or bruise results in obstinate non-healing sores of the most offensive character.

Often an inherited taint breaks out in frightful eating sores upon the limbs or face in old age or middle life. Whenever a sore refuses to heal the blood is always at fault, and, while antiseptic washes, salves, soaps and powders can do much to keep down the inflammation and cleanse the sore, it will never heal permanently till the blood itself has been purified and the deadly germs and poisons destroyed, and with S. S. S. this can be accomplished—the polluted blood is purified and invigorated, and when rich, pure blood is again circulating freely throughout the body the flesh around the old sore begins to take on a natural color, the discharge of matter ceases and the place heals over.

S. S. S. is both a blood purifier and tonic that puts your blood in order and at the same time tones up the system and builds up the general health. If you have a chronic sore write us. No charge for medical advice.

A TERRIBLE DISASTER

Steamer Sunk in a Collision
and Over One Hundred Perish.

SCENE DESCRIBED AS HORRIBLE

A Mass of Human Beings Clung to
the Foundering Vessel and Uttered
Despairing Cries as She Went Down.

Marselles, June 8.—A terrible shipping disaster occurred a little distance
from this port at noon, when two passenger steamers, the Insulaire and
the Liban, both belonging to the Fraisinet Steamship Company, of Marselles, came into collision. The Liban sank and over 100 of her passengers and crew perished.

The steamer Liban left Marselles
this morning on her regular trip to Bastia, Corsica, and was run down
and sunk by the Insulaire off the Maire Islands. The collision was witnessed from the pilot boat Blechamp,
which was about two miles distant.
The Blechamp immediately repaired
to the spot to render assistance. The force of the collision had cut a great
hole in the Liban's side and she already was making water rapidly. Her
captain saw the only chance was to run the steamer aground, and the Liban was headed full speed for the shore, but within 17 minutes of the collision, and when still in deep water
the fore part of the steamer plunged
beneath the waves, and a few minutes
later she had entirely disappeared.

In the meantime the Blechamp,
the steamer Balkan, also belonging to the Frassinetti company, and other vessels
had drawn near the sinking ship and
were making desperate efforts to rescue those on board. The Blechamp
picked up 40 persons, many of whom were at the point of exhaustion. The Balkan rescued 37 passengers and up
to the present it is known that, in addition to the passengers, 17 of the crew were also saved. Officers of the steamer Balkan describe the scene
before the Liban disappeared as a terrible one. As the vessel was sinking
she was inclined to such an angle
that her masts struck the water, causing an eddy which made the work of
rescue most difficult. A mass of human beings were clinging to the
foundering vessel and uttered despairing cries as she went down. For a few moments the victims were seen struggling in the sea, then the waves closed
over them and all was silent. Of
about 200 passengers who were aboard
the Liban it is feared that at least
half were drowned.

The Balkan launched three boats
and the other vessels did all possible
to save the victims in the short time
that elapsed between the time of the
collision and the sinking of the Liban.
Up to 5 o'clock 30 bodies had been recovered.

It is stated that the collision was
due to the following circumstances:
The Liban was putting out to sea just
as the steamer Insulaire was making for the harbor. The Insulaire, which lies off the entrance to the port, hid
the vessels from each other until it
was too late to avoid a collision.

Necessary Relief to Be Given.
Washington, June 8.—Absolutely
necessary relief in the way of rations,
medicines, etc., will be given by the
war department to the sufferers by
the disastrous floods in South Carolina. An appeal to Secretary Root
from the local authorities resulted in
orders being given to General Chaffee,
commanding the department of the east, to this effect. He will authorize an officer to proceed north from Atlanta, with sufficient supplies to relieve immediate necessities, as was done in the case of the sufferers by
the Gainesville, Ga., catastrophe.

Swindler Arrested.
New York, June 8.—Henry J. Cartwright, who was arrested by detectives, charged with running a fraudulent turf bureau, was arraigned in Brooklyn and held in $1,000 bail. Cartwright advertised extensively through-
out the west, and hundreds of letters
from persons whom he had victimized
were found in his office. When arrested he gave the name of H. B. Clarke,
but when shown his picture in the
regiment's gallery he admitted his identity and gave his real name.

flooded to the second story and several others were damaged by water.
More than 200 acres are under water

School Teacher's Body Found.
Topeka, Kan., June 8.—The body of Forest Kutz, a school teacher, was
found today in the debris left by the
flood. It developed that several fertile farms near North Topeka have
been entirely ruined. The swift current washed away much of the good
soil and in its place has left a thick,
hard layer of sand, rendering the ground useless. The water has fallen rapidly.

Uncle Reuben's Opinion.

purgatives and cathartics but when it comes to one that is easy and pleasant to take, mild
and gentle in its action, and that makes one want an extra slice of bacon for breakfast,
just give me Chamberlain's Stomach

WASHINGTON CITY POSTOFFICE

Tulloch Reaffirms That His Repre-
sentations Remain in all Essential Particulars True.

Washington, June 8.—Mr. Seymour
W. Tulloch, formerly cashier of the Washington city postoffice, under date
of June 3, has written a letter to Postmaster General Payne in response to replies received from Postmaster Merritt, of the Washington postoffice, and
others, to the charges of maladministration, made by Mr. Tulloch against
the management of the local postoffice. A large part of Mr. Tulloch's
letter is in defense of counter charges
made by Mr. Merritt against Mr. Tul-
loch. Mr. Tulloch says that the charge
that under his (Tulloch's) regime as
cashier of the Washington postoffice
quarterly payrolls were required to be signed in blank, even if true, would
but "produce a smile in Washington,
where probably the greater portion
of governmental employees sign pay-
rolls in blank." But he says that the fact is that this custom usually elsewhere was prohibited 18 years ago
by the then postmaster.

As to the reply of former First Assistant Postmaster General Heath Mr.
Tulloch says: "All that is necessary
is to compare my specific charges with
his general denial." He then reaffirms that his representations remain
in all essential particulars true
and not disproved and closes with a denial that there is any office within
the gift of the postoffice department
that he would accept, or that he ever
authorized his friends to seek his reinstatement.

Stagnation in Austria.
Vienna, June 8.—There is a whole-
sale emigration of miners and workmen in the iron district of Austria to
the United States in consequence of
the unprecedented stagnation of the iron industry. Hundreds of men have been discharged since the beginning
of the year, and the mines and iron
works are operating on short time.
Wages have fallen 50 per cent., and
in many instances the men are earning less than 50 cents a day and their families are suffering severely. There
is faint hope of any immediate improvement in the situation, and whole colonies of workmen are leaving the country.

Showers Lift the Pall of Smoke.
New York, June 8.—Brisk showers
which began in the small hours of
the morning and continued throughout
the day cleared away the dense pall
of smoke laden fog that overhung
the city for two days and permitted
the fogbound fleet of incoming Atlantic liners that lay off the bar to pass in by Sandy Hook. Among them
were the Cunarders Lucania and La-Carpentia, which lay at anchor outside for 30 hours. The St. Paul, of
the American line, and La Bretagne,
of the French line, were lucky in reaching port just as the fog was lifting.

General Resumption of Business.
Kansas City, Mo., June 8.—All day
gangs of men were at work clearing
away the debris of the flood, and there
will be quite a general resumption
in all lines of business. The packing plants will start up in a measure, and
all will be in full blast before the week ends. Both the Missouri and
the Kaw rivers have fallen fully three feet during the past 24 hours, and
have made it possible for a dozen
more railroads to make use of the Union depot. The railway situation
is greatly improved.

The Textile Situation.
Philadelphia, June 8.—The working
committee of the Central Textile union,
composed of one delegate from each union, composed of one delegate from
each union on strike, met at strike
headquarters and considered the situation. After a five hours' session the textile workers issued a long statement to the public, giving reasons for
the strike of over 75,000 men, women
and children. There were no developments in the strike today. It was an extremely quiet day in all the textile centres of the city.

OLD INDIAN TRAILS.

War, Hunting and Trading by the Indians Their Origin.

THE RED MAN'S HIGHWAY.

The Trail, Like the Indian, is Fast
Disappearing—Faint Traces Yet to
Be Found on Top of the Eleva-
tions.

To the present generation of people
in Pennsylvania and Ohio the Indian
is a mere tradition. This region in which the final struggles for mastery
were fought between white men and
red now, after so short a time, has
been swept bare of even the last remnants of the great tribes and con-
federacies which once defiantly took up
the hatchet to drive back the advancing army of white settlement. History as it is taught in our schools
gives scant detail concerning the ones
proud forest warriors, and the red
man himself has vanished like a
morning vapor, so that the present
masters of the ground once roamed
by Mingo, Delaware and Shawnee
know little of the former race and for
the most part have never seen a real Indian.

But this great race in disappearing
has left remnants of its former ownership. The names of many of our states, rivers and towns will ever call
to remembrance those whose rugged
and savage thoughts were expressed
in such flowing language. Not a few words and phrases which the early
white settlers picked up from their
red neighbors have won a permanent
place in our everyday speech. But not alone in these matters has the Indian left his memorials. There are
yet visible the unmistakable traces
of his great hunting and war trails at
many places in the Pennsylvania and Ohio country. Strange though it may seem, the narrow "threads of soil," as Hawthorne called them, which were
worn through the otherwise trackless
forests by many generations of Indian travelers, may even yet be followed in many places, especially along
the ridges.

Where these traces yet remain in the unchanged forests they are marked by a narrow lane in which even at
this day the absence of big trees and
the comparative openness of the
thicket point out the path even to
somewhat unskilled eyes. Almost always these old paths sought out high
and dry ground. Hence they followed
as nearly as possible the prominent ridges along their course. On many
such high places their traces can yet
be found. Here they are generally noticeable by a well-defined furrow
in the soil, about a foot to a foot and a half wide and frequently a foot deep.
A careful observer may follow these furrows sometimes for miles over the Ohio hills or through the Pennsylvania
mountains.

While these old roads were used for various purposes they generally had
their origin in one of the three great
pursuits of the Indian—war, hunting
or trading. The older trails are of the first two kinds. The trading paths were worn in later times when
the vanguard of the white man's business army set up its frontier trading posts. Then the Indian broke these newer roads that he might most
quickly reach these bartering places.
It was on these ways he traveled to
trade away his native riches for the
wares of white civilization, and back
along them he carried the germs of
his own destruction. Of the older
paths, the war trails struck with savage directness to the heart of the enemy's country. The red man was
a being whose hatred never died, and
it kept the great war trails worn deep
and smooth. The war trail was marked by two features, the many hidden
coverts for ambushing an advancing
foe, and the widely cleared open spots
about the springs, furnishing to war
parties camping places free from danger of surprise. The hunting trails
led from the permanent habitations
of the tribes to their hunting grounds.
Thither they sought the chase, and
gave themselves to this luxurious
period of their existence during summer, fall and squaw winter. The early storms of cold warned them that they
must seek the villages of their fathers for the long, hard winter of suffering and privation. Then the Good Spirit sent them the boon of the Indian summer, that, amidst its mellow
haze, they might seek the seclusion
shelter of their settled towns.

Many a day has the writer spent in
tracing out the beaten paths of the former lords of the forest. Through dense thickets and over cleared up
land he has followed these old ways.
While thus engrossed imagination has had no hard task to reconstruct the
thoroughfares which gave movement
in the Indian's barbaric social life.
Again along the narrow way defiled
the painted warriors bearing bloody
tomahawks and matted scalp. Again
the despairing prisoner was hurried
over hill and through vale in terror
of the uplifted blade, or lagging, was butchered, scalped and cast into the thicket. Once again came the hardy
picket of civilization, hunter or trader. Then followed the scout,
Soon with swinging axe and martial
music the first feeble armies marched,
widening the old paths and with mus-
ket and cannon sounding the knell of Indian power. There is a mine of romance hidden along these old Indian
trails, and he who delves in it will
find riches to his heart.

Eyeless Fish in Boiling Water.

One of the most remarkable discoveries
of fish ever made on this continent was
that made at Carson City, Nev., in 1876. At that time both the Hale and Norecross and the Savage mines were
down to what is known as the "2,200
foot level." When at that depth, a subterranean lake of boiling water was tapped. This accident flooded both
mines to a depth of 400 feet. After this water had all been pumped out except
that which had gathered in basins and
in the inaccessible portions of the
works, and when the water still had
a temperature of 128 degrees—nearly scalding hot—many queer looking little
blood red fish were taken out. In appearance they somewhat resembled the goldfish.

They seemed lively and sportive
enough when they were in their native
element—boiling water—notwithstanding the fact that they did not even have rudimentary eyes. When the fish were taken out of the hot water and put in-
to buckets of cold water for the purpose of being transported to the surface, they died as quickly as a perch or
a bass would if plunged into a kettle
of water that was scalding hot; not
only this, but the skin peeled off exactly as if it had been boiled.

Eyeless fish are common enough in all subterranean lakes and rivers, but
this is the only case on record of living
fish being found in boiling water.

Passing a Plute in a Church.

There was a very large congregation,
and the rector seeing that there was only one aim dish made signs to a rustic from the chancel entrance to come
to him and bade him go into the rectory garden through a glass door into
the dining room, where there had been
a slight reception before the service,
bring a dish from the table, take it
down one side of the north aisle and
up the other and then bring it to the
clergyman at the place from which he started. The rustic disappeared, reappeared with the dish, took it as he was ordered and presented it to the people
on either side of the aisle, and then approaching the rector whispered in his ear: "I've done as yer told me, sir. I've taken it down one side of the aisle and
up t'other—they'll none of 'em 'ave
any." No order had been given to empty the dish, and it was full of biscuits!—Dean Hole's "Memories."

Spelling in Chinese Works of Art.

If softening shellac with heat it
may be drawn out and twisted into almost white sticks and of a fine silky
luster. Extreme beauty is given to Chinese works of art by the use of shellac. Some of them are very ancient
and of great value. They are chiefly chowchow boxes, tea basins or other
small objects made of wood or metal.
They are covered with a coat of shel-
lac, colored with vermilion, and while
the layer of shellac is soft and pliable
it is molded and shaped into beautiful
patterns. Some of these works thus ornamented are so rare and beautiful
that even in China they cost fabulous
sums.

P. H. C. Social.

Arrangements have been completed for a social and lawn fete to be given by the new lodge of the Protected Home Circle, recently organized on Pleasant Heights. The date has been fixed for next Thursday night, and an invitation has been extended to the members of all other circles in the city. The affair will be held in the open air near the terminus of the Pleasant Heights extension of the East Liverpool railway, and promises to be well attended.

Birthday Party.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Feist, of Washington street, to about 60 of the young friends of their sons, Carl and Ambrose, in honor of their twelfth and sixth birthdays. From 5 until 9 o'clock this evening the little ones will make merry with games and other amusements. Refreshments of ice cream and cake will be served.

Probationers' Meeting.

The probationers and new members of the First M. E. church are invited to meet at the home of Josiah T. Smith, Calcutta road, on Thursday evening. The time will be occupied in devotional and social exercises and the evening will be thoroughly enjoyable.

TRYING TO OUST WESTERN UNION

MEANS IN THE WEST.

No Property of the Telegraph Company to Be Destroyed on Ft. Wayne or C. & P.

Salem, June 8.—The Pennsylvania company will destroy no property of the Western Union Telegraph company on the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh. This statement can be made on the authority of the counsel for one of the interested parties.

At present the Pennsylvania is trying to oust the Western Union by legal action from the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago and the Cleveland & Pittsburgh. The suits have already been entered and testimony is now being taken in the case.

In the meantime the drastic action taken on the lines east of Pittsburgh where poles and wires were leveled in two days, is not to be repeated in the west. The effect of the destruction of property was not exactly to the liking of the Pennsylvania itself, it is said, and the powers in New York had little difficulty in making a truce which will prevent its repetition.

The evacuation of these two rights of way by the Western Union is of the greatest importance to the Pennsylvania in its plans of connecting closely with the Postal Telegraph Cable company. It will give the Postal a through route from New York to Chicago and Cleveland along the Pennsylvania's right of way.

The Pennsylvania company, including all the lines west of Pittsburgh, has completed detailed plans for taking over the various restaurants and eating houses in important cities along the system. The properties will be purchased outright and placed under the control of the railroad company. E. W. Westlake, now superintendent of dining car service, will have charge.

SUITS ENTERED FOR BACK TAXES

ette by the coat collar with one hand and Hines with the other. He had both of them standing simultaneously and was starting to leave for a patrol box with his prisoners when another chapter was added to the already exciting incident. Friends of the Italian and the Irishman concluded that they would not allow them taken prisoners and in one grand rush they shoved the officer to the wall, tore the prisoners loose and a fierce struggle was immediately on.

The noise by this time had attracted a large crowd and while the fight was on in earnest there were at least two score rushing madly on all sides, men of inferior strength were being floored, hats were off, the hair and clothing were ruffled and the wild look on the faces of nearly all gave to the scene an aspect of tragedy impossible to describe.

Migliorette had been drawn through the crowd and pushed up the stairs in the hallway adjoining and for the time being McDermott turned his attention to Hines. When he started at the man a number jumped between them and it was necessary again for the officer to swing them right and left. One man made a grab for his gun, but he felled him like a log by a terrific blow with his left hand. He was successful as before, and taking a firm hold on the prisoner held him securely. While he was on the way to the street a brother of Migliorette rushed at Hines, landed a blow on his head and again it looked much as if the fight were only started.

The plucky officer, however, prevented the third onslaught when he grasped his club and yelled, "The first man that makes another move will get his head mashed into a pulp." The crowd commenced to realize that McDermott meant every word of it, and he was allowed to escort Hines to the city jail. Landing the man safely behind prison bars he returned to the scene and found Migliorette in bed with several brothers dressing his wounds. He demanded a forfeit for his appearance and getting it allowed the injured foreigner to remain in his room.

Hines has only been in the city a few days. He came here from Pittsburgh and secured work with the railroad contractors. He states that he has always harbored hatred for Italians and that when Migliorette addressed an insulting remark at him, he politely resented by knocking him to the floor. The characteristic of an Italian is to befriend his brother and to that end they will die. Consequently when they saw one of their number sprawling on the floor they all pitched in to avenge the suffering caused Migliorette.

Hines and Migliorette pleaded guilty when arraigned before the mayor this morning and each was fined $5 and costs. The Italian made his plea with reluctance. He said that Hines was just getting ready to shoot him when the bunch jumped on him. Friends of Hines appeared at the city hall and stated that they would pay his fine regardless of the amount. They would not stand for one of their brethren being incarcerated as the result of a fight with a foreigner.

LIVELY RIOT TOOK PLACE BETWEEN ANGRY FOREIGNERS IN A SECOND STREET HOTEL

Prompt Police Interference All That Prevented
Enacted.

A riot scene, the like of which was never before enacted in this community, occurred in the office of the National hotel, Second street, at a few minutes past 11 o'clock Saturday night. A dozen Italian laborers and two Irish bosses, all employed by Sims & Co., railroad contractors, caused the affray. Though no deaths resulted, several were badly injured and blood flowed freely.

Officer McDermott, who, after the hardest struggle of his life, succeeded in effecting a quietus by arresting the two most conspicuous parties, John F. Hines and Charles Migliorette, showed most remarkable nerve and came out of the melee without a scratch and with a reputation for fearlessness that will ever stay with him.

For a few minutes the murder of some of the participants seemed inevitable. The sons of Italy had lost all sense of reason and were in the battle to avenge by killing. The Irish bosses realized their extremely dangerous predicament and in defense of their lives were fighting in desperation.

When Officer McDermott arrived on the scene he was accompanied by a reporter of the News Review. Both had passed the hotel office but a moment before and were attracted back to the apartment by some one yelling in a loud voice for an officer. Upon arriving at the office the situation was grasped in a glance, and McDermott, closely followed by the reporter, dashed inside. The fight at this time was being waged in narrow quarters behind the clerk's desk.

McDermott sternly demanded quiet, but his order, if heard at all, was passed by unnoticed. He saw that speedy action was necessary if a terrible tragedy were to be averted, and with the bravery of a Custer he jumped into the thickest of the fray. On a 'cot lay Hines, practically at the mercy of Migliorette, while the latter's brothers were fighting desperately among themselves, evidently in an attempt to give the Italian the opportunity to finish the man who at the time was in a helpless condition.

Having found that words had no influence on the infuriated mob, McDermott commenced applying his physical strength. After knocking aside and trampling a number of the rioters, he reached the cot and exerting his every muscle he seized Migliorette.

of damage back where the first car left the rails. As was stated in the beginning the box cars were run in onto the switch, and were ranged along on the track as nicely as though they had been pushed in by an engine after the switch had been opened in the regular way. The switch leads from the main track to the south end of the Patterson foundry, and the cars went the whole distance, running off the end of the switch and into the bank at Walnut street with great force.

When the "wild cat" could get no farther there was naturally a smash-up at the rear, and an empty box car, the last one on the train, came near being telescoped. As it was the rear of a common flat car ran into the rear of the box car, derailing it and smashing a great hole in the side. The rear trucks of this car were on the main track, together with five other cars and the caboose, none of which were damaged in the least, while the front trucks were on the switch, fully 15 feet from the main track. It was a most peculiar looking mixup, and it is safe to say no one ever saw a more remarkable accident.

So much damage had been done that several hours were necessary to clear away the debris, and the wrecking crew was occupied until well on toward evening before the main tracks were free from wreckage. Traffic was not so seriously interfered with as if the wreck had occurred on a week day, but a number of the passenger trains were delayed by the fact that they could not get through on the main track.

The crew at the head of the train were not aware that an accident had occurred, and the damaged gondola was dragged for a distance of nearly 200 yards. It remained close to the rails all the way from the scene of the mishap to the passenger station, the wheels that were off the track cut into the ties, and when the Broadway crossing was reached, tore up the planks and demolished the safety gates. There is considerable of a curve at this point, and though the front truck remained on the rails those behind veered to the inside and caught the station platform.

Not a single plank going to make up the platform was left in place, and the boards were reduced to kindling wood. At the lower end of the platform below the Adams Express company offices, near Union street, the train was stopped, and the cars immediately in front of the damaged one were detached and taken to the lower end. A number of persons were standing along the track as the train passed and several only escaped being seriously injured by getting out of the way in a hurry. The end was smashed out of the car and coal was scattered along for several hundred feet. The wreck train was summoned from Wellsville, but did not arrive for several hours after the accident.

Meantime the rear portion of the train was doing a considerable amount

LOCAL DELEGATES OF THE K. OF P. AT CONVENTION.

The thirty-fourth annual meeting of the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, will be held in Canton this year, the first session being scheduled for tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Burt van Fossen is the regular representative of Peabody lodge, of this city, and he left this morning for Canton. He was accompanied by Martin Mears and O. D. Nice, both of whom are past chancellors and entitled to a seat in the grand lodge.

The members of the uniform rank will leave in the morning for Canton and will arrive there in time to participate in the big parade. The committee of arrangements has issued the program to be followed during the week, and in addition to laying out a vast amount of work for the convention, has provided all the amusements that it will be possible for the visitors to indulge in.

On Tuesday morning the uniform rank and any others who see fit to make the trip will visit the tomb of the late President McKinley at West Lawn cemetery. The members will go in a body and an appropriate ceremony had been arranged to be carried out at the cemetery.

Memorial Sunday was observed by the Canton lodge at the Grand Opera House yesterday, and was attended by many visitors and not a few of the out-of-town brethren.

Headquarters have been established at the Hotel McKinley, where a reception will be held tonight. Immediately after this reception the amplified first rank will be conferred at the Grand Opera House. The work will be done by the Cleveland team, composed of 100 members, and all are urged to take part. A large number of the members of the local lodge will leave the city tomorrow morning for Canton.

LANCLEY'S SLAYER IS STILL IN JAIL

Word from St. Louis Is That He Will Be Tried And Convicted.

In reply to a letter written the corner of St. Louis regarding the slayer of Frank Langley, Mayor Weaver received the following this morning:

"The slayer of Frank Langley is now safe in jail. The shooting took place so lately that the courts have not had time to act upon the case, but there will be no question of his conviction at the proper time."

Two McCooks Can't Come.

Lisbon, June 8.—(Special.)—Secretary Potts, of the centennial board, is in receipt of letters from Rev. Henry C. McCook, of Philadelphia, and Hon. Willis McCook, of Pittsburgh, members of the "Fighting McCook" family, stating that they will be unable to attend the centennial. General Anson G. McCook, ex-congressman from New York, is expected, however, and is on the program for an address.

WIFE BEATER'S BRUTALITY AROUSED A NEIGHBORHOOD

That Ogden Allison, a wife beater from the Calcutta road, is not now behind the bars at city hall, with a serious charge against him, is due only to the fact that his neighbors want to avoid becoming involved in so disgraceful an affair as took place yesterday afternoon.

Allison is a teamster when he works, but the neighbors say it is seldom he indulges in anything so strenuous. The story, as told by a neighbor, is one of the most cruel imaginable, and extends over a long period. The News Review's informant said:

"Allison has lived in this community for a year, and at times has been known to commit acts of violence most inhuman. We are as a rule a peaceable people, and until Allison

CLOSE WATCH ON SALOON MEN

Police Entered Four Places On Sunday and Took Two Crowds Into Custody.

AN EVEN DOZEN ARRESTS

The Sum Total of the Business Done By the Finest on Saturday Night and Sunday—The Alleged Offenders and the Charges.

As the result of police activity an even dozen alleged violators of the law were arrested between the early hours of Saturday night and yesterday afternoon. Among those taken in custody by the officers were John McFadden and Benjamin Scharr, saloonists of Second street, both charged with keeping their places of business open on Sunday.

The first saloon raided was that of McFadden. Chief Ryan, after a consultation with the day police, ordered that unusual vigilance be kept and all decided to make him a visit. It was about 10 o'clock yesterday morning when the chief, accompanied by Officers McDermott, Saulsberry, Dawson and Auferheide, piled into McFadden's place. They found the proprietor and four other men. The men were not drinking at the time, but there were several empty whisky glasses and a bottle of beer on a table. The four men giving as their names William Robinson, James Newman, Sparr Wallham and Sherman Carroll were taken to the city hall, charged with loitering in the saloon.

In the afternoon an attempt was made to land three saloon keepers, but the officers were only successful in one case. Frank Rigo's and John Michael's places were found to be unoccupied. McDermott and Saulsberry got Scharr. They ran on to two farmers from Hancock county and made the trio furnish bond for their appearance.

James Penny, who has rested in the city jail every Saturday night since the new administration went into effect and upon numerous occasions before, was picked up by Officer Dawson. The officer thought for a moment that he would let James pass by when he started through the Diamond, but the old offender could not resist the temptation to shout and make himself obnoxious, and as a matter of duty the policeman landed him. He gave an order on his wages and was released.

William Fortune had not been behind the bars for nearly a month and becoming anxious to see the interior once more hit upon the right plan to make a success of it when he tanked up and fell into the path of Officer Dawson. He also gave an order and is now enjoying freedom.

The Case Continued.

The case of Daniel J. Madden against Richard Bell, manager of the Consolidated China company, in which the plaintiff sues for $275 alleged to be due him as salary for his work while traveling as salesman for the company, came up for trial in the court of Squire McCarron this afternoon. Attorneys Thompson and Bowdler represented the plaintiff and Attorney George E. Davidson the defendant. After considerable argument the justice agreed to continue the case until June 22, when the defense expects to be ready for trial.

Archbishop of Manila.

Rome, June 8.—(Special.)—It is announced that Rev. J. J. Hart, of St. Louis, has received the appointment of archbishop of Manila.

DEATH CHAMBER WILL BE CROWDED

TWO CONDEMNED MEN THERE NOW AND MORE COMING.

Prospect of Many Executions at Columbus in a Short Time.

Columbus, June 8.—(Special.)—In a short time the death chamber at the Ohio penitentiary will be crowded with occupants. It now contains two condemned men—Al Wade and Philip Nagle—and others will be received soon. One of these is Ben Wade, a brother of Al, who has just been found guilty of murder in the first degree at Toledo, and as there was no recommendation for mercy the death sentence will be imposed on him. The Wade brothers and Ben Landis were arrested for the murder of Miss Sullivan in Lucas county and Landis is in jail awaiting trial. The indications are he will suffer the fate of the other two men. The three are desperate crooks. Al Wade will die in the electric chair on the 27th of this month unless the governor interferes, which is unlikely.

Philip Nagle was sentenced to death on April 15, but he was respite by the courts pending further investigation of his case. He was convicted of murdering a companion, whose body was found horribly mutilated in a sewer.

Samuel Keller, of Butler county, who decapitated his wife, has been found guilty and will receive the extreme penalty. The crime was a most atrocious one. The "Strangler," Alfred A. Knapp, the multi-wife murderer, is also confined in the Butler county jail and is almost certain of landing in the chair. Cincinnati has seven men under indictment for first degree murder and several of these are reasonably sure of receiving the death sentence. Cleveland has one convicted murderer who is doomed to this fate.

It was the horror of officiating at these executions that caused Warden W. Darby to resign.

A GREAT PARADE OF OLD SOLDIERS

All the G. A. R. Posts in the County to Be Represented at Lisbon Centennial.

Lisbon, June 8.—(Special.)—One of the most conspicuous features of the coming centennial will be the parade of old soldiers on Grand Army day, Thursday, June 18. Assurances have been received that every G. A. R. post in the county will be represented, and it is calculated that there will be at least 1,500 men in line, which will make the parade the greatest spectacle of its kind ever seen in the county. The marching column will be under command of Dr. A. C. Yeungling, of Salem, state G. A. R. commander, and his staff, all in full uniform.

Senator Hanna and other notables will have places on the reviewing stand on the public square. After the parade an army bean bake will be given by the W. R. C. in a tent near the square.

THE HORSE FELL ON RIDER'S FOOT

John Brooks Meets With a Mishap That Will Lay Him Up a While.

John Brooks, a well known and popular young man of the city, is lying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Timmons, on Lincoln avenue, with a badly crushed foot, the result of an accident that befel him Saturday evening while riding a horse through California hollow. The animal became frightened and attempted to run, but slipped and fell owing to the muddy condition of the road from the rain of that day. Brooks' right foot was caught beneath the animal and painfully hurt.

He was taken to the Timmons home, where he boards, and Dr. Bailey rendered medical attention. It was found that one of the bones of the foot was broken and he will be laid up for at least a month.

REV. C. G. JORDAN DECIDES TO RESIGN HIS PASTORATE AND BECOME AN EVANGELIST

Great and Unwelcome Surprise in the Announcement Made to the Presbyterian Congregation.

The congregation of the First Presbyterian church was given a great and most unwelcome surprise at the evening service yesterday when Rev. C. G. Jordan, who has had charge of the congregation for several years, announced his intention of giving up his work in this city and entering the evangelistic field.

An effort will be made to induce Rev. Mr. Jordan to reconsider his determination, but it is certain he will not do so. Since coming to East Liverpool Rev. Mr. Jordan has made hundreds of friends, and the acquaintanceship has not been confined to the Presbyterian denomination either. Wherever he has been called in his ministerial work, in or out of the church, he has endeared himself to all.

the people of this city, and his announced intention will be received with deep regret by all. The little minister has been a power for good in the community, and the loss of his services will be sorely felt among the church people and good citizens generally.

Rev. Mr. Jordan's resignation will take effect next October, and he will at once take up the work in the evangelistic field, which he has determined to adopt as the sacrifice of good prospects for an unusually successful career in the regular ministerial line. The church officers will not begin at once to obtain a successor to Rev. Mr. Jordan, as it is thought there is still a possibility that he may be induced to stay. His place will be hard to fill.

VOTE-GETTING GOES ON MERRILY

Saturday Was a Big Day and Couples Came in in Great Bunches.

The voting proceeds, rain or shine. Dull weather makes no difference with the coupon gatherers. They were particularly active on Saturday and the result was that the totals of several of the candidates in the race for the News Review prizes were materially increased. There is every prospect that votes will come in faster than ever during the present week, as all the candidates and their friends are hustling and taking steps to see that every possible vote be cast.

The following candidates have received 100 votes or more:

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

NEW YORK NOTES.

Taken altogether, the crockery business during the last week showed quite a material improvement and according to all conditions of the trade the prospects for the future are very bright. There were, of course, a few who would have welcomed a heavier inquiry, but the average volume of business transacted for the month of May will probably exceed that for the corresponding month last year, according to the New York Commercial. The fact that many of the traveling men are again on the road has resulted in larger mail orders, but the local retail business is not as large as it might be.

As far as the American wares are concerned the usual demand at this season of the year continues. Both the eastern and western factories are being operated regularly and some of the former are well enough filled with orders to keep them running all summer. Aside from the special trade there is a firm call for staple goods and an especially good call for hotel china, the demand for which has developed unusually early this year, in view of the active and profitable season anticipated at the seashore and mountain resorts.

The demand for English pottery is about on a par with last season's trade, although the present time is generally the duller of the year. French goods are in fairly big request and importers report but a slight falling off in the size of the orders for this favorite line of china. Judging from the number and size of the orders which came in during last month, there can be no doubt that German wares are retaining their popularity.

NO. 9 TO HELP.

No. 9, at an important meeting held last Friday night, opened nominations for officers and transacted considerable other business of importance. The local has decided to assist in every way possible in the campaign of the kindreders to increase their membership. Heretofore there has been talk that the two locals did not pull together, but in reality the relations are most cordial. No. 9 is now stronger than ever before and the kindreders are making rapid gains.

TO BEGIN SOON.

The new additions that are to be made to the works of the Pottery Mining & Milling company will be started shortly. Contracts have been placed for the mechanical appliances that will be used in the same and work on the buildings will begin at once.

NEW SLIP OUTFIT.

It is stated that the National China company will put in a new outfit of slip house machinery during the July loaf. The contract has been placed and the installation will be made as soon as the plant shuts down for the midsummer loaf.

WEAK, NERVOUS, WORN OUT WOMEN

The world is full of women whose life is one long struggle against diseases peculiar to their sex—whose days and nights are full of quiet, patient suffering. The head the seat of pain and pressure—the result of nerve depression and physical weakness brought on by uterine or ovarian trouble—the nerves on edge—inclined to laugh or cry at anything—an ever present dragging in the back, hips and limbs—a feeling of utter weariness, lassitude and despondency. To these people the Dr. A. W. Chase Nerve Pills are of incomparable value, having as they do the power to rebuild, to reinvigorate and resupply every organ, every nerve, every muscle, with the lost energy and to ensure a complete return to health, strength and vigor again.

Mrs. Margaret Tracy, of No. 178 Seventh street, East Liverpool, Ohio, says: "One of my family was very nervous, subject to nervous spells—weak and miserable—could not sleep and the indignation was very poor. I asked the invalid to take Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store. The result was splendid—the medicine built her up—enriched the blood—made the nerves strong—gave restful sleep and so strengthened the stomach that digestion is perfect—the old time languid, played out feeling has given place to one of strength and energy and as a result we are more than pleased with the medicine." 50c a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine company, Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

THE WEATHER.

Washington, June 8.—Forecast for Monday and Tuesday:

Western Pennsylvania.—Showers Monday morning, followed by clearing and warmer; light west winds; Tuesday fair.

Ohio.—Partly cloudy and warmer Monday; light west winds; Tuesday fair.

West Va.—Showers Monday morning, followed by clearing; warmer in west portion; Tuesday fair.

Pa. has sold all of his interests in that company and has resigned his position. The Shenango company recently increased its capital stock $50,000, of which about $40,000 has been taken. No successor has been elected to fill the vacancy.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

New Home for Secretary Cortelyou and Assistants—A Handsome Eight Story Structure.

Washington, June 8.—The department of commerce and labor will be located in its new home, the Willard building, on Fourteenth street, only a few doors from Pennsylvania avenue, though it will be a few days later before Secretary Cortelyou moves from his present quarters in the Builders' Exchange. The new building is a handsome eight-story structure. As the department of commerce and labor after July 1 will be one of the largest departments in the government, all the bureaus cannot be accommodated in the new building. Secretary Cortelyou, with his immediate force, will occupy part of the third floor.

Fatal Railway Accident.

San Jose, Cal., June 8.—One man was killed two persons fatally and several others badly injured in a runaway car accident on the Alum Rock Park electric railway. Deputy Assessor Edwin F. Goodrich, of this city, was killed outright. Alice Myers, aged 24 years, and Willie Baker, aged 11, were perhaps fatally injured.

APPROVAL GIVEN THE ARMY'S WORK

Rousing Meetings Held in the Interests of the Local Salvationists.

MANY PLEDGES OF MONEY

Great Help Given the Building Fund as the Result of the Rally Day Efforts—Eloquent Address by Colonel Holz at the Opera House.

The special services held in the city yesterday by the Salvation Army as a part of the campaign to raise a fund sufficient to wipe out the debt upon the building lot purchased some time ago, upon which it is intended to build a substantial barracks, would certainly be satisfactory to Adjutant Snider and his corps and to Colonel R. E. Holz and other visiting officers, both as to the interest manifested and the amount of money contributed. The people of the city have certainly demonstrated their approval of the great work the Salvation Army is engaged upon and its ability to cope with the conditions with which it is confronted.

Pledges of financial aid, which were given yesterday, warrant the statement that the indebtedness upon the site for the proposed structure will soon be met and that the officers will then see the way clear for the consummation of the project. The new barracks mean much to the organization in this city and the scope of its work will be increased many fold. Arrangements will be made so that the way-faring and unfortunate can be cared for, both as to shelter and food, one of the noblest aims of the army. Adjutant Snider can be assured of the hearty cooperation of the religious element of the city in any movement that tends to increase the usefulness of his faithful band.

The meeting at the opera house last night was a rousing one, the commodious auditorium being filled to its capacity. Mayor Weaver presided. He believes in the army and its work and expressed his hearty commendation of the plans to widen its usefulness. The great religious movements of the sixteenth century, that led by John Wesley and others, were a part of the Divine plan, he thinks, and the same is true of the Salvation Army. He introduced Colonel Holz, of Cleveland, the principal speaker of the evening.

Colonel Holz is not a stranger to the people of East Liverpool and in the audience were many old friends. He had intended to make an old fashioned gospel exhortation, but upon request this plan was altered and he talked of the accomplishments of the army since its organization many years ago. The army in this city, he stated, promises to help the administration in sustaining a high condition of morality and righteousness.

In replying to the question what he thought of the Salvation Army, Ian MacLaren, the noted divine and writer, said: "I like it, because it makes religion where there was none before." This is, in brief, the fundamental principle of the army, said Colonel Holz. It goes into homes where religion is practically unknown and where it is most needed. It is the aim to make religion, not simply to take care of the unfortunate and feed the hungry.

The history of the organization in the past 37 years bears evidence of the work accomplished and that it is equal to the task. In 50 countries the Salvation Army is preaching the gospel, in doors and out of doors. Its 16,000 officers conduct 35,000 open air meetings every week and 40,000 indoor meetings, which are heard by more than 5,000,000 members and hundreds upon hundreds of outsiders who gather at the open air meetings, many of whom have not darkened a church door in years.

Much has been accomplished since the army entered this city with but a handful of soldiers, and particularly pleasing is the progress made in the last 18 months. It has been such, said Colonel Holz, as to warrant asking the people to stand by them and be ready to help in widening the field of work by securing the new structure.

Adjutant Snider followed with a brief statement of the condition of the army locally. When the trustees met Saturday evening there was a debt of $875 on the lot, but since the opening of the campaign almost $400 has been donated. It is his hope to raise the entire amount during the campaign, so that they can proceed with the erection of the barracks. The opportunity was then given the congregation to make offerings and the response was most liberal.

Several of the Cleveland officers made brief talks, the meeting becoming of the nature of personal experience in Salvation Army work. Colonel Holz then took up his gospel sermon and delivered a most eloquent and able address.

It was announced from the platform that a free entertainment would be given tonight at the opera house by the Juniors, who have been practicing several months upon the program. Colonel Holz and several other prominent officers will be present and participate in the meeting. A most cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

In the churches of the city yesterday forenoon Salvation Army officers spoke as follows: First M. E. Colonel R. E. Holz; First Presbyterian, Major W. O. Hunter; First United Presbyterian, Major W. T. Bennett; Methodist Protestant, Staff Captain Boyd; Second United Presbyterian, East End, Adjutant Robert Butts. The services were all well attended and much interest shown.

A POWERFUL SERMON AGAINST THE SALOON

Rev. Purley A. Baker Argues That It Has No Right to Exist in Ohio.

Rev. Purley A. Baker, of Columbus, superintendent of the Ohio division of the Anti-Saloon league, addressed a large congregation at the First M. E. church last evening. For fully an hour the eloquent speaker spoke on the saloon, describing it as an intensely interesting manner the evil it has brought upon the nation, the plans that have been adopted to wipe it out of existence and the wonderful strides that the league is making to secure its abolishment.

In comparison with the work of temperance organizations when the league was instituted, Rev. Mr. Baker cited statistics, and in anticipation of the accomplishment of at least as much good in the future, he appealed to the members of the congregation for assistance from the standpoint of religious duty and free American citizenship. Upon the latter he laid much stress and every listener was deeply impressed.

"The work before us," said the speaker, "is to abolish the saloon for the protection of the generation that is now growing up and will soon enter upon womanhood and manhood. The saloon as an institution in Ohio is an outlaw by the constitution of the state, according to the clause, 'No license to liquor traffic shall be given.' The clause has never been repealed. It is on another contradictory clause, said to be so by those construing it from a technical standpoint, that the legislature allows the saloon to exist today. The clause referred to reads, 'But the legislature may provide against the evils resulting from the traffic.' They are provided for by the assessment of a fine on the seller. The assessment is commonly called a tax.

"The saloon in this state is outlawed by the federal court, Chief Justice Field having held that we have no inherent right to allow it. Judge Cook, of your own circuit court, has decided against it. It is outlawed also by business expulsion, social ostracism and religious anathema. That it exists is due to the appetite of men and their greed for money.

"Every civilized nation on the globe harbors a movement for the abolishment of the curse. America has risen to the first rank to overthrow the traffic. Forget that you are a Methodist, a Presbyterian, a Baptist, a Lutheran, or the member of any other religious denomination; remember only that you are an American citizen. If we appreciate, and I pray to God that we may, the splendid heritage of true American citizenship, it will be but a matter of a very short time until the saloon will go."

In closing his remarks, the speaker stated that the people will have the opportunity to crush the saloon in this city. He intimated that the time is not far off, but did not name the date.

AT ST. ALOYSIUS CHURCH

Trinity Sunday Observed With Impressive Services Yesterday.

Trinity Sunday was observed at St. Aloysius' church yesterday. Owing to indisposition Rev. Father Smyth did not deliver the expected sermon. He made a few remarks upon the feast of

Trinity, explaining that it honored the mystery of the unity of the godhead, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, being three persons and yet but one God.

The choir rendered Millard's mass, with the usual excellence for which it is noted. The soloists during the mass were Miss Mary Shaffer, soprano; Miss Margaret King, contralto; Robert Veneatley, bass; John Wheatley, tenor and Miss Elizabeth Hamill, organist and directress.

Mysterious Attack.

Evansville, Ind., June 8.—The county officials are investigating a peculiar attack on the steamer Park City, on the way for Bowling Green, Ky., just as she was entering the mouth of Green river. The steamer was fired on by several men and their fire was returned with Winchester from the boat. The passengers were panic-stricken, but none were hurt. No cause for the attack is known.

Relief from Drought.

Reading, June 8.—More rain fell in the Schuylkill valley than the total since the middle of last April. It will greatly relieve the effects of the drought, and farmers have hopes that some of their crops will be substantially benefited. In many cases however, there will be less than half a yield, notwithstanding this rain.

Winner of the Grand Prix.

Paris, June 8.—The Grand Prix de Paris, of 200,000 francs, about one mile and seven furlongs, was run at Longchamps, in the presence of an immense concourse. It was won by Edmond Blanc's Quo Vadis, while his Calus and Vincius were respectively second and third. W. K. Vanderbilt's Alpha came in fourth.

Twelve Inches of Hail.

Greenfield, O., June 8.—A heavy storm passed over this section, doing great damage to wheat and fruit. The path of the storm was about one mile wide. Hailstones as large as eggs fell and in some places the icy missiles were 12 to 15 inches deep on the ground.

Floods in Idaho.

Kalispel, Mont., June 8.—Disastrous floods in northern Idaho, caused by the rapidly melting snow in the mountains are causing considerable trouble to the Great Northern railroad. Long stretches of embankment along the Kootenai river have caved in, and it probably will be two weeks before traffic over the regular route can be resumed. No casualties, however, have occurred. The town of Benner's Ferry, Idaho, is flooded and the people are going around town in rowboats.

His Third Attempt.

Gloucester, Mass., June 8.—Howard Blackburn, who already has made two voyages across the Atlantic, alone in small dories, started in his 15-foot dory America in a third attempt to cross the ocean, with Havre as his objective point. His intention is to return via Gibraltar, Western Islands, Porto Rico and Cuba and exhibit his boat at the St. Louis exposition. A large crowd on the wharves and craft in the harbor gave him a hearty send-off.

Injured by Ferocious Dogs.

Cincinnati, June 8.—John Fergus, aged 15, was fatally hurt by a kennel of 25 hounds. As he was approaching the kennel of Julius Ernest the hounds seized him and tore him almost to pieces. Mrs. Ernest was seriously hurt in trying to rescue the boy. Finally Charles Fissell mounted a horse and undertook to ride over the dogs. Both rider and horse were seriously bitten, especially the latter.

Automobile Causes Death.

New York, June 8.—Frightened by a big automobile a horse driven by John Tanges, a wealthy resident of Greenlawn, Long Island, swerved from the road, upsetting the cart, and Mrs. Tanges was thrown into a ditch, receiving a fracture of the skull from which she died in 20 minutes. In the excitement no attempt was made to obtain the names of the automobile party, who continued on their way.

Hail Two Feet Deep.

Hillsboro, O., June 6.—A storm accompanied by hail visited this county. In places the hail covered the ground to the depth of two feet. The corn and wheat fields in the path of the storm are ruined. A heavy rain fell later, and numerous bridges and culverts have been washed out. The storm was about one mile wide.

Church Struck by Lightning.

Cleveland, June 8.—St. Paul's church, the fashionable Euclid avenue house of worship, where the Hanna-McCormick nuptials are to be held next Wednesday, was struck by lightning, and considerably damaged, the current entering near the spire and tearing a large hole in the roof.

Ladies and Children Invited.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous Little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken, many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others gripe and sicken, while De Witt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. MISSIONARY SWAN DELIVERS AN ADDRESS

Gives the Presbyterians an Interesting Talk About His Work in the South.

The congregation of the Second Presbyterian church were given a rare treat last evening when James Swan, of Canton, lectured upon the subject, "The Environments of a Mountain Missionary." Mr. Swan has only recently returned from the mountain districts of eastern Tennessee where he spent several months in missionary work. Most of this time was spent in Hancock county, which is inhabited by a peculiar and interesting people. Several centuries ago, when Portugal was experiencing a great rebellion, a great number of people escaped from the country and emigrated to America. One of their expeditions came to grief along the coast and the survivors made their way across the country to Hancock county.

The refugees cleared the land and became farmers and trappers, their descendants holding the land until this time. They have intermarried with Americans until their identity is almost lost, being apparent only in their straight black hair and swarthy countenances. Their manners and customs are almost similar to other mountaineers and Mr. Swan found them a most interesting study.

Mr. Swan is here to attend the anniversary celebration at the home of his father, Rev. J. N. Swan, of Ohio avenue.

Excursionists Are Home.

The excursionists who were making the round trip from this city to Charleston, W. Va., on the steamer Kanawha, reached home this morning safe and sound and in good health. All were much pleased with the trip and favorably impressed with the country around the capital of the little mountain state. Those who made the trip were: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith, Mrs. Martha Fisher, Mrs. Lou Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kinney.

Boys Caused Damage.

Sanitary Policeman Burgess was called to the East End this morning to investigate several complaints about the sanitary condition of the Klondike. In addition the officer had a rather peculiar duty to perform. Boys who play along Lake run near the brick works had constructed a dam across the stream and the water was forced onto adjoining property, causing considerable damage. The officer stated that he would break up the dam business.

Postponed the Celebration.

The observance of the 70th birthday anniversary of Mrs. James N. Swan and the tin weddings of her children, Mrs. J. P. Leyenberger, of Toronto, and Rev. C. N. Swan, of Shreve, O., which was to have taken place at the Swan home on Ohio avenue today, has been postponed until tomorrow. Several of the near relatives who were to be present could not reach here today.

Preparing for Children's Day.

Children's day will be observed next Sunday evening at the Second Presbyterian church with appropriate exercises, upon which the little ones are now at work. The exercises will be held in the evening owing to the special sermon which the pastor, Rev. Mr. Crowe, is to preach to the members of Pan American court, Tribe of Ben Hur.

Suing for a Board Bill.

Henry Twiford, who conducts a private boarding house in the East End, alleges that Roscoe Chancy, when he quit boarding with him, failed to pay $6 due on his board bill. He has entered suit in Squire Carman's court for the amount, through his attorney, J. E. Davis. The case has been set for Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

Church Meeting.

A business meeting of considerable importance will be held in the Erie street M. E. church tomorrow evening and all members are requested to be present. The children's day services which were to have been held next Sunday have been postponed until Sunday, June 21.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stays your urine it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. THE SURPRISE CLOTHING HOUSE

IT MATTERS NOT

How Sick You Are or How Many Physicians Have Failed to Help You.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will Cure You if a Cure is Possible.

Doctors are not infallible and there are many instances where they have decided a case was hopeless and then the patients astonished everyone by getting well and the sole cause of their cure was Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. A case in point is that of James Lettuce of Canajoharie, N. Y., who writes:

"Some years ago I was attacked with pains in my back and side that were fearful in the extreme. I could not control my kidneys at all and what came from them was mucous and blood. I was in a terrible state and suffered intensely. A prominent physician of Albany, N. Y., decided that an operation was all that would save me. I decided that and commenced to take Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. I felt better almost instantly. When I had taken about two bottles, the flow from the bladder was much cleaner, the pain stopped, and I was saved from the surgeon's knife and am now well."

Dr. W. H. Morse, the famous physician of Westfield, N. J., has this to say of this great medicine:

"I have known it to cure chronic inflammation of the kidneys, where the attending physician pronounced the case incurable."

No form of kidney, liver, bladder or blood disease, or the distressing sicknesses so common to women, can long withstanding the great curative power of this famous specific. Its record of cures has made it famous in medical circles everywhere.

It is for sale by all druggists in the Now 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles—less than a cent a dose.

Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cures all forms of kidney, liver, bladder, blood, and rheumatic diseases. 50c.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

C. Reich, of Salem, killed a snake almost seven feet long near Ellsworth. Jeremiah Bossert, an old and prominent resident of Salem, is dead. Two daughters survive him.

P. C. Miller, a well-to-do farmer, was instantly killed by a Pennsylvania express train at Canton.

Youngstown police have been ordered to enforce the anti-spitting ordinance, which carries a penalty of $1 to $25 fine.

Mrs. Susan Miller, aged 97 years, died at the home of her son, E. H. Miller, five miles north of Alliance. Her death was brought about by a fall.

Treasurer D. W. Effe, of Wheeling lodge No. 6, A. O. W., reports his lodge books missing. It is claimed $2,000 is due members of the order. Burglars are said to have taken the books.

Miss Emma Greiner, a young woman of Martin's Ferry, is missing from her home on North street. Simultaneous with her disappearance has vanished $500 which belonged to her foster mother, Mrs. Sophia Greiner.

Anna M. Zellars, of Columbiana, has filed suit at Youngstown against the Pennsylvania company to recover $10,000 for the death of her husband the late Samuel Zellars, who was struck by a train and killed while painting a railroad bridge on the F. Wayne road.

$25 TO COLORADO AND BACK.

It has been estimated that between 8,000,000 and 10,000,000 persons in the United States take a vacation every summer. They spend between $400,000,000 and $500,000,000 yearly in pursuit of pleasure. This is a great deal of money to spend during a vacation, but this season the expenditure per capita may be somewhat less on account of the low railroad rates offered by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway.

From July 1 to 10 this line will sell tickets to Colorado and return from Chicago for $25. This will enable many to enjoy their summer's outing at slight expense. Colorado summer resorts are cooler than the seashore.

For scenic beauty the Rocky Mountain region is famous the world round. The most attractive spots among these peaks are beautifully pictured and faithfully described in a new book just published by the passenger department of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway. It will be sent on receipt of six cents to pay postage.

HANDSOME CHURCH DEDICATED

President Roosevelt, With His Family. Attend—Makes Brief Address.

Washington, June 8.—The handsome new home of the Grace Memorial church, which President Roosevelt attends, was dedicated with appropriate exercises. President Roosevelt

REV. JOHN M. SCHICK

with his family, attended the services and made a brief address. The Rev. J. M. Schick, the pastor, read the article of consecration, and the Rev. E. R. Eschbach, D. D., of Fredericks, Md., preached the dedication sermon. The others who took part in the exercises were the Rev. C. S. Slagle, of Westminster, Md.; the Rev. Faag, of the Middle Dutch Collegiate Reformed church, of New York city; the Rev. A. T. G. Apple, of Catawissa, Pa.; the Rev. G. A. Snyder, of Hagerstown, Md.; the Rev. J. A. Hoffheins, the Rev. J. C. Musser, of Philadelphia, and the Rev. Robert O'Boyle, of Sunbury, Pa.

SEES HUSBAND KILL HIMSELF

Glass Worker Wanted to Show Wife Pistol Was Empty and Pulled the Trigger.

Wellsburg, W. Va., June 8.—"Now, I'll try it on myself," said I. M. Wright at his home, as he pointed a revolver at his breast. He pulled the trigger, thinking the weapon empty, and dropped dead before his wife and little son. Wright was employed at the Riverside glass works, having recently come from Mountsville. He went home to dinner at noon and took his pistol from its usual place in his bedroom. In a spirit of playfulness he pointed the gun at his wife and 2-year-old son. His wife protested, and to show her there was no danger he turned the weapon upon himself with fatal result. Wright was 25 years old.

The sympathy of workmen generally will go out to the Philadelphia
textile workers who are striking, not for higher wages nor recognition of the union, but for lower wages and shorter hours. They are simply demanding a 9-hour day, instead of ten hours. There is a strike against overwork. Modern machinery and modern methods keep the operatives under too tense a strain to put in such long hours with satisfactory results either to themselves or their employers.

Rev. C. G. Jordan's announced determination to quit his pastorate and enter the evangelistic field will be received with sincere regret by the people of East Liverpool. Although a young man, his ability and energy have won him such success in this city as few men, whatever their experience in the ministry, have achieved. The religious field is full of opportunity for such men, and those who know him best are confident that Mr. Jordan will do noble work wherever he may go.

Ambassador McCormick, who has just arrived in this country, says the

a lot of mean things about the czar. It may be mentioned incidentally that Mr. McCormick expects to go back.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Philip Simon.
Lisbon, June 8.—(Special).—The body of Mrs. Philip Simon, who died in Denver, Col., last Thursday, will be brought to Leetonia, where the funeral and burial will take place tomorrow. Mrs. Simon was 69 years old and had lived most of her life in Salem
township, but spent the last two years of her life with her son in Denver. She leaves a husband and four sons.

Death of An Infant.

Lisbon, June 8.—(Special).—The committee on relics for the display to be made during the centennial has been doing good work, having secured a good collection. These articles will be on exhibition in the Huston block,
on the square, which will be known as

The committee is desirous of adding a few more curios to the exhibit,
and would urge that anyone having anything that would make an addition to the interesting collection to do so.
The display will be guarded night and day. F. M. Brinner is president of the committee.

LAWRENCE MALEY QUITS MORGANTOWN

The Boy Pitcher Now At Home—Why
He Left the Varsity Team.

Larry Maley, known throughout this section as the "Boy Wonder," returned home Saturday night from Morgantown, W. Va., where he has been playing with the West Virginia University team during the season. While with the college boys he played under the name of Robert Cunningham. The Morgantown Evening Post has the following to say of his resignation:
"Robert Cunningham, one of the University base ball pitchers, left this morning for his home at Berkeley Springs. He will stop off at Pittsburg for two or three days. The Athletic Association committee was, it is said,
investigating into the matter of Cun-
ningham's eligibility to membership on the base ball team. It having been reported that he was a ringer in, etc.
It would make no difference, anyway,
whether or not Cunningham had ever received a salary for pitching, as he is a youth of 19 and could not very well be termed a professional ball player."

"In the fall he matriculated at the University and has since been a constant attendant at classes. Before leaving this morning Cunningham stated that he did not come here to play ball, and he did not at the time of entering school know whether or not he would play ball on the Varsity team. The annoyance connected with the proposed investigation angered
the young twirler and he packed his clothes and went home. His departure, and Croninger's absence at his home on account of the illness of his sister, leaves the Varsity team with but one man for the rubber, Smith,
and to use a term more expressive than elegant the Varsity team is just now 'up against it and away up in the air.'"
"Games are scheduled with Waynesburg, at Waynesburg, Friday, June 12,
and with W. & J. at Washington, Pa., Saturday, June 13. No games are booked for commencement, but Manager Cole expects to secure a game
for Wednesday, June 17, and for commencement day, Thursday, June 18.
"Cunningham has a brilliant future
before him. He has almost everything he might want, and with a year's more experience will be ripe for any league.
He has been unfortunate in receiving poor support whenever his delivery was hit, which has caused several games to be charged as defeats for the locals."

A Peculiar Railway Accident.

Pittsburg, June 8.—Killed while sitting comfortably in a street car imagining himself safe, was the fate of Philip House, aged 22, of Sharnsburg, House died at the Mercy hospital
from injuries received in an accident at the Carnegie car barn. Motorman Henry Uorathy, on car No. 1648, on taking his car from the barn, had crossed over the westbound track and had not yet closed the switch, when car No. 1651, run by George Wishart,
from Pittsburg, containing about 25
passengers, ran into the open switch, sideways to the other car. House was sitting on the back of a seat near the

WELLSVILLE

Impressive and Beautiful Exercises By the Woodmen at Spring Hill Cemetery.

About 35 members of the Woodmen of the World, of Toronto, arrived in Wellsville on the Sunday morning train. In the afternoon, headed by a band, which they brought with them, they marched to the Spring Hill cemetery and unveiled the monument placed there by them in memory of the late W. T. Brooks. The unveiling was conducted with interesting exercises as provided in the ritual of the order. Several appropriate selections were rendered by the band. The Woodmen returned home on the evening train.

W. T. Brooks was the son of John Brooks, of this city, and this city was formerly his home. For the past few years, however, he lived in Toronto and died in that city last fall. The remains were brought here, his former home, for burial, the Woodmen conducting the services. Mr. Brooks was well known in this city and quite a large crowd were at the unveiling exercises.

IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL

Knights Templar And Religious Services in Honor of Theodore Starrett.

Short religious services, conducted by Rev. Edwin Weary, of East Liverpool, were held over the remains of the late Theodore Starrett Saturday afternoon at the house on West Main street, Wellsville. Sunday afternoon the Knights Templar, of which lodge Mr. Starrett was a member, conducted services according to the ritual of the order. Short services were held at the house, then at Spring Hill cemetery in charge of Pilgrim commandery of East Liverpool.

The funeral procession was one of the largest in Wellsville for many days. The Knights Templar led, followed by the F. & A. M., the P. H. U. coming next, followed by a long string of carriages. It rained during the whole time at the cemetery, but this did not mar the beauty of the services.

The floral contributions were abundant and beautiful, especially those of the lodges, which were magnificent.

COLORED FIGHTERS

Two Men and a Woman Taken to Jail and All Given Large Fines.

Peacefully and quietly Alexander Johnston and his lady love, Sarah Smith, both colored, were enjoying a stroll along Jag alley Saturday evening. They had gone but a short distance when they were met by Sam Anderson, also colored.

Sam had been indulging in firewater and stopped the couple and wanted the woman to leave Johnston and go with him. She refused and he began to abuse her.

Johnston went to her assistance. The two men drew pen knives and each received several slashes, none of them serious. The three were marched off to the city jail where they spent Saturday night and Sunday. Before Mayor Fogo this morning Miss Smith was assessed $13.00; Johnston $13.00 and Anderson $23.00. Johnston's and the woman's fine will be settled, but Anderson still lingers with a chance of going to the Canton workhouse.

Saved Her Home From Burning.

By using rare presence of mind Mrs. J. S. Mackie, of Nevada street, saved her home from being destroyed by fire. The gas stove was burning in the pantry and Mrs. Mackie and her daughter Mayme were busily engaged with the household work. Mrs. Mackie noticed the odor of burning wood and told her daughter to look at the stove. Miss Mackie stepped to the pantry door and found the whole interior of the room a mass of flames. The girl screamed and the mother ran for water. The fire was put out with small loss.

Fine Dogs Stolen.

Jens Hamilton, of Wellsville, is mourning the loss of his two bull dogs. They were stolen from the kennel between the hours of 1 and 4 on Sunday morning. For "Pat," one of the dogs, Mr. Hamilton was offered a large amount, but refused to sell. For the other, "Nell," he has also received good offers but declined them. The police are looking for the dogs.

SOUTH SIDE

Chester Union Carpenters Desire to Have the Scale in Full Effect.

The members of the Chester local carpenters' and joiners' union are just now engaged in an effort to win over a non-union contractor, who has steadily refused to sign the scale.

When the East Liverpool local of the carpenters' union decided to make a demand for the 8-hour day, the Chester workmen engaged at the same occupation took similar action, although they determined to be guided by the outcome of the East Liverpool situation. It will be remembered it was several weeks before the East Liverpool journeymen were granted their request, and in the meantime the Chester men said nothing. In the latter part of April the Chester local, by motion, decided to lay its demands before the contractors, and they embodied in the scale the request that the bosses either sign or refuse to do so by the first of May. The men concerned in Chester were sure they could win, and in fact, never had any reason to believe from the attitude of the contractors that their terms would not be granted. Several meetings were held by the bosses and finally they decided to be governed entirely by what the builders' exchange of East Liverpool decided to do. The East Liverpool journeymen were out at this time, and had been since April 1, and when the difficulty was no nearer a settlement at the end of four weeks, the Chester contractors concluded to break away and act independently.

Before the scale of the Chester workmen expired the assurance was given them that, dating from the first of May, the request would be complied with. All but one of the boss carpenters of Chester signed the scale, and arranged matters so that not a single man in their employ lost a minute's work. The contractor who refused claimed he had a just reason for the refusal. He stated there was not a man employed by him who could earn $3 a day in the eight hours. Therefore he would not sign up, and has not since done so. The union has investigated and is now engaged in trying to induce the contractor to sign.

For some time no effort was made by this contractor to work a crew, but as the days passed and none of the union men were willing to take up his end of the fight, he began to look about for workmen of another stripe. A week ago he employed four men, all of whom were outside the union. The Chester local sent a committee to visit the men employed and reported that they scarcely knew the meaning of the word union. One of them said he owned a farm in the country, had his crops in, had built a barn or two and had come to town for the purpose of making money at the carpenter trade to pay a year's taxes. He did not want to join the union and was going back to the country in a few weeks. The other men on the job were of about the same sort, and though the members of the committee realized they had nothing to fear from them, they would rather union men be employed. A report was made to the union, and it was then decided to renew their efforts to bring the contractor into line.

Oil operations on the Southside promise to be active during the coming summer and several transactions of importance have already been made in the territory adjoining the town of Chester. A number of new rigs have been brought to the field, and will be kept very busy during the season.

The scheme of the Stewarts to develop a large tract on the Newell farm has been successful as far as it has progressed, and work will be commenced within a few days, it is thought. About $3,000 is needed to fully test the territory, and this amount has already been raised.

The latest transaction is that which may result in the transfer of the interests of the LaBelle and Franzheim leases to a company headed by A. B. Smith, of Wellsville. The land was originally taken up by F. A. Chapman, a well known oil man from down the river, but who was too busy at that time to develop the field to any satisfactory extent. The land is located on Tomlinson's run on what is known as the old Baxter farm. One well was drilled when the lease was secured, and 250 pounds of rock pressure of gas was secured. Nothing more was done, and the new concern proposes to see what can be done in the way of securing a gas supply.

The demonstration was made more than a year ago, and when it had been completed, the holders of the lease arranged to have the hole closed up, succeeding after a great deal of difficulty in having the seal anchored. It is expected that the transaction will go through within a few days.

When the last reunion was held a year ago it was decided to hold the next meeting at Rock Springs, but no date was secured. When the executive committee got together this year an attempt was made to hit upon a date that would suit the majority of the members, and a great many suggestions were made, but for various reasons it was not decided.

The principal reason for the postponement was the fear on the part of a few of the members of the committee that the annual outing would conflict in some way with the Hookstown fair. A majority of the Dawsons and their connections are residents of Beaver county, Pa., and Hancock county, W. Va., and always attend the fair. It is the intention of the executive committee that the reunion be held at a time when it will not conflict with the Hookstown fair.

A Hancock County Graduate. On June 11 the commencement exercises of the West Virginia university at Morgantown will begin, and the ceremonies will be of more or less interest to the people of Chester. There will be 64 graduates. The only one in the list that hails from Hancock county is Robert Morrow Brown, of New Cumberland. Mr. Brown is well known to the people of the Southside, and has many friends in the upper portion of the county. He will be turned out a full-fledged attorney, and will arrive home about the middle of the month. Mr. Brown has not yet decided where he will hang out his shingle, but it will be in Hancock county or some place in West Virginia undoubtedly.

The Wellsburg Knights of Pythias will be at the park on Thursday, and will be transported to Chester by special train. It is thought about 1,200 will be present.

An excursion will be run from Wheeling on Friday night and the principal amusement will be dancing.

There was a great crowd at the park yesterday and the excellent musical program provided by McGraw's orchestra was much enjoyed.

The executive committee of the association of Dawsons has not yet decided upon a date for the annual picnic and reunion. The head of the executive committee is Harry Boyd, of Beaver, and in April the gentleman sent out notices for a meeting of the body to be held in this city, but no definite date was decided upon at that time.

ATTRACTIVE BILL

For the Present Week Arranged for the Patrons of Rock Springs Park.

With the opening of the summer theatre tonight the last of a long list of attractions for the benefit of the patrons of Rock Springs park will have been completed and put in shape to amuse and edify the people. The East Liverpool amusement lovers are the most liberal to be found anywhere, and they are the very first to recognize and appreciate real merit and enterprise.

Manager Strauss has taken no little pains in making the first bill such as would please the most fastidious, and is the Grand Duchess Opera company he has succeeded admirably. The aggregation is a strong one and is made up of several of the best vaudeville stars in the country. The attraction is sure to please and will undoubtedly

A Sneak Thief Went Through the Dwelling of Aruthru Simms in Chester.

A sneak thief broke into the residence of Aruthru Simms on Phoenix avenue, Chester, Saturday night, and in the absence of Mr. Simms and his wife rifled every drawer and other receptacle about the house in search of valuables. In a bed room which the family kept under lock and kept the thief secured a pocketbook containing $9.50. How he gained admission is a mystery, and especial care was taken to secure the door when the family left home.

An umbrella, which was prized very highly, was also taken, together with a number of other articles of considerable value. The children had been left at home, and when the thief left the house was seen by them, but no alarm was raised at the time as they supposed he belonged there. The little ones were not able to furnish a description of the thief, and it is not likely he will ever be captured.

Baseball This Afternoon.

The Rock Springs cafe employees are playing base ball this afternoon with the painting crew, who have been working at the resort for several weeks. The cafe boys have a good lineup and in some manner have succeeded in winning every game in which they have participated. The painters are confident of victory, and will rely upon their ability to kick for victory. The teams will line up this way:

Cafe—Millhouser, c; G. Cochran, p; C. Smith, s; E. Frost, 1b; O. Strowe, 2b; W. Smith, 3b; C. Woods, lf; O. Thornton, m; C. M. Smith, r. Painters—James, c; McDonald, p; John Smith, s; G. Bevington, 1b; Mulligan, 2b; Peppin, 3b; Irwin, lf; H. Finley, m; McElravy, r.

The game was called at 4 o'clock and a large number of rooters are present.

REALM OF SPORTS

FANS WERE KEPT ON ANXIOUS SEAT

Up to the Eighth Inning the Game With Braddock Was Close.

By the Y. M. C. A. Which Gave the Home Team the Game—Third Victory in Four Games—Work of the Visitors Rather Poor.

While the Y. M. C. A. team has not been making any world record for shutouts, the percentage of victories since the series with Jamestown would certainly entitle it to a top notch position in the race for the pennant. Saturday, in one of the most exciting games of the season, the locals won again from Braddock, making the third victory in the last four games. The fans were kept on the anxious seat up until the eighth inning when the locals took what proved to be a commanding lead by scoring four runs. Once before they had what seemed to be a safe lead, but the visitors forged ahead of them.

As in the game Friday, the work of the visitors' infield was on the yellow order, the three errors of the short stop and third baseman proving very costly. The locals were fortunate enough to sandwich in a few hits among the misplays and this tells most of the story of the game. Miller, off side slab artist, who did so well in the afternoon game Memorial day, was not at his best and Keifer could not hold him. His two wild pitches and two passed balls by Keifer came near losing the game.

The visitors counted twice before the locals succeeded in even making a safe hit. In the second Bowes singled to center and stole second. Myers' short fly back to second fell safe and counted for a hit. Bowes moving up to third and scoring on a throw to second to catch Myers.

A base on balls to Smith, his steal and a single by Rafferty scored another in the third with none out. Reark's fine fielding ended the inning. The locals took the lead in their half of the third. Harker started the trouble with a single to left and Emmerling moved him up a sack with a sacrifice. Miller's short fly to right dropped safe and Gibson found Kilgore for a pretty single toward right. Harker scoring. Youngson sent a sizzling hot grounder to Kilgore that nearly put him out of the business, but

If Mi-o-na Does Not Cure Will Return Your Money.

Mi-o-na, the famous dyspepsia remedy, has made so many cures among his customers that Will Reed says, "If this remedy does not cure you, come back to our store and we will cheerfully return your money."

Anyone who has dyspepsia, indigestion, headaches, dizzy feelings or liver troubles, should take advantage of this chance to be made well without any risk of spending their money to no purpose. Mi-o-na will cure; will regulate the digestion; will enable anyone to eat what he wants. If it does not do all this, the medicine will not cost you a cent.

Remember that Mi-o-na is the only medicine for the cure of dyspepsia that is sold under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

he held onto it and threw Brown out. Wallace rapped a safe one to right center and Miller and Gibson counted.

Four runs for the visitors in the sixth seemed to clinch the game, but the locals and the rosters were not discouraged. Keifer started the trouble by miffing the third strike on Peters and then threw wild to Wallace. Peters taking second. Bowes dumped one in front of the plate and was safe. Brown knocked down Davis' hard hit grounder and threw him out, Peters and Bowes scoring. Myers hit to Miller and was safe by the poor throw to first, Wallace trapping the ball. Kilgore singled and West went to first on four bad ones filling the bags. Davis scored on a passed ball and Myers counted in the same way.

The locals came near tying the score in their half when two runs were scored. Brown reached first when West fumbled his grounder and purloined second. Keifer singled to right, scoring him. Keifer stole second and scored on a wild throw to first on Harker's grounder.

The game was won in the last half of the eighth, when Wallace was given life at first on West's fumble of his grounder. Brown sent one to Kilgore too hot to handle and scored with Wallace on Keifer's single.

Keifer and Reark were run down between bases, after Harker hit to the infield, the play being a very peculiar one. Harker was sent to second on a balk and stole third. Emmerling walked and Miller singled, scoring Harker with the last run of the game.

SATURDAY'S GAME AT WELLSVILLE

The Boys From This City Did Some Excellent Playing—Wellsville Not in It.

Wellsville having sent the East End, Pittsburg, team home on account of inability to play good ball, asked the East Liverpool A. C. team to fill the date Saturday. Not having sufficient time to collect their whole team together, they went to Wellsville with only seven players. The home team having two extra men, agreed to fill two positions.

Grafton went on first base and McGrew to middle field. Grafton played a magnificent game on first. Many times the ball was thrown low to him but with ease he picked them up and did not have an error. McGrew also played a fine game in the field and both men did their share of the batting, being the cause of at least seven

runs, assisted by errors.

Riley pitched as though he was looping the loop and all the rest of the Wellsville team played about the same way—like a crowd of school boys.

The visitors first went to bat and started things rolling in the first inning by scoring two runs. The home team followed with two runs, but after that were unable to score. In the seventh the home team had three men on bases and only one out. Even then it was impossible for any man to cross the plate. The crowd watched eagerly for the end to come, which proved a slaughter.

The visitors put up as fine a game of ball as has been witnessed in Wellsville. Every man played well and about all touched Riley up for a hit or two. The visitors were very happy over their victory. Stafford, as umpire, did not give satisfaction, and it is claimed, worsted Wellsville on many decisions.

The score:

In First Game of East Liverpool League Played at Y. M. C. A. Park.

One of the opening games of the East Liverpool league teams was played Saturday afternoon at Y. M. C. A. park, Chester, by the Carroll club and the Chester team. By superior batting and base running and the contribution of eight errors by Chester the Carroll club won easily by a score of 10 to 2. It was interesting throughout and was witnessed by quite a large crowd. Dechant, pitcher for the Carroll club, played a pretty game. The score:

OUTDOING EXPECTATIONS

Wonderful Success of B. C. Ansley's Half-Price Sale of Dr. Howard's Dyspepsia Specific.

We are always glad to print in the News Review a story about a remarkable success achieved by advertising, and especially so when the article advertised is one of superior merit.

Not so very long ago, B. C. Ansley, one of East Liverpool's most enterprising druggists, succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard company to allow him to sell their Specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price, as an introductory offer.

The results of this advertising have been phenomenal, and there has been hardly a week without Mr. Ansley being obliged to order fresh supplies.

Such was his confidence in the remedy that he personally guaranteed every package of the Specific that he sold, and agreed to refund the money if it did not cure. His faith was well founded, for out of the hundreds of packages he has sold, only one has been returned.

Mr. Ansley does not know how much longer he will be able to continue selling Dr. Howard's Specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price, but will as long as the present supply holds out. Some of his customers have said they would pay a dollar a bottle rather than be without it.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.
Zeke Wilson, formerly of Cleveland, has won every game he has pitched for Atlanta this year.

Only two members of the Philadelphia National league team are hitting over .300. They are Keister and Wolverton.

William Biezn, a New Jersey man, has gone violently insane, trying to solve the problem of greater speed for the motorcycle.

By scoring their fifth successive shutout Saturday the Pirates, of Pittsburgh, established a record that will probably stand for many years to come.

"Bucky" Moore, the left-handed pitcher from Crestline, who has been pitching good ball for the Warren team this season, has received flattering offers to join the Bellevue and Terre Haute teams. He will likely accept.

CHRONIC SORES

Signs of Polluted Blood.

There is nothing so repulsive looking and disgusting as an old sore. You worry over it till the brain grows weary and work with it until the patience is exhausted, and the very sight of the old festering, sickly looking place makes you irritable, despondent and desperate.

A chronic sore is the very best evidence that your blood is in an unhealthy and impoverished condition, that your constitution is breaking down under the effects of some serious disorder. The taking of strong medicines, like mercury or potash, will sometimes so pollute and vitiate the blood and impair the general system that the merest scratch or bruise results in obstinate non-healing sores of the most offensive character.

Often an inherited taint breaks out in frightful eating sores upon the limbs or face in old age or middle life. Whenever a sore refuses to heal the blood is always at fault, and, while antiseptic washes, salves, soaps and powders can do much to keep down the inflammation and cleanse the sore, it will never heal permanently till the blood itself has been purified and the deadly germs and poisons destroyed, and with S. S. S. this can be accomplished—the polluted blood is purified and invigorated, and when rich, pure blood is again circulating freely throughout the body the flesh around the old sore begins to take on a natural color, the discharge of matter ceases and the place heals over.

S. S. S. is both a blood purifier and tonic that puts your blood in order and at the same time tones up the system and builds up the general health. If you have a chronic sore write us. No charge for medical advice.

A TERRIBLE DISASTER

Steamer Sunk in a Collision
and Over One Hundred Perish.

A Mass of Human Beings Clung to
the Foundering Vessel and Uttered
Despairing Cries as She Went Down.

Marseilles, June 8.—A terrible shipping disaster occurred a little distance
from this port at noon, when two
passenger steamers, the Insulaire and
the Liban, both belonging to the Fraisinet Steamship Company, of Marseilles, came into collision. The Liban sank and over 100 of her passengers and crew perished.

The steamer Liban left Marseilles
this morning on her regular trip to Bastia, Corsica, and was run down
and sunk by the Insulaire off the Maire Islands. The collision was witnessed from the pilot boat Blechamp,
which was about two miles distant.
The Blechamp immediately repaired
to the spot to render assistance. The
force of the collision had cut a great
hole in the Liban's side and she already was making water rapidly. Her
captain saw the only chance was to
run the steamer aground, and the Liban
was headed full speed for the shore;
but within 17 minutes of the collision, and when still in deep water the
fore part of the steamer plunged
beneath the waves, and a few minutes
later she had entirely disappeared.

In the meantime the Blechamp, the steamer Balkan, also belonging to the Fraisinet company, and other vessels
had drawn near the sinking ship and
were making desperate efforts to rescue those on board. The Blechamp
picked up 40 persons, many of whom
were at the point of exhaustion. The Balkan rescued 37 passengers and up
to the present it is known that, in addition to the passengers, 17 of the
crew were also saved. Officers of the steamer Balkan describe the scene
before the Liban disappeared as a terrible one. As the vessel was sinking
she was inclined to such an angle
that her masts struck the water, causing an eddy which made the work of
rescue most difficult. A mass of human beings were clinging to the
foundering vessel and uttered despair-
ing cries as she went down. At the same time the boilers exploded, inflicting the horrors. For a few moments the victims were seen struggling in the sea, then the waves closed
over them and all was silent. Of
about 200 passengers who were aboard
the Liban it is feared that at least
half were drowned.

The Balkan launched three boats
and the other vessels did all possible
to save the victims in the short time
that elapsed between the time of the
collision and the sinking of the Liban.
Up to 5 o'clock 30 bodies had been
recovered.

It is stated that the collision was
due to the following circumstances:
The Liban was putting out to sea just
as the steamer Insulaire was making
for the harbor. Maire Island, which
lies off the entrance to the port, hid
the vessels from each other until it
was too late to avoid a collision.

Necessary Relief to Be Given.
Washington, June 8.—Absolutely
necessary relief in the way of rations,
medicines, etc., will be given by the
war department to the sufferers by
the disastrous floods in South Carolina. An appeal to Secretary Root
from the local authorities resulted in
orders being given to General Chaffee,
commanding the department of the
east, to this effect. He will authorize
an officer to proceed north from Atlanta, with sufficient supplies to relieve immediate necessities, as was
done in the case of the sufferers by
the Gainesville, Ga., catastrophe.

Swindler Arrested.
New York, June 8.—Henry J. Cart-
wright, who was arrested by detec-
tives, charged with running a fraudu-
lent turf bureau, was arraigned in Brooklyn and held in $1,000 bail. Cartwright advertised extensively through-
out the west, and hundreds of letters
from persons who he had victimized were found in his office. When arrested
he gave the name of H. B. Clarke,
but when shown his picture in the
regional gallery he admitted his identity and gave his real name.

School Teacher's Body Found.
Topeka, Kan., June 8.—The body of Forest Kutz, a school teacher, was
found to-day in the debris left by the
flood. It developed that several fertile farms near North Topeka have
been entirely ruined. The swift current washed away much of the good
soil and in its place has left a thick,
hard layer of sand, rendering the
ground useless. The water has fallen
rapidly.

WASHINGTON CITY POSTOFFICE

Tulloch Reaffirms That His Repre-
sentations Remain in All Essential Particulars True.

Washington, June 8.—Mr. Seymour
W. Tulloch, formerly cashier of the Washington city postoffice, under date
of June 3, has written a letter to Postmaster General Payne in response to
replies received from Postmaster Merritt, of the Washington postoffice, and
others, to the charges of maladministration, made by Mr. Tulloch against
the management of the local post-
office. A large part of Mr. Tulloch's
letter is in defense of counter charges
made by Mr. Merritt against Mr. Tul-
loch. Mr. Tulloch says that the charge
that under his (Tulloch's) regime as
cashier of the Washington postoffice
quarterly payrolls were required to be signed in blank, even if true, would
but "produce a smile in Washington,
where probably the greater portion
of governmental employees sign pay-
rolls in blank." But he says that the
fact is that this custom usually else-
where was prohibited 18 years ago
by the then postmaster.

As to the reply of former First Assistant Postmaster General Heath Mr.
Tulloch says: "All that is necessary
is to compare my specific charges with
his general denial." He then reaffirms that his representations remain in all essential particulars true
and not disproved and closes with a
denial that there is any office within
the gift of the postoffice department
that he would accept, or that he ever
authorized his friends to seek his reinstatement.

Stagnation in Austria.
Vienna, June 8.—There is a whole-
sale emigration of miners and work-
men in the iron district of Austria to
the United States in consequence of
the unprecedented stagnation of the iron industry. Hundreds of men have
been discharged since the beginning
of the year, and the mines and iron
works are operating on short time.
Wages have fallen 50 per cent., and
in many instances the men are earn-
ing less than 50 cents a day and their families are suffering severely. There
is faint hope of any immediate improvement in the situation, and whole
colonies of workmen are leaving the
country.

Showers Lift the Pall of Smoke.
New York, June 8.—Brisk showers
which began in the small hours of
the morning and continued throughout
the day cleared away the dense pall
of smoke laden fog that overhung
the city for two days and permitted
the fogbound fleet of incoming Atlantic liners that lay off the bar to
pass in by Sandy Hook. Among them
were the Cunarders Lucania and La-
Carpentia, which lay at anchor outside for 30 hours. The St. Paul, of
the American line, and La Bretagne,
of the French line, were lucky in
reaching port just as the fog was lifting.

General Resumption of Business.
Kansas City, Mo., June 8.—All day
gangs of men were at work clearing
away the debris of the flood, and there
will be quite a general resumption
in all lines of business. The packing
plants will start up in a measure, and
all will be in full blast before the
week ends. Both the Missouri and
the Kaw rivers have fallen fully three
feet during the past 24 hours, and
have made it possible for a dozen
more railroads to make use of the Union depot. The railway situation
is greatly improved.

The Textile Situation.
Philadelphia, June 8.—The working
committee of the Central Textile union,
composed of one delegate from
each union on strike, met at strike
headquarters and considered the situation. After a five hours' session the
textile workers issued a long statement to the public, giving reasons for
the strike of over 75,000 men, women
and children. There were no developments in the strike to-day. It was
an extremely quiet day in all the tex-
tile centres of the city.

OLD INDIAN TRAILS.

War, Hunting and Trading by the Indians Their Origin.

THE RED MAN'S HIGHWAY.

Disappearing—Faint Traces Yet to
Be Found on Top of the Eleva-
tions.

To the present generation of people
in Pennsylvania and Ohio the Indian
is a mere tradition. This region in
which the final struggles for mastery
were fought between white men and
red now, after so short a time, has
been swept bare of even the last remnants of the great tribes and con-
federacies which once defiantly took
the hatchet to drive back the advancing army of white settlement. History as it is taught in our schools
gives scant detail concerning the once
proud forest warriors, and the red
man himself has vanished like a
morning vapor, so that the present
masters of the ground once roamed
by Mingo, Delaware and Shawanese
know little of the former race and for
the most part have never seen a real Indian.

has left memorials of its former ownership. The names of many of our
states, rivers and towns will ever call
to remembrance those whose rugged
and savage thoughts were expressed
in such flowing language. Not a few
words and phrases which the early
white settlers picked up from their
red neighbors have won a permanent
place in our everyday speech. But
dian left his memorials. There are
yet visible the unmistakable traces
of his great hunting and war trails at
many places in the Pennsylvania and Ohio country. Strange though it may seem, the narrow "threads of soil," as Hawthorne called them, which were
worn through the otherwise trackless
forests by many generations of Indian travelers, may even yet be followed in many places, especially along
the ridges.

Where these traces yet remain in
the unchantered forests they are marked by a narrow lane in which even at
this day the absence of big trees and
the comparative openness of the
thicket point out the path even to
somewhat unskilled eyes. Almost always these old paths sought out high
and dry ground. Hence they followed
as nearly as possible the prominent
ridges along their course. On many
such high places their traces can yet
be found. Here they are generally noticeable by a well-defined furrow in the soil, about a foot to a foot and a half wide and frequently a foot deep.
A careful observer may follow these
furrows sometimes for miles over the Ohio hills or through the Pennsylvania
mountains.

While these old roads were used for
various purposes they generally had
their origin in one of the three great
pursuits of the Indian—war, hunting
or trading. The older trails are of
the first two kinds. The trading
paths were worn in later times when
the vanguard of the white man's business army set up its frontier trading
posts. Then the Indian broke these newer roads that he might more
quickly reach these bartering places.
It was on these ways he traveled to
trade away his native riches for the trappings of white civilization, and back
along them he carried the germs of
his own destruction. Of the older
paths, the war trails struck with sav-
age directness to the heart of the
enemy's country. The red man was
a being whose hatred never died, and
it kept the great war trails worn deep
and smooth. The war trail was marked by two features, the many hidden coveries for ambushing an advancing
foe, and the widely cleared open spots
about the springs, furnishing to war
parties camping places free from danger of surprise. The hunting trails
led from the permanent habitations
of the tribes to their hunting grounds.
Thither they sought the chase, and
gave themselves to this luxurious
period of their existence during summer, fall and squaw winter. The early
storms of cold warned them that they
must seek the villages of their fathers for the long, hard winter of suffering and privation. Then the Good Spirit sent them the boon of the Indian summer, that, amidst its mellow
haze, they might seek the securer
shelter of their settled towns.

Many a day has the writer spent in
tracing out the beaten paths of the former lords of the forest. Through
dense thickets and over cleared up
land he has followed these old ways
While thus engaged imagination has
had no hard task to reconstruct the
thoroughfares which gave movement
to the Indian's barbaric social life.
Again along the narrow way defiled
the painted warriors bearing bloody
tomahawks and matted scalp. Again
the despairing prisoner was hurried
over hill and through vale in terror
of the uplifted blade, or lagging, was hunted, scalped and cast into the thicket. Once again came the hardy
picket of civilization, hunter or
trader. Then followed the scout.
Soon with swinging axe and martial
music the first feeble armies marched,
widening the old paths and with mus-
ket and cannon sounding the knell of Indian power. There is a mine of romance hidden along these old Indian
trails, and he who delves in the past finds riches to his hand.

Eyesless Fish in Boiling Water.

One of the most remarkable discoveries
in the shape of a peculiar species of fish ever made on this continent was
that made at Carson City, Nev., in 1876. At that time both the Hale and Norriss and the Savage mines were
down to what is known as the "2,200
foot level." When at that depth, a sub-
terranean lake of boiling water was
tapped. This accident flooded both
mines to a depth of 400 feet. After this
water had all been pumped out except
that which had gathered in basins and
in the inaccessible portions of the
works, and when the water still had
a temperature of 128 degrees—nearly
scalding hot—many queer looking little
blood red fish were taken out. In appearance they somewhat resembled the
goldfish.

They seemed lively and sportive
enough when they were in their native
element—boiling water—notwithstanding
the fact that they did not even have
taken out of the hot water and put in
buckets of cold water for the purpose of being transported to the sur-
face, they died as quickly as a perch or
a bass would if plunged into a kettle
of water that was scalding hot; not
only this, but the skin peeled off exactly as if it had been boiled.

Eyesless fish are common enough in
all subterranean lakes and rivers, but
this is the only case on record of living
fish being found in boiling water.

Passing a Plate in a Church.

There was a very large congregation,
and the rector seeing that there was only one altar dish made signs to a rustic from the chancel entrance to come
to him and bade him go into the rectory garden through a glass door into
the dining room, where there had been
a slight refectory before the service,
bring a dish from the table, take it
down one side of the north aisle and
clergyman at the place from which he
started. The rustic disappeared, re-
appeared with the dish, took it as he was
ordered and presented it to the people
on either side of the aisle, and then ap-
proaching the rector whispered in his
ear: "I've done as yer told me, sir. I've taken it down you side of the aisle and up 'fother—they'll none of 'em 'ave
any." No order had been given to
empty the dish, and it was full of biscuits.—Dean Hole's "Memories."

Shellac in Chinese Works of Art.

By softening shellac with heat it
may be drawn out and twisted into al-
most white sticks and of a fine silky
luster. Extreme beauty is given to Chinese works of art by the use of shellac. Some of them are very ancient
and of great value. They are chiefly
chowchow boxes, tea basins or other
small objects made of wood or metal.
They are covered with a coat of shel-
lac, colored with vermilion, and while
the layer of shellac is soft and pliable
it is molded and shaped into beautiful
patterns. Some of these works thus
ornamented are so rare and beautiful
that even in China they cost fabulous
sums.

MEANS IN THE WEST.

No Property of the Telegraph Company to Be Destroyed on Ft.
Wayne or C. & P.

Salem, June 8.—The Pennsylvania company will destroy no property of the Western Union Telegraph company on the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh. This statement can be made on the authority of the counsel
for one of the interested parties.

At present the Pennsylvania is trying to oust the Western Union by legal action from the Pittsburgh, Ft.
Wayne & Chicago and the Cleveland & Pittsburgh. The suits have already been entered and testimony is now being taken in the case.

In the meantime the drastic action taken on the lines east of Pittsburgh
where poles and wires were leveled in two days, is not to be repeated in the west. The effect of the destruction of property was not exactly to the liking of the Pennsylvania itself. It is said, and the powers in New York
had little difficulty in making a truce
which will prevent its repetition.
The evacuation of these two rights of way by the Western Union is of the greatest importance to the Pennsylvania in its plans of connecting closely with the Postal Telegraph Cable company. It will give the Postal a through route from New York to Chicago and Cleveland along the Pennsylvania's right of way.

The Pennsylvania company, including all the lines west of Pittsburgh, has completed detailed plans for taking over the various restaurants and eating houses in important cities along the system. The properties will be purchased outright and placed under the control of the railroad company.
E. W. Westlake, now superintendent of dining car service, will have charge.

ette by the coat collar with one hand and Hines with the other. He had both of them standing simultaneously
and was starting to leave for a patrol
box with his prisoners when another chapter was added to the already exciting incident. Friends of the Italian and the Irishman concluded that they would not allow them taken prisoners
and in one grand rush they shoved
the officer to the wall, tore the prisoners loose and a fierce struggle was immediately on.

The noise by this time had attracted a large crowd and while the fight was on in earnest there were at least two score rushing madly on all sides, men
of inferior strength were being floored, hats were off, the hair and clothing were ruffled and the wild look on the faces of nearly all gave to the scene an aspect of tragedy impossible to describe.

Miglioretti had been drawn through the crowd and pushed up the stairs
in the hallway adjoining and for the time being McDermott turned his attention to Hines. When he started at the man a number jumped between them and it was necessary again for the officer to swing them right and left. One man made a grab for his gun, but he felled him like a log by a terrific blow with his left hand. He was successful as before, and taking a firm hold on the prisoner held him securely. While he was on the way to the street a brother of Miglioretti rushed at Hines, landed a blow on his head and again it looked much as if the fight were only started.

The plucky officer, however, prevented the third onslaught when he grasped his club and yelled, "The first man that makes another move will get his head mashed into a pulp." The crowd commenced to realize that Mc-Dermott meant every word of it, and he was allowed to escort Hines to the city jail. Landing the man safely behind prison bars he returned to the scene and found Miglioretti in bed with several brothers dressing his wounds. He demanded a forfeit for his appearance and getting it allowed the injured foreigner to remain in his room.

Hines has only been in the city a few days. He came here from Pittsburgh and secured work with the railroad contractors. He states that he has always harbored hatred for Italians and that when Miglioretti addressed an insulting remark at him,
he politely resented by knocking him
to the floor. The characteristic of an Italian is to befriend his brother and to that end they will die. Consequently when they saw one of their number sprawling on the floor they all pitched in to avenge the suffering caused Miglioretti.

Hines and Miglioretti pleaded guilty
when arraigned before the mayor this morning and each was fined $5 and costs. The Italian made his plea with reluctance. He said that Hines was just getting ready to shoot him when the bunch jumped on him. Friends of Hines appeared at the city hall and stated that they would pay his fine regardless of the amount. They would not stand for one of their brethren being incarcerated as the result of a fight with a foreigner.

LIVELY RIOT TOOK PLACE BETWEEN ANGRY FOREIGNERS IN A SECOND STREET HOTEL

a Bloody Tragedy From Being Enacted.

A riot scene, the like of which was never before enacted in this community, occurred in the office of the National hotel, Second street, at a few minutes past 11 o'clock Saturday night. A dozen Italian laborers and two Irish bosses, all employed by Sims & Co., railroad contractors, caused the affray. Though no deaths resulted, several were badly injured and blood flowed freely.

Officer McDermott, who, after the hardest struggle of his life, succeeded in effecting a quietus by arresting the two most conspicuous parties, John P. Hines and Charles Miglorette, showed most remarkable nerve and came out of the melee without a scratch and with a reputation for fearlessness that will ever stay with him.

For a few minutes the murder of some of the participants seemed inevitable. The sons of Italy had lost all sense of reason and were in the battle to avenge by killing. The Irish bosses realized their extremely dangerous predicament and in defense of their lives were fighting in desperation.

When Officer McDermott arrived on the scene he was accompanied by a reporter of the News Review. Both had passed the hotel office but a moment before and were attracted back to the apartment by some one yelling in a loud voice for an officer. Upon arriving at the office the situation was grasped in a glance, and McDermott, closely followed by the reporter, dashed inside. The fight at this time was being waged in narrow quarters behind the clerk's desk.

McDermott sternly demanded quiet, but his order, if heard at all, was passed by unnoticed. He saw that speedy action was necessary if a terrible tragedy were to be averted, and with the bravery of a Custer he jumped into the thickest of the fray. On a cot lay Hines, practically at the mercy of Miglorette, while the latter's brothers were fighting desperately among themselves, evidently in an attempt to give the Italian the opportunity to finish the man who at the time was in a helpless condition.

Having found that words had no influence on the infuriated mob, McDermott commenced applying his physical strength. After knocking aside and trampling a number of the rioters, he reached the cot and exerting his every muscle he seized Miglorette by the back of the head and pulled him off the cot. The latter, however, was not so easily won over and continued to fight. McDermott, however, was not to be defeated and after a few more blows he succeeded in subduing the Italian. The Irish bosses, seeing their leader thus vanquished, also ceased fighting.

ANNUAL MEETING OF GRAND LODGE

LOCAL DELEGATES OF THE K. OF P. AT CONVENTION.

The thirty-fourth annual meeting of the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, will be held in Canton this year, the first session being scheduled for tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Bart van Fossen is the regular representative of Peabody lodge, of this city, and he left this morning for Canton. He was accompanied by Martin Mears and O. D. Nice, both of whom are past chancellors and entitled to a seat in the grand lodge.

The members of the uniform rank will leave in the morning for Canton and will arrive there in time to participate in the big parade. The committee of arrangements has issued the program to be followed during the week, and in addition to laying out a vast amount of work for the convention, has provided all the amusements that it will be possible for the visitors to indulge in.

On Tuesday morning the uniform rank and any others who see fit to make the trip will visit the tomb of the late President McKinley at West Lawn cemetery. The members will go in a body and an appropriate ceremony had been arranged to be carried out at the cemetery.

Memorial Sunday was observed by the Canton lodge at the Grand Opera House yesterday, and was attended by many visitors and not a few of the out-of-town brethren.

Headquarters have been established at the Hotel McKinley, where a reception will be held tonight. Immediately after this reception the amplified first rank will be conferred at the Grand Opera House. The work will be done by the Cleveland team, composed of 100 members, and all are urged to take part. A large number of the members of the local lodge will leave the city tomorrow morning for Canton.

LANGLEY'S SLAYER IS STILL IN JAIL

Word from St. Louis Is That He Will Be Tried And Convicted.

In reply to a letter written the corner of St. Louis regarding the slayer of Frank Langley, Mayor Weaver received the following this morning:

"The slayer of Frank Langley is now safe in jail. The shooting took place so lately that the courts have not had time to act upon the case, but there will be no question of his conviction at the proper time."

Two McCooks Can't Come.

Lisbon, June 8.—(Special).—Secretary Potts, of the centennial board, is in receipt of letters from Rev. Henry C. McCook, of Philadelphia, and Hon. Willis McCook, of Pittsburg, members of the "Fighting McCook" family, stating that they will be unable to attend the centennial. General Anson G. McCook, ex-congressman from New York, is expected, however, and is on the program for an address.

WIFE BEATER'S BRUTALITY AROUSING A NEIGHBORHOOD

That Ogden Allison, a wife beater from the Calcutta road, is not now behind the bars at city hall, with a serious charge against him, is due only to the fact that his neighbors want to avoid becoming involved in so disgraceful an affair as took place yesterday afternoon.

Allison is a teamster when he works, but the neighbors say it is seldom he indulges in anything so strenuous. The story, as told by a neighbor, is one of the most cruel imaginable, and extends over a long period. The News Review's informant said:

"Allison has lived in this community for a year, and at times has been known to commit acts of violence most inhuman. We are as a rule peaceable people, and until Allison

CLOSE WATCH ON SALOON MEN

The Sum Total of the Business Done By the Finest on Saturday Night and Sunday—The Alleged Offenders and the Charges.

As the result of police activity an even dozen alleged violators of the law were arrested between the early hours of Saturday night and yesterday afternoon. Among those taken in custody by the officers were John McFadden and Benjamin Scharr, saloonists of Second street, both charged with keeping their places of business open on Sunday.

The first saloon raided was that of McFadden. Chief J. J. Ryan, after a consultation with the day police, ordered that unusual vigilance be kept and all decided to make him a visit. It was about 10 o'clock yesterday morning when the chief, accompanied by Officers McDermott, Salsberry, Dawson and Anderheide, piled into McFadden's place. They found the proprietor and four other men. The men were not drinking at the time, but there were several empty whisky glasses and a bottle of beer on a table. The four men giving as their names William Robinson, James Newman, Sparr Wallham and Sherman Carroll were taken to the city hall, charged with loitering in the saloon.

In the afternoon an attempt was made to land three saloon keepers, but the officers were only successful in one case. Frank Rigot's and John Michael's places were found to be unoccupied. McDermott and Salsberry got Scharr. They ran on to two farmers from Hancock county and made the trio furnish bond for their appearance.

James Penny, who has rested in the city jail every Saturday night since the new administration went into effect and upon numerous occasions before, was picked up by Officer Dawson. The officer thought for a moment that he would let James pass by when he started through the Diamond, but the old offender could not resist the temptation to shout and make himself obnoxious, and as a matter of duty the policeman landed him. He gave an order on his wages and was released.

William Fortune had not been behind the bars for nearly a month and becoming anxious to see the interior once more hit upon the right plan to make a success of it when he tanked up and fell into the path of Officer Dawson. He also gave an order and is now enjoying freedom.

The Case Continued.

The case of Daniel J. Madden against Richard Bell, manager of the Consolidated China company, in which the plaintiff sues for $275 alleged to be due him as salary for his work while traveling as salesman for the company, came up for trial in the court of Squire McCarron this afternoon. Attorneys Thompson and Bowdler represented the plaintiff and Attorney George E. Davidson the defendant. After considerable argument the justice agreed to continue the case until June 22, when the defense expects to be ready for trial.

Archbishop of Manila.

Rome, June 8.—(Special).—It is announced that Rev. J. J. Hart, of St. Louis, has received the appointment of archbishop of Manila.

DEATH CHAMBER WILL BE CROWDED

TWO CONDEMNED MEN THERE NOW AND MORE COMING.

Prospect of Many Executions at Columbus in a Short Time.

Columbus, June 8.—(Special).—In a short time the death chamber at the Ohio penitentiary will be crowded with occupants. It now contains two condemned men—Al Wade and Philip Nagle—and others will be received soon. One of these is Ben Wade, a brother of Al, who has just been found guilty of murder in the first degree at Toledo, and as there was no recommendation for mercy the death sentence will be imposed on him. The Wade brothers and Ben Landis were arrested for the murder of Miss Sullivan in Lucas county and Landis is in jail awaiting trial. The indications are he will suffer the fate of the other two men. The three are desperate crooks. Al Wade will die in the electric chair on the 27th of this month unless the governor intercedes, which is unlikely.

Philip Nagle was sentenced to death on April 15, but he was respite by the courts pending further investigation of his case. He was convicted of murdering a companion, whose body was found horribly mutilated in a sewer.

Samuel Keller, of Butler county, who decapitated his wife, has been found guilty and will receive the extreme penalty. The crime was a most atrocious one. The "Strangler," Alfred A. Knapp, the multi-wife murderer, is also confined in the Butler county jail and is almost certain of landing in the chair. Cincinnati has seven men under indictment for first degree murder and several of these are reasonably sure of receiving the death sentence. Cleveland has one convicted murderer who is doomed to this fate.

It was the horror of officiating at these executions that caused Warden W. Darby to resign.

A GREAT PARADE OF OLD SOLDIERS

All the G. A. R. Posts in the County to Be Represented at Lisbon Centennial.

Lisbon, June 8.—(Special).—One of the most conspicuous features of the coming centennial will be the parade of old soldiers on Grand Army day, Thursday, June 18. Assurances have been received that every G. A. R. post in the county will be represented, and it is calculated that there will be at least 1,500 men in line, which will make the parade the greatest spectacle of its kind ever seen in the county. The marching column will be under command of Dr. A. C. Yengling, of Salem, state G. A. R. commander, and his staff, all in full uniform.

Senator Hanna and other notables will have places on the reviewing stand on the public square. After the parade an army bean bake will be given by the W. R. C. in a tent near the square.

THE HORSE FELL ON RIDER'S FOOT

John Brooks Meets With a Mishap That Will Lay Him Up a While.

John Brooks, a well known and popular young man of the city, is lying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Timmons, on Lincoln avenue, with a badly crushed foot, the result of an accident that befel him Saturday evening while riding a horse through California hollow. The animal became frightened and attempted to run, but slipped and fell owing to the muddy condition of the road from the rain of that day. Brooks' right foot was caught beneath the animal and painfully hurt.

He was taken to the Timmons home, where he boards, and Dr. Bailey rendered medical attention. It was found that one of the bones of the foot was broken and he will be laid up for at least a month.

Going to the Klondike.

Lisbon, June 8.—(Special).—John Costello and W. H. Hepburn expect to leave for the Klondike next week in the interest of the gold company recently organized in Lisbon.

REV. C. G. JORDAN DECIDES TO RESIGN HIS PASTORATE AND BECOME AN EVANGELIST

Great and Unwelcome Surprise in the Announcement Made to the Presbyterian Congregation.

The congregation of the First Presbyterian church was given a great and most unwelcome surprise at the evening service yesterday when Rev. C. G. Jordan, who has had charge of the congregation for several years, announced his intention of giving up his work in this city and entering the evangelistic field.

An effort will be made to induce Rev. Mr. Jordan to reconsider his determination, but it is certain he will not do so. Since coming to East Liverpool Rev. Mr. Jordan has made hundreds of friends, and the acquaintanceship has not been confined to the Presbyterian denomination either. Wherever he has been called in the ministerial work, in or out of the church, he has endeared himself to the people of this city, and his announced intention will be received with deep regret by all. The little minister has been a power for good in the community, and the loss of his services will be sorely felt among the church people and good citizens generally.

Rev. Mr. Jordan's resignation will take effect next October, and he will at once take up the work in the evangelistic field, which he has determined to adopt at the sacrifice of good prospects for an unusually successful career in the regular ministerial line. The church officers will not begin at once to obtain a successor to Rev. Mr. Jordan, as it is thought there is still a possibility that he may be induced to stay. His place will be hard to fill.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

NEW YORK NOTES.

Taken altogether, the crockery business during the last week showed quite a material improvement and according to all conditions of the trade the prospects for the future are very bright. There were, of course, a few who would have welcomed a heavier inquiry, but the average volume of business transacted for the month of May will probably exceed that for the corresponding month last year, according to the New York Commercial. The fact that many of the traveling men are again on the road has resulted in larger mail orders, but the local retail business is not as large as it might be.

As far as the American wares are concerned the usual demand at this season of the year continues. Both the eastern and western factories are being operated regularly and some of the former are well enough filled with orders to keep them running all summer. Aside from the special trade there is a firm call for staple goods and an especially good call for hotel china, the demand for which has developed unusually early this year, in view of the active and profitable season anticipated at the seashore and mountain resorts.

The demand for English pottery is about on a par with last season's trade, although the present time is generally the duller of the year. French goods are in fairly big request and importers report but a slight falling off in the size of the orders for this favorite line of china. Judging from the number and size of the orders which came in during last month, there can be no doubt that German wares are retaining their popularity.

NO. 9 TO HELP.

No. 9, at an important meeting held last Friday night, opened nominations for officers and transacted considerable other business of importance. The local has decided to assist in every way possible in the campaign of the kindreders to increase their membership. Heretofore there has been talk that the two locals did not pull together, but in reality the relations are most cordial. No. 9 is now stronger than ever before and the kindreders are making rapid gains.

TO BEGIN SOON.

The new additions that are to be made to the works of the Pottery-Mining Co. Milling company will be started shortly. Contracts have been placed for the mechanical appliances that will be used in the same and work on the buildings will begin at once.

NEW SLIP OUTFIT.

It is stated that the National China company will put in a new outfit of slip house machinery during the July loaf. The contract has been placed and the installation will be made as soon as the plant shuts down for the midsummer loaf.

PHILLIPS HAS RETIRED.

WEAK, NERVOUS, WORN OUT WOMEN

The world is full of women whose life is one long struggle against diseases peculiar to their sex—those days and nights are full of quiet, patient suffering. The head the seat of pain and pressure—the result of nerve depression and physical weakness brought on by uterine or ovarian trouble—the nerves on edge—inclined to laugh or cry at anything—an ever present dragging in the back, hips and limbs—a feeling of utter weariness, lassitude and despondency. To these people the Dr. A. W. Chase Nerve Pills are of incomparable value, having as they do the power to rebuild, to reinvigorate and resupply every organ, every nerve, every muscle, with the lost energy and to ensure a complete return to health, strength and vigor again.

Mrs. Margaret Tracy, of No. 178 Seventh street, East Liverpool, Ohio, says: "One of my family was very nervous, subject to nervous spells—weak and miserable—could not sleep and the indigestion was very poor. I asked the invalid to take Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store. The result was splendid—the medicine built her up—enriched the blood—made the nerves strong—gave restful sleep and so strengthened the stomach that digestion is perfect—the old time languid, played out feeling has given place to one of strength and energy and as a result we are more than pleased with the medicine." 50c a box at dealers, or Dr. A. THE WEATHER.

Washington, June 8.—Forecast for Monday and Tuesday:
Western Pennsylvania—Showers Monday morning, followed by clearing and warmer; light west winds; Tuesday fair.

Ohio—Partly cloudy and warmer Monday; light west winds; Tuesday fair.

West Va.—Showers Monday morning, followed by clearing; warmer in west portion; Tuesday fair.

Pa. has sold all of his interests in that company and has resigned his position. The Shenango company recently increased its capital stock $50,000, of which about $40,000 has been taken. No successor has been elected to fill the vacancy.

THE SURPRISE CLOTHING HOUSE, 1324

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

New Home for Secretary Cortelyou and Assistants—A Handsome Eight Story Structure.

Washington, June 8.—The department of commerce and labor will be located in its new home, the Willard building, on Fourteenth street, only a few doors from Pennsylvania avenue, though it will be a few days later before Secretary Cortelyou moves from his present quarters in the Builders' Exchange. The new building is a handsome eight-story structure. As the department of commerce and labor after July 1 will be one of the largest departments in the government, all the bureaus cannot be accommodated in the new building.

Secretary Cortelyou, with his immediate force, will occupy part of the third floor.

Fatal Railway Accident.

San Jose, Cal., June 8.—One man was killed two persons fatally and several others badly injured in a runaway car accident on the Alhambra Park electric railway. Deputy Assessor Edwin E. Goodrich, of this city, was killed outright. Alice Myers, aged 24 years, and Willie Baker, aged 11, were perhaps fatally injured.

APPROVAL GIVEN THE ARMY'S WORK

Rousing Meetings Held in the Interests of the Local Salvationists.

MANY PLEDGES OF MONEY

Great Help Given the Building Fund as the Result of the Rally Day Efforts—Eloquent Address by Colonel Holz at the Opera House.

The special services held in the city yesterday by the Salvation Army as a part of the campaign to raise a fund sufficient to wipe out the debt upon the building lot purchased some time ago, upon which it is intended to build a substantial barracks, soundly certainly be satisfactory to Adjutant Snider and his corps and to Colonel R. E. Holz and other visiting officers, both as to the interest manifested and the amount of money contributed. The people of the city have certainly demonstrated their approval of the great work the Salvation Army is engaged upon and its ability to cope with the conditions with which it is confronted.

Pledges of financial aid, which were given yesterday, warrant the statement that the indebtedness upon the site for the proposed structure will soon be met and that the officers will then see the way clear for the consummation of the project. The new barracks mean much to the organization in this city and the scope of its work will be increased many fold. Arrangements will be made so that the way-faring and unfortunate can be cared for, both as to shelter and food, one of the noblest aims of the army. Adjutant Snider can be assured of the hearty cooperation of the religious element of the city in any movement that tends to increase the usefulness of his faithful band.

The meeting at the opera house last night was a rousing one, the commodious auditorium being filled to its capacity. Mayor Weaver presided. He believes in the army and its work and expressed his hearty commendation of the plans to widen its usefulness. The great religious movements of the sixteenth century, that led by John Wesley and others, were a part of the divine plan, he thinks, and the same is true of the Salvation Army. He introduced Colonel Holz, of Cleveland, the principal speaker of the evening.

Colonel Holz is not a stranger to the people of East Liverpool and in the audience were many old friends. He had intended to make an old fashioned gospel exhortation, but upon request this plan was altered and he talked of the accomplishments of the army since its organization many years ago. The army in this city, he stated, promises to help the administration in sustaining a high condition of morality and righteousness.

In replying to the question what he thought of the Salvation Army, Jan MacLaren, the noted divine and writer, said: "I like it, because it makes religion where there was none before." This is, in brief, the fundamental principle of the army, said Colonel Holz. It goes into homes where religion is practically unknown and where it is most needed. It is the aim to make religion, not simply to take care of the unfortunate and feed the hungry.

The history of the organization in the past 37 years bears evidence of the work accomplished and that it is equal to the task. In 59 countries the Salvation Army is preaching the gospel, in doors and out of doors. Its 16,000 officers conduct 35,000 open air meetings every week and 40,000 indoor meetings, which are heard by more than 5,000,000 members and hundreds upon hundreds of outsiders who gather at the open air meetings, many of whom have not darkened a church door in years.

Much has been accomplished since the army entered this city with but a handful of soldiers, and particularly pleasing is the progress made in the last 18 months. It has been seen, said Colonel Holz, as to warrant asking the people to stand by them and be ready to help in widening the field of work by securing the new structure.

Adjutant Snider followed with a brief statement of the condition of the army locally. When the trustees met Saturday evening there was a debt of $875 on the lot, but since the opening of the campaign almost $400 has been donated. It is his hope to raise the entire amount during the campaign, so that they can proceed with the erection of the barracks. The opportunity was then given the congregation to make offerings and the response was most liberal.

Several of the Cleveland officers made brief talks, the meeting becoming of the nature of personal experience in Salvation Army work. Colonel Holz took up his gospel sermon and delivered a most eloquent and able address.

It was announced from the platform that a free entertainment would be given tonight at the opera house by the Juniors, who have been practicing several months upon the program. Colonel Holz and several other prominent officers will be present and participate in the meeting. A most cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

In the churches of the city yesterday forenoon Salvation Army officers spoke as follows: First M. E., Colonel E. Holz; First Presbyterian, Major W. O. Hunter; First United Presbyterian, Major W. T. Bonnett; Methodist Protestant, Staff Captain Boyd; Second United Presbyterian, East End, Adjutant Robert Butts. The services were well attended and much interest shown.

A POWERFUL SERMON AGAINST THE SALOON

Rev. Purley A. Baker Argues That It Has No Right to Exist in Ohio.

Rev. Purley A. Baker, of Columbus, superintendent of the Ohio division of the Anti-Saloon league, addressed a large congregation at the First M. E. church last evening. For fully an hour the eloquent speaker spoke on the saloon, describing in an intensely interesting manner the evil it has brought upon the nation, the plans that have been adopted to wipe it out of existence and the wonderful strides that the league is making to secure its abolishment.

In comparison with the work of temperance organizations when the league was instituted, Rev. Mr. Baker cited statistics, and in anticipation of the accomplishment of at least as much good in the future, he appealed to the members of the congregation for assistance from the standpoint of religious duty and free American citizenship. Upon the latter he laid much stress and every listener was deeply impressed.

"The work before us," said the speaker, "is to abolish the saloon for the protection of the generation that is now growing up and will soon enter upon womanhood and manhood. The saloon as an institution in Ohio is an outlaw by the constitution of the state, according to the clause, 'No license to liquor traffic shall be given.' The clause has never been repealed. It is on another contradictory clause, said to be so by those construing it from a technical standpoint, that the legislature allows the saloon to exist today. The clause referred to reads, 'But the legislature may provide against the evils resulting from the traffic.' They are provided for by the assessment of a fine on the seller. The assessment is commonly called a tax.

"The saloon in this state is outlawed by the federal court, Chief Justice Field having held that we have no inherent right to allow... Judge Cook, of your own circuit court, has decided against it. It is outlawed also by business expulsion, social ostracism and religious anathema. That it exists is due to the appetite of men and their greed for money.

"Every civilized nation on the globe harbors a movement for the abolishment of the curse. America has risen to the first rank to overthrow the traffic. Forget that you are a Methodist, a Presbyterian, a Baptist, a Lutheran, or the member of any other religious denomination; remember only that you are an American citizen. If we appreciate, and I pray to God that we may, the splendid heritage of true American citizenship, it will be but a matter of a very short time until the saloon will go."

In closing his remarks, the speaker stated that the people will have the opportunity to crush the saloon in this city. He intimated that the time is not far off, but did not name the date.

AT ST. ALOYSIUS CHURCH

Trinity Sunday Observed With Impressive Services Yesterday.

Trinity Sunday was observed at St. Aloysius' church yesterday. Owing to indisposition Rev. Father Smyth did not deliver the expected sermon. He made a few remarks upon the feast of

Trinity, explaining that it honored the mystery of the unity of the godhead, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, being three persons and yet but one God.

The choir rendered Millard's mass, with the usual excellence for which it is noted. The soloists during the mass were Miss Mary Shaffer, soprano; Miss Margaret King, contralto; Robert Vucetich, bass; John Wheatley, tenor and Miss Elizabeth Hamilton, organist and directress.

Mysterious Attack.

Evansville, Ind., June 8.—The county officials are investigating a peculiar attack on the steamer Park City, on the way for Bowling Green, Ky., just as she was entering the mouth of Green river. The steamer was fired on by several men and their fire was returned with Winchester from the boat. The passengers were panic-stricken, but none were hurt. No cause for the attack is known.

Relief from Drought.

Reading, June 8.—More rain fell in the Schuylkill valley than the total since the middle of last April. It will greatly relieve the effects of the drought, and farmers have hopes that some of their crops will be substantially benefited. In many cases, however, there will be less than half a yield, notwithstanding this rain.

Winner of the Grand Prix.

Paris, June 8.—The Grand Prix de Paris, of 200,000 francs, about one mile and seven furlongs, was run at Longchamps, in the presence of an immense concourse. It was won by Edmond Blanc's Quo Vadis, while his Calus and Vincius were respectively second and third. W. K. Vanderbilt's Alpha came in fourth.

Twelve Inches of Hail.

Greenfield, O., June 8.—A heavy storm passed over this section, doing great damage to wheat and fruit. The path of the storm was about one mile wide. Hailstones as large as eggs fell and in some places the icy missiles were 12 to 15 inches deep on the ground.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Hubbard, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at other times she was able to walk with a cane. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." Sold by Alvin & Bulger.

Floods in Idaho.

Kalispe, Mont., June 8.—Disastrous floods in northern Idaho, caused by the rapidly melting snow in the mountains are causing considerable trouble to the Great Northern railroad. Long stretches of embankment along the Kootenai river have caved in, and it probably will be two weeks before traffic over the regular route can be resumed. No casualties, however, have occurred. The town of Benner's Ferry, Idaho, is flooded and the people are going around town in rowboats.

His Third Attempt.

Gloucester, Mass., June 8.—Howard Blackburn, who already has made two voyages across the Atlantic alone in small dories, started in his 15-foot dory America in a third attempt to cross the ocean, with Havre as his objective point. His intention is to return via Gibraltar, Western Islands, Porto Rico and Cuba and exhibit his boat at the St. Louis exposition. A large crowd on the wharves and craft in the harbor gave him a hearty send-off.

Injured by Feroocious Dogs.

Cincinnati, June 8.—John Fiskus, aged 15, was fatally hurt by a kennel of 25 hounds. As he was approaching the kennel of Julius Ernest the hounds seized him and tore him almost to pieces. Mrs. Ernest was seriously hurt in trying to rescue the boy. Finally Charles Fissell mounted a horse and undertook to ride over the dogs. Both rider and horse were seriously bitten, especially the latter.

Automobile Causes Death.

New York, June 8.—Frightened by a big automobile a horse driven by John Tanges, a wealthy resident of Greenlawn, Long Island, swerved from the road, upsetting the cart, and Mrs. Tanges was thrown into a ditch receiving a fracture of the skull from which she died in 20 minutes. In the excitement no attempt was made to obtain the names of the automobile party, who continued on their way.

Hail Two Feet Deep.

Hillsboro, O., June 6.—A storm accompanied by hail visited this county. In places the hail covered the ground to the depth of two feet. The corn and wheat fields in the path of the storm are ruined. A heavy rain fell later, and numerous bridges and culverts have been washed out. The storm was about one mile wide.

Church Struck by Lightning.

MISSIONARY SWAN DELIVERS AN ADDRESS

Gives the Presbyterians an Interesting Talk About His Work in the South.

The congregation of the Second Presbyterian church were given a rare treat last evening when James Swan, of Canton, lectured upon the subject, "The Environments of a Mountain Missionary." Mr. Swan has only recently returned from the mountain districts of eastern Tennessee where he spent several months in missionary work. Most of this time was spent in Hancock county, which is inhabited by a peculiar and interesting people. Several centuries ago, when Portugal was experiencing a great rebellion, a great number of people escaped from the country and emigrated to America. One of their expeditions came to grief along the coast and the survivors made their way across the country to Hancock county.

The refugees cleared the land and became farmers and trappers, their descendants holding the land until this time. They have intermarried with Americans until their identity is almost lost, being apparent only in their straight black hair and swarthy countenances. Their manners and customs are almost similar to other mountaineers and Mr. Swan found them a most interesting study.

Mr. Swan is here to attend the anniversary celebration at the home of his father, Rev. J. N. Swan, of Ohio avenue.

Excursionists Are Home.

The excursionists who were making the round trip from this city to Charleston, W. Va., on the steamer Kanawha, reached home this morning safe and sound and in good health. All were much pleased with the trip and favorably impressed with the country around the capital of the little mountain state. Those who made the trip were: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith, Mrs. Martha Fisher, Mrs. Lou Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kinney.

Boys Caused Damage.

Sanitary Policeman Burgess was called to the East End this morning to investigate several complaints about the sanitary condition of the Klondike. In addition the officer had a rather peculiar duty to perform. Boys who play along Lake near the brick works had constructed a dam across the stream and the water was forced onto adjoining property, causing considerable damage. The officer stated that he would break up the dam business.

Postponed the Celebration.

The observance of the 70th birthday anniversary of Mrs. James N. Swan and the tin weddings of her children, Mrs. J. P. Leyenberger, of Toronto, and Rev. C. N. Swan, of Shreve, O., which was to have taken place at the Swan home on Ohio avenue today, has been postponed until tomorrow. Several of the near relatives who were to be present could not reach here today.

Preparing for Children's Day.

Children's day will be observed next Sunday evening at the Second Presbyterian church with appropriate exercises, upon which the little ones are now at work. The exercises will be held in the evening owing to the special sermon which the pastor, Rev. Mr. Crowe, is to preach to the members of Pan American court, Tribe of Ben Hur.

Suing for a Board Bill.

Henry Twiford, who conducts a private boarding house in the East End, alleges that Roscoe Chaney, when he quit boarding with him, failed to pay $6 due on his board bill. He has entered suit in Squire Carman's court for the amount, through his attorney, J. E. Davis. The case has been set for Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

Church Meeting.

A business meeting of considerable importance will be held in the Erie street M. E. church tomorrow evening and all members are requested to be present. The children's day services which were to have been held next Sunday have been postponed until Sunday, June 21.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours. A sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. If it stays your urine it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.

How Sick You Are or How Many Physicians Have Failed to Help You.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will Cure You if a Cure is Possible.

Doctors are not infallible and there are many instances where they have decided a case was hopeless and then the patients astonished everyone by getting well and the sole cause of their cure was Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. A case in point is that of James Lettuce of Canajoharie, N. Y., who writes:

"Some years ago I was attacked with pains in my back and side that were fearful in the extreme. I could not control my kidneys at all and what came from them was mucous and blood. I was in a terrible state and suffered intensely. A prominent physician of Albany, N. Y., decided that an operation was all that would save me. I dreaded that and commenced to take Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. I felt better almost instantly. When I had taken about two bottles, the flow from the bladder was much clearer, the pain stopped and I was saved from the surgeon's knife and am now well."

Dr. W. H. Morse, the famous physician of Westfield, N. J., has this to say of this great medicine:

"I have known it to cure chronic inflammation of the kidneys, where the attending physician pronounced the case incurable."

No form of kidney, liver, bladder or blood disease, or the distressing sicknesses so common to women, can long withstand the great curative power of this famous specific. Its record of cures has made it famous in medical circles everywhere.

with his family, attended the services and made a brief address. The Rev. J. M. Schick, the pastor, read the article of consecration, and the Rev. E. R. Eschbach, D. D., of Fredericks, Md., preached the dedication sermon. The others who took part in the exercises were the Rev. C. S. Slagle, of Westminster, Md.; the Rev. Faag, of the Middle Dutch Collegiate Reformed church, of New York city; the Rev. A. T. G. Apple, of Catawissa, Pa.; the Rev. G. A. Snyder, of Hagerstown, Md.; the Rev. J. A. Hoffmann, the Rev. J. C. Musser, of Philadelphia, and the Rev. Robert O'Boyle, of Sunbury, Pa.

President Roosevelt occupied one of the two bishop's chairs which he presented to the church.

SEES HUSBAND KILL HIMSELF

Glass Worker Wanted to Show Wife Pistol Was Empty and Pulled the Trigger.

Wellsburg, W. Va., June 8.—"Now, I'll try it on myself," said I. M. Wright at his home, as he pointed a revolver at his breast. He pulled the trigger, thinking the weapon empty, and dropped dead before his wife and little son. Wright was employed at the Riverside glass works, having recently come from Moundsville. He went home to dinner at noon and took his pistol from its usual place in his bedroom. In a spirit of playfulness he pointed the gun at his wife and 2-year-old son. His wife protested, and to show her there was no danger he turned the weapon upon himself with fatal result. Wright was 25 years old.

It has been estimated that between 8,000,000 and 10,000,000 persons in the United States take a vacation every summer. They spend between $400,000,000 and $500,000,000 yearly in pursuit of pleasure. This is a great deal of money to spend during a vacation, but this season the expenditure per capita may be somewhat less on account of the low railroad rates offered by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway.

From July 1 to 10 this line will sell tickets to Colorado and return from Chicago for $25. This will enable many to enjoy their summer's outing at slight expense. Colorado summer resorts are cooler than the seashore.

For scenic beauty the Rocky Mountain region is famous the world round. The most attractive spots among these peaks are beautifully pictured and faithfully described in a new book just published by the passenger department of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway. It will be sent on receipt of six cents to pay postage.

Through train service, Chicago to Denver, every day via the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and the Union Pacific line.

The sympathy of workmen generally will go out to the Philadelphia textile workers who are striking, not for higher wages nor recognition of the union, but for lower wages and shorter hours. They are simply demanding a 9-hour day, instead of ten hours. Theirs is a strike against overwork. Modern machinery and modern methods keep the operatives under too tense a strain to put in such long hours with satisfactory results either to themselves or their employers.

Rev. C. G. Jordan's announced determination to quit his pastorate and enter the evangelistic field will be received with sincere regret by the people of East Liverpool. Although a young man, his ability and energy have won him such success in this city as few men, whatever their experience in the ministry, have achieved. The religious field is full of opportunity for such men, and those who know him best are confident that Mr. Jordan will do noble work wherever he may go.

Ambassador McCormick, who has just arrived in this country, says the czar is a great man. This will be disappointing to people who expected the ambassador to come over here and say a lot of mean things about the czar. It may be mentioned incidentally that Mr. McCormick expects to go back.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Philip Simon.

Lisbon, June 8.—(Special).—The body of Mrs. Philip Simon, who died in Denver, Col., last Thursday, will be brought to Leetonia, where the funeral and burial will take place tomorrow. Mrs. Simon was 69 years old and had lived most of her life in Salem township, but spent the last two years of her life with her son in Denver. She leaves a husband and four sons.

Death of An Infant.

The six-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crews, of Dixonville, East End, died last night after a brief illness with stomach trouble. The interment was made this afternoon in Riverview cemetery.

A FINE COLLECTION OF CURIOSITIES

Committee on Relics for Lisbon Centennial Doing Excellent Work.

Lisbon, June 8.—(Special).—The committee on relics for the display to be made during the centennial has been doing good work, having secured a good collection. These articles will be on exhibition in the Huston block, on the square, which will be known as "Curio hall."

The committee is desirous of adding a few more more curios to the exhibit, and would urge that anyone having anything that would make an addition to the interesting collection to do so. The display will be guarded night and day. F. M. Brinner is president of the committee.

QUITS MORGANTOWN

The Boy Pitcher Now At Home—Why He Left the Varsity Team.

Larry Mailey, known throughout this section as the "Boy Wonder," returned home Saturday night from Morgantown, W. Va., where he has been playing with the West Virginia University team during the season. While with the college boys he played under the name of Robert Cunningham. The Morgantown Evening Post has the following to say of his resignation: "Robert Cunningham, one of the University base ball pitchers, left this morning for his home at Berkeley Springs. He will stop off at Pittsburgh for two or three days. The Athletic Association committee was, it is said, investigating into the matter of Cunningham's eligibility to membership on the base ball team, it having been reported that he was a ringer in, etc. It would make no difference, anyway, whether or not Cunningham had ever received a salary for pitching, as he is a youth of 19 and could not very well be termed a professional ball player."

"In the fall he matriculated at the University and has since been a constant attendant at classes. Before leaving this morning Cunningham stated that he did not come here to play ball, and he did not at the time of entering school know whether or not he would play ball on the Varsity team. The annoyance connected with the proposed investigation angered the young twirler and he packed his clothes and went home. His departure, and Cunningham's absence at his home on account of the illness of his sister, leaves the Varsity team with but one man for the rubber, Smith, and to use a term more expressive than elegant the Varsity team is just now 'up against it and away up in the air.'"

"Games are scheduled with Waynesburg at Waynesburg, Friday, June 12, and with W. & J. at Washington, Pa., Saturday, June 13. No games are booked for commencement, but Manager Cole expects to secure a game for Wednesday, June 17, and for commencement day, Thursday, June 18. "Cunningham has a brilliant future before him. He has almost everything he might want, and with a year's more experience will be ripe for any league. He has been unfortunate in receiving poor support whenever his delivery was hit, which has caused several games to be charged as defeats for the locals."

A Peculiar Railway Accident.

Pittsburg, June 8.—Killed while sitting comfortably in a street car imagining himself safe, was the fate of Philip House, aged 22, of Sharpsburg. House died at the Mercy hospital from injuries received in an accident at the Carnegie car barn. Motorman Henry Gorathy, on car No. 1648, on taking his car from the barn, had crossed over the westbound track and had not yet closed the switch, when car No. 1651, run by George Wishart, from Pittsburg, containing about 25 passengers, ran into the open switch, sideswiping the other car. House was sitting on the back of a seat near the motorman, and when the cars crashed together he was thrown against the other car and in some manner was fatally injured, his head and chest being crushed.

Much Firing Around Jackson.

Jackson, Ky., June 8.—There was much firing in and about the town. There is no town marshal since James Cockrill was killed and Sheriff Callahan makes no arrests. WELLSVILLE

MONUMENT UNVEILED TO BROTHER'S MEMORY

Impressive and Beautiful Exercises By the Woodmen at Spring Hill Cemetery.

About 35 members of the Woodmen of the World, of Toronto, arrived in Wellsville on the Sunday morning train. In the afternoon, headed by a band, which they brought with them, they marched to the Spring Hill cemetery and unveiled the monument, placed there by them in memory of the late W. T. Brooks. The unveiling was conducted with interesting exercises as provided in the ritual of the order. Several appropriate selections were rendered by the band. The Woodmen returned home on the evening train.

W. T. Brooks was the son of John Brooks, of this city, and this city was formerly his home. For the past few years, however, he lived in Toronto and died in that city last fall. The remains were brought here, his former home, for burial, the Woodmen conducting the services. Mr. Brooks was well known in this city and quite a large crowd were at the unveiling exercises.

IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL

Knights Templar and Religious Services in Honor of Theodore Starrett.

Short religious services, conducted by Rev. Edwin Weary, of East Liverpool, were held over the remains of the late Theodore Starrett Saturday afternoon at the house on West Main street, Wellsville. Sunday afternoon the Knights Templar, of which lodge Mr. Starrett was a member, conducted services according to the ritual of the order. Short services were held at the house, then at Spring Hill cemetery in charge of Pilgrim commandery of East Liverpool.

The funeral procession was one of the largest in Wellsville for many days. The Knights Templar led, followed by the F. & A. M., the P. H. U. coming next, followed by a long string of carriages. It rained during the whole time at the cemetery, but this did not mar the beauty of the services.

The floral contributions were abundant and beautiful, especially those of the lodges, which were magnificent.

COLORED FIGHTERS

Two Men and a Woman Taken to Jail and All Given Large Fines.

Peacefully and quietly Alexander Johnston and his lady love, Sarah Smith, both colored, were enjoying a stroll along Jag alley Saturday evening. They had gone but a short distance when they were met by Sam Anderson, also colored.

Sam had been indulging in firewater and stopped the couple and wanted the woman to leave Johnston and go with him. She refused and he began to abuse her. Johnston went to her assistance. The two men drew pen knives and each received several slashes, none of them serious. The three were marched off to the city jail where they spent Saturday night and Sunday. Before Mayor Fogo this morning Miss Smith was assessed $12.00; Johnston $13.50 and Anderson $23.00. Johnston's and the woman's fine will be settled, but Anderson still lingers with a chance of going to the Canton work house.

Saved Her Home From Burning.

By using presence of mind Mrs. J. S. Mackie, of Nevada street, saved her home from being destroyed by fire. The gas stove was burning in the pantry and Mrs. Mackie and her daughter Mayme were busily engaged with the household work. Mrs. Mackie noticed the odor of burning wood and told her daughter to look at the stove. Miss Mackie stepped to the pantry door and found the whole interior of the room a mass of flames. The girl screamed and the mother ran for water. The fire was put out with small loss.

Fine Dogs Stolen.

Jenks Hamilton, of Wellsville, is mourning the loss of his two bull dogs. They were stolen from the kennel between the hours of 1 and 4 on Sunday morning. For "Pat," one of the dogs, Mr. Hamilton was offered a large amount, but refused to sell. For the other, "Nell," he has also received good offers but declined them. The police are looking for the dogs.

LODGES AND UNIONS.

Boilermakers' union will hold its regular bi-monthly meeting Monday evening in Potters' hall.

Local union No. 24, N. B. O. P., will hold its regular weekly meeting Tuesday evening in Potters' hall.

Fidelity circle No. 43, P. H. C., will hold its regular bi-monthly meeting Thursday evening in Potters' hall.

Local union No. 63, R. C. I. P. A., will hold its regular bi-monthly meeting Wednesday evening in Potters' hall.

Local union No. 459, U. B. of C. & J. of A., will hold its regular weekly meeting Friday evening in Potters' hall.

Lost Three Fingers.

Joseph McCracken, the young man who was struck by an engine at the rolling mill about a month ago, returned home Sunday evening from the Mercy hospital, where he has been since the accident. He lost the third and fourth fingers of the right hand.

Miss Alice Brown, of Cleveland, is spending a few days with friends in this city.

Miss Johnston, of Bellaire, Pa., returned home Saturday after visiting relatives in this city.

Miss Maud Billman, of Steubenville, returned home last evening after visiting friends in this city.

Miss Hamilton, assistant high school principal, left for Sandusky Saturday to spend his vacation.

Rev. L. F. Lavery returned home Saturday from Los Angeles, where he was attending the general assembly of the Presbyterian church.

SOUTH SIDE

Chester Union Carpenters Desire to Have the Scale in Full Effect.

The members of the Chester local carpenters' and joiners' union are just now engaged in an effort to win over a non-union contractor, who has steadily refused to sign the scale.

When the East Liverpool local of the carpenters' union decided to make a demand for the 8-hour day, the Chester workmen engaged at the same occupation took similar action, although they determined to be guided by the outcome of the East Liverpool situation. It will be remembered it was several weeks before the East Liverpool journeymen were granted their request, and in the meantime the Chester men said nothing. In the latter part of April the Chester local, by motion, decided to lay its demands before the contractors, and they embodied in the scale the request that the bosses either sign or refuse to do so by the first of May. The men concerned in Chester were sure they could win, and in fact, never had any reason to believe from the attitude of the contractors that their terms would not be granted. Several meetings were held by the bosses and finally they decided to be governed entirely by what the builders' exchange of East Liverpool decided to do. The East Liverpool journeymen were out at this time, and had been since April 1, and when the difficulty was no nearer a settlement at the end of four weeks, the Chester contractors concluded to break away and act independently.

Before the scale of the Chester workmen expired the assurance was given them that, dating from the first of May, the request would be complied with. All but one of the boss carpenters of Chester signed the scale, and arranged matters so that not a single man in their employ lost a minute's work. The contractor who refused claimed he had a just reason for the refusal. He stated there was not a man employed by him who could earn $3 a day in the eight hours. Therefore he would not sign up, and has not since done so. The union has investigated and is now engaged in trying to induce the contractor to sign.

For some time no effort was made by this contractor to work a crew, but as the days passed and none of the union men were willing to take up his end of the fight, he began to look about for workmen of another stripe. A week ago he employed four men, all of whom were outside the union. The Chester local sent a committee to visit the men employed and reported that they scarcely knew the meaning of the word union. One of them said he owned a farm in the country, had his crops in, had built a barn or two and had come to town for the purpose of making money at the carpenter trade to pay a year's taxes. He did not want to join the union and was going back to the country in a few weeks. The other men on the job were of about the same sort, and though the members of the committee realized they had nothing to fear from them, they would rather union men be employed. A report was made to the union, and it was then decided to renew their efforts to bring the contractor into line.

The Southside Territory Soon to Receive More Attention Than Ever Before. Oil operations on the Southside promise to be active during the coming summer and several transactions of importance have already been made in the territory adjoining the town of Chester. A number of new rigs have been brought to the field, and will be kept very busy during the season.

The scheme of the Stewarts to develop a large tract on the Newell farm has been successful as far as it has progressed, and work will be commenced within a few days, it is thought. About $3,000 is needed to fully test the territory, and this amount has already been raised.

The latest transaction is that which may result in the transfer of the interests of the LaBelle and Franzheim leases to a company headed by A. B. Smith, of Wellsville. The land was originally taken up by F. A. Chapman, a well known oil man from down the river, but who was too busy at that time to develop the field to any satisfactory extent. The land is located on Tomlinson's run on what is known as the old Baxter farm. One well was drilled when the lease was secured, and 250 pounds of rock pressure of gas was secured. Nothing more was done, and the new concern proposes to see what can be done in the way of securing a gas supply.

The demonstration was made more than a year ago, and when it had been completed, the holders of the lease arranged to have the hole closed up, succeeding after a great deal of difficulty in having the supply anchored. It is expected that the transaction will go through within a few days.

Tomorrow evening the management has consented to book a private party for a dance. There will be a large number of East Liverpool's best people at the park, and the pavilion will be given over to their special use.

Wednesday has been taken up by the street railway employees, and the annual picnic of the members of Assembly No. 52, of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees of America will be held as their annual outing. The entire day will be devoted to the picnic and among other things a base ball game between the motormen and press team will be played.

The Wellsburg Knights of Pythias will be at the park on Thursday, and will be transported to Chester by special train. It is thought about 1,200 will be present.

An excursion will be run from Wheeling on Friday night and the principal amusement will be dancing. There was a great crowd at the park yesterday and the excellent musical program provided by McGraw's orchestra was much enjoyed.

THE DAWSON REUNION

Will Be Held at Rock Springs, But the Date Has Not Yet Been Fixed.

The executive committee of the association of Dawsons has not yet decided upon a date for the annual picnic and reunion. The head of the executive committee is Harry Boyd, of Beaver, and in April the gentleman sent out notices for a meeting of the body to be held in this city, but no definite date was decided upon at that time.

When the last reunion was held a year ago it was decided to hold the next meeting at Rock Springs, but no date was secured. When the executive committee got together this year an attempt was made to hit upon a date that would suit the majority of the members, and a great many suggestions were made, but for various reasons it was not decided.

The principal reason for the postponement was the fear on the part of a few of the members of the committee that the annual outing would conflict in some way with the Hookstown fair. A majority of the Dawsons and their connections are residents of Beaver county, Pa., and Hancock county, W. Va., and always attend the fair. It is the intention of the executive committee that the reunion be held at a time when it will not conflict with the Hookstown fair.

A Hancock County Graduate. On June 11 the commencement exercises of the West Virginia university at Morgantown will begin, and the ceremonies will be of more or less interest to the people of Chester. There will be 64 graduates. The only one in the list that hails from Hancock county is Robert Morrow Brown, of New Cumberland. Mr. Brown is well known to the people of the Southside, and has many friends in the upper portion of the county. He will be turned out a full-fledged attorney, and will arrive home about the middle of the month. Mr. Brown has not yet decided where he will hang out his shingle, but it will be in Hancock county or some place in West Virginia undoubtedly.

RIFLED THE HOUSE

A Sneak Thief Went Through the Dwelling of Arthur Simms in Chester.

A sneak thief broke into the residence of Arthur Simms on Phoenix avenue, Chester, Saturday night, and in the absence of Mr. Simms and his wife rifled every drawer and other receptacle about the house in search of valuables. In a bed room which the family kept under lock and key the thief secured a pocketbook containing $9.50. How he gained admission is a mystery, and especial care was taken to secure the door when the family left home.

An umbrella, which was prized very highly, was also taken, together with a number of other articles of considerable value. The children had been left at home, and when the thief left the house was seen by them, but no alarm was raised at the time as they supposed he belonged there. The little ones were not able to furnish a description of the thief, and it is not likely he will ever be captured.

Baseball This Afternoon.

The Rock Springs cafe employees are playing base ball this afternoon with the painting crew, who have been working at the resort for several weeks. The cafe boys have a good lineup and in some manner have succeeded in winning every game in which they have participated. The painters are confident of victory, and will rely upon their ability to kick for victory. The teams will line up this way:

Cafe—Millhouser, c; G. Cochran, p; C. Smith, s; E. Frost, 1b; O. Strowe, 2b; W. Smith, 3b; C. Woods, lf; O. Thornton, m; C. M. Smith, r.

Painters—James, c; McDonald, p; John Smith, s; G. Bevington, 1b; Mulligan, 2b; Peppin, 3b; Irwin, lf; H. Finley, m; McElravy, r.

The game was called at 4 o'clock and a large number of rooters are present.

By the Y. M. C. A. Which Gave the Home Team the Game—Third Victory in Four Games—Work of the Visitors Rather Poor.

While the Y. M. C. A. team has not been making any world record for shutouts, the percentage of victories since the series with Jamestown would certainly entitle it to a top notch position in the race for the pennant. Saturday, in one of the most exciting games of the season, the locals won again from Braddock, making the third victory in the last four games. The fans were kept on the anxious seat up until the eighth inning when the locals took what proved to be a commanding lead by scoring four runs. Once before they had what seemed to be a safe lead, but the visitors forged ahead of them.

As in the game Friday, the work of the visitors' infield was on the yellow order, the three errors of the short stop and third baseman proving very costly. The locals were fortunate enough to sandwich in a few hits among the misplays and this tells most of the story of the game. Miller, off side slab artist, who did so well in the afternoon game Memorial day, was not at his best and Keifer could not hold him. His two wild pitches and two passed balls by Keifer came near losing the game.

The visitors counted twice before the locals succeeded in even making a safe hit. In the second Bowes singled to center and stole second. Myers' short fly back to second fell safe and counted for a hit. Bowes moving up to third and scoring on a throw to second to catch Myers.

A base on balls to Smith, his steal and a single by Rafferty scored another in the third with none out. Reark's fine fielding ended the inning.

The locals took the lead in their half of the third. Harker started the trouble with a single to left and Emmerling moved him up a sack with a sacrifice. Miller's short fly to right dropped safe and Gibson found Kilgore for a pretty single toward right. Harker scoring. Youngson sent a sizzling hot grounder to Kilgore that nearly put him out of the business, but he held onto it and threw Brown out. Wallace rapped a safe one to right center and Miller and Gibson counted.

Four runs for the visitors in the sixth seemed to clinch the game, but the locals and the rooters were not discouraged. Keifer started the trouble by miffing the third strike on Peters and then threw wild to Wallace, Peters taking second. Bowes dumped one in front of the plate and was safe. Brown knocked down Davis' hard hit grounder and threw him out, Peters and Bowes scoring. Myers hit to Miller and was safe by the poor throw to first, Wallace dropping the ball. Kilgore singled and West went to first on four bad ones filling the bags. Davis scored on a passed ball and Myers counted in the same way.

The locals came near tying the score in their half when two runs were scored. Brown reached first when West fumbled his grounder and purloined second. Keifer singled to right, scoring him. Keifer stole second and scored on a wild throw to first on Harker's grounder.

The game was won in the last half of the eighth, when Wallace was given life at first on West's fumble of his grounder. Brown sent one to Kilgore too hot to handle and scored with Wallace on Keifer's single.

Keifer and Reark were run down between bases, after Harker hit to the infield, the play being a very peculiar one. Harker was sent to second on a balk and stole third. Emmerling walked and Miller singled, scoring Harker with the last run of the game.

SATURDAY'S GAME AT WELLSVILLEEAST LIVERPOOL A. C. WON BY 10 TO 2.

The Boys From This City Did Some Excellent Playing—Wellsville Not in It.

Wellsville having sent the East End, Pittsburg, team home on account of inability to play good ball, asked the East Liverpool A. C. team to fill the date Saturday. Not having sufficient time to collect their whole team together, they went to Wellsville with only seven players. The home team, having two extra men, agreed to fill two positions.

Grafton went on first base and McGrew to middle field. Grafton played a magnificent game on first. Many times the ball was thrown low to him but with ease he picked them up and did not have an error. McGrew also played a fine game in the field and both men did their share of the batting, being the cause of at least seven

runs, assisted by errors.

Riley pitched as though he was looping the loop and all the rest of the Wellsville team played about the same way—like a crowd of school boys.

The visitors first went to bat and started things rolling in the first inning by scoring two runs. The home team followed with two runs, but after that were unable to score. In the seventh the home team had three men on bases and only one out. Even then it was impossible for any man to cross the plate. The crowd watched eagerly for the end to come, which proved a slaughter.

The visitors put up as fine a game of ball as has been witnessed in Wellsville. Every man played well and about all touched Riley up for a hit or two. The visitors were very happy over their victory. Stafford, as umpire, did not give satisfaction, and it is claimed, worsted Wellsville on many decisions.

CARROLL CLUB WON EASILY FROM CHESTER

In First Game of East Liverpool League Played at Y. M. C. A. Park.

One of the opening games of the East Liverpool league teams was played Saturday afternoon at Y. M. C. A. park, Chester, by the Carroll club and the Chester team. By superior batting and base running and the contribution of eight errors by Chester the Carroll club won easily by a score of 10 to 2. It was interesting throughout and was witnessed by quite a large crowd. Dechant, pitcher for the Carroll club, played a pretty game. The score:

OUTDOING EXPECTATIONS

Wonderful Success of B. C. Ansley's Half-Price Sale of Dr. Howard's Dyspepsia Specific.

We are always glad to print in the News Review a story about a remarkable success achieved by advertising, and especially so when the article advertised is one of superior merit. Not so very long ago, B. C. Ansley, one of East Liverpool's most enterprising druggists, succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard company to allow him to sell their Specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price, as an introductory offer.

The results of this advertising have been phenomenal, and there has been hardly a week without Mr. Ansley being obliged to order fresh supplies. Such was his confidence in the remedy that he personally guaranteed every package of the Specific that he sold, and agreed to refund the money if it did not cure. His faith was well founded, for out of the hundreds of packages he has sold, only one has been returned.

Mr. Ansley does not know how much longer he will be able to continue selling Dr. Howard's Specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price, but will as long as the present supply holds out. Some of his customers have said they would pay a dollar a bottle rather than be without it.

Crockery City	1	0	100
Carroll Club	1	0	100
East End Grays	0	1	000
Chester	0	1	000

Zeke Wilson, formerly of Cleveland, has won every game he has pitched for Atlanta this year.

Only two members of the Philadelphia National league team are hitting over .300. They are Keister and Wolverton.

William Biehl, a New Jersey man, has gone violently insane, trying to solve the problem of greater speed for the motorcycle.

By scoring their fifth successive shutout Saturday the Pirates, of Pittsburgh, established a record that will probably stand for many years to come.

"Bucky" Moore, the left-handed pitcher from Crestline, who has been pitching good ball for the Warren team this season, has received flattering offers to join the Bellevue and Terre Haute teams. He will likely accept.

CHRONIC SORESSigns of Polluted Blood.

There is nothing so repulsive looking and disgusting as an old sore. You worry over it till the brain grows weary and work with it until the patience is exhausted, and the very sight of the old festering, sickly looking place makes you irritable, despondent and desperate.

A chronic sore is the very best evidence that your blood is in an unhealthy and impoverished condition, that your constitution is breaking down under the effects of some serious disorder. The taking of strong medicines, like mercury or potash, will sometimes so pollute and vitiate the blood and impair the general system that the merest scratch or bruise results in obstinate non-healing sores of the most offensive character.

Often an inherited taint breaks out in frightful eating sores upon the limbs or face in old age or middle life. Whenever a sore refuses to heal the blood is always at fault, and, while antiseptic washes, salves, soaps and powders can do much to keep down the inflammation and cleanse the sore, it will never heal permanently till the blood itself has been purified and the deadly germs and poisons destroyed, and with S. S. S. this can be accomplished—the polluted blood is again circulating freely throughout the body the flesh around the old sore begins to take on a natural color, the discharge of matter ceases and the place heals over.

S. S. S. is both a blood purifier and tonic that puts your blood in order and at the same time tones up the system and builds up the general health. If you have a chronic sore write us. No charge for medical advice.

A TERRIBLE DISASTER

Steamer Sunk in a Collision
and Over One Hundred Perish.

A Mass of Human Beings Clung to
the Foundering Vessel and Uttered
Despairing Cries as She Went Down.

Marseilles, June 8.—A terrible shipping disaster occurred a little distance
from this port at noon, when two
passenger steamers, the Insulaire and
the Liban, both belonging to the Fraisinet Steamship Company, of
Marseilles, came into collision. The Liban sank and over 100 of her passengers and crew perished.

this morning on her regular trip to Bastia, Corsica, and was run down
and sunk by the Insulaire off the Maire Islands. The collision was witnessed from the pilot boat Blechamp,
which was about two miles distant.
The Blechamp immediately repaired to the spot to render assistance. The force of the collision had cut a great
hole in the Liban's side and she attempted to make water rapidly. Her
captain saw the only chance was to
run the steamer aground, and the Liban
was headed full speed for the shore;
but within 17 minutes of the colli-
sion, and when still in deep water the
fore part of the steamer plunged
beneath the waves, and a few minutes
later she had entirely disappeared.

In the meantime the Blechamp, the
steamer Balkan, also belonging to the Fraisinet company, and other vessels
had drawn near the sinking ship and
were making desperate efforts to rescue those on board. The Blechamp
picked up 40 persons, many of whom
were at the point of exhaustion. The Balkan rescued 37 passengers and up to the present it is known that, in addition to the passengers, 17 of the crew were also saved. Officers of the steamer Balkan describe the scene
before the Liban disappeared as a terrible one. As the vessel was sinking
she was inclined to such an angle
that her masts struck the water, causing an eddy which made the work of
rescue most difficult. A mass of human beings were clinging to the
foundering vessel and uttered despair-
ing cries as she went down. At the same time the boilers exploded, intensifying the horrors. For a few moments the victims were seen struggling in the sea, then the waves closed
over them and all was silent. Of
about 200 passengers who were aboard
the Liban it is feared that at least
half were drowned.

The Balkan launched three boats
and the other vessels did all possible
to save the victims in the short time
that elapsed between the time of the
collision and the sinking of the Liban.
Up to 5 o'clock 30 bodies had been
recovered.

It is stated that the collision was
due to the following circumstances:
The Liban was putting out to sea just
as the steamer Insulaire was making
for the harbor. Maire Island, which
lies off the entrance to the port, hid
the vessels from each other until it
was too late to avoid a collision.

Necessary Relief to Be Given.

Washington, June 8.—Absolutely
necessary relief in the way of rations,
medicines, etc., will be given by the
war department to the sufferers by
the disastrous floods in South Carolina. An appeal to Secretary Root
from the local authorities resulted in
orders being given to General Chaffee,
commanding the department of the
east, to this effect. He will authorize
an officer to proceed north from Atlanta, with sufficient supplies to relieve immediate necessities, as was
done in the case of the sufferers by
the Gainesville, Ga., catastrophe.

Swindler Arrested.

New York, June 8.—Henry J. Cart-
wright, who was arrested by detec-
tives, charged with running a fraudu-
lent turf bureau, was arraigned in Brooklyn and held in $1,000 bail. Cartwright advertised extensively through-
out the west, and hundreds of letters
from persons whom he had victimized
were found in his office. When arrested he gave the name of H. B. Clarke,
but when shown his picture in the
regents' gallery he admitted his identity and gave his real name.

School Teacher's Body Found.

Topeka, Kan., June 8.—The body of Forest Kutz, a school teacher, was
found today in the debris left by the
flood. It developed that several fertile farms near North Topeka have
been entirely ruined. The swift current washed away much of the good
soil and in its place has left a thick,
hard layer of sand, rendering the
ground useless. The water has fallen
rapidly.

WASHINGTON CITY POSTOFFICE

Tulloch Reaffirms That His Repre-
sentations Remain in all Essential Particulars True.

Washington, June 8.—Mr. Seymour
W. Tulloch, formerly cashier of the Washington city postoffice, under date
of June 3, has written a letter to Postmaster General Payne in response to
replies received from Postmaster Merritt, of the Washington postoffice, and
others, to the charges of maladministration, made by Mr. Tulloch against
the management of the local post-
office. A large part of Mr. Tulloch's
letter is in defense of counter charges
made by Mr. Merritt against Mr. Tul-
loch. Mr. Tulloch says that the charge
that under his (Tulloch's) regime as
cashier of the Washington postoffice
quarterly payrolls were required to be
signed in blank, even if true, would
"produce a smile in Washington,
where probably the greater portion
of governmental employees sign pay-
rolls in blank." But he says that the fact is that this custom usually else-
where was prohibited 18 years ago
by the then postmaster.

As to the reply of former First Assistant Postmaster General Heath Mr.
Tulloch says: "All that is necessary
is to compare my specific charges with
his general denial." He then reaffirms that his representations are true and not disproved and closes with a denial that there is any office within
the gift of the postoffice department
that he would accept, or that he ever
authorized his friends to seek his reinstatement.

Stagnation in Austria.

Vienna, June 8.—There is a whole-
sale emigration of miners and work
men in the iron district of Austria to
the United States in consequence of
the unprecedented stagnation of the iron industry. Hundreds of men have
been discharged since the beginning
of the year, and the mines and iron
works are operating on short time.
Wages have fallen 50 per cent., and
in many instances the men are earn-
ing less than 50 cents a day and their families are suffering severely. There
is faint hope of any immediate improvement in the situation, and whole
colonies of workmen are leaving the
country.

Showers Lift the Pall of Smoke.

New York, June 8.—Brisk showers
which began in the small hours of
the morning and continued throughout
the day cleared away the dense pall
of smoke laden fog that overhung
the city for two days and permitted
the fogbound fleet of incoming Atlantic liners that lay off the bar to pass by by Sandy Hook. Among them
were the Cunarders Lucania and La Carpathia, which lay at anchor outside for 30 hours. The St. Paul, of
the American line, and La Bretagne,
of the French line, were lucky in
reaching port just as the fog was lifting.

General Resumption of Business.

Kansas City, Mo., June 8.—All day
gangs of men were at work clearing
away the debris of the flood, and there
will be quite a general resumption
in all lines of business. The packing
plants will start up in a measure, and
all will be in full blast before the
week ends. Both the Missouri and
the Kaw rivers have fallen fully three
feet during the past 24 hours, and
have made it possible for a dozen
more railroads to make use of the Union depot. The railway situation
is greatly improved.

The Textile Situation.

Philadelphia, June 8.—The working
committee of the Central Textile union,
composed of one delegate from
each union on strike, met at strike
headquarters and considered the situation. After a five hours' session the
textile workers issued a long statement to the public, giving reasons for
the strike of over 75,000 men, women
and children. There were no developments in the strike to-day. It was
an extremely quiet day in all the tex-
tile centres of the city.

OLD INDIAN TRAILS.

War, Hunting and Trading by the Indians Their Origin.

THE RED MAN'S HIGHWAY.

The Trail, Like the Indian, is Fast
Disappearing—Faint Traces Yet to
Be Found on Top of the Eleva-
tions.

To the present generation of people
in Pennsylvania and Ohio the Indian
is a mere tradition. This region in
which the final struggles for mastery
were fought between white men and red men, after so short a time, has been swept bare of even the last remnants of the great tribes and con-
federacies which once defiantly took up
the hatchet to drive back the advancing army of white settlement. History as it is taught in our schools
gives scant detail concerning the once
proud forest warriors, and the red
man himself has vanished like a
morning vapor, so that the present
masters of the ground once roamed
by Mingo, Delaware and Shawanese
know little of the former race and for
the most part have never seen a real Indian.

But this great race in disappearing
has left memorials of its former ownership. The names of many of our
states, rivers and towns will ever call
to remembrance those whose rugged
and savage thoughts were expressed
in such flowing language. Not a few words and phrases which the early
white settlers picked up from their
red neighbors have won a permanent
place in our everyday speech. But
dian left his memorials. There are
yet visible the unmistakable traces
of his great hunting and war trails at
many places in the Pennsylvania and Ohio country. Strange though it may seem, the narrow "threads of soil," as Hawthorne called them, which were
worn through the otherwise trackless
forests by many generations of Indian travelers, may even yet be followed in many places, especially along
the ridges.

Where these traces yet remain in
the unchanneled forests they are marked by a narrow lane in which even at
this day the absence of big trees and
the comparative openness of the
thicket point out the path even to
somewhat unskilled eyes. Almost always these old paths sought out high
and dry ground. Hence they followed
as nearly as possible the prominent
ridges along their course. On many
such high places their traces can yet
be found. Here they are generally
noticeable by a well-defined furrow
in the soil, about a foot to a foot and a
half wide and frequently a foot deep.
A careful observer may follow these
furrows sometimes for miles over the Ohio hills or through the Pennsylvania
mountains.

While these old roads were used for
various purposes they generally had
their origin in one of the three great
pursuits of the Indian—war, hunting
or trading. The older trails are of
the first two kinds. The trading
paths were worn in later times when
the vanguard of the white man's business army set up its frontier trading
posts. Then the Indian broke these
newer roads that he might more
quickly reach these bartering places.
It was on these ways he traveled to
trade away his native riches for the
wares of white civilization, and back
along them he carried the germs of
his own destruction. Of the older paths, the war trails struck with savage directness to the heart of the enemy's country. The red man was
a being whose hatred never died, and
it kept the great war trails worn deep
and smooth. The war trail was marked by two features, the many hidden
coverts for ambushing an advancing
foe, and the widely cleared open spots
about the springs, furnishing to war
parties camping places free from danger of surprise. The hunting trails
led from the permanent habitations
of the tribes to their hunting grounds.
Thither they sought the chase, and
gave themselves to this luxurious
period of their existence during summer, fall and squaw winter. The early
storms of cold warned them that they must seek the villages of their fathers
for the long, hard winter of suffering and privation. Then the Good Spirit sent them the boon of the Indian summer, that amidst its mellow
haze, they might seek the seclusion
shelter of their settled towns.

Many a day has the writer spent in
tracing out the beaten paths of the former lords of the forest. Through
dense thickets and over cleared up
land he has followed these old ways
While thus engaged imagination has
had no hard task to reconstruct the
thoroughfares which gave movement
in the Indian's barbaric social life.
Again along the narrow way defiled
the painted warriors bearing bloody
tomahawks and matted scalp. Again
the despairing prisoner was hurried
over hill and through vale in terror
of the uplifted blade, or lagging, was
butchered, scalped and cast into the
thicket. Once again came the hardy
picket of civilization, hunter or
trader. Then followed the scout,
Soon with swinging axe and martial
music the first feeble armies marched,
widening the old paths and with mus-
ket and cannon sounding the knell of Indian power. There is a mine of romance hidden along these old Indian
trails, and he who delves in it will
find riches to his heart.

Eyesless Fish in Boiling Water.

One of the most remarkable discoveries in the shape of a peculiar species of fish ever made on this continent was
that made at Carson City, Nev., in 1876. At that time both the Hale and Nocross and the Savage mines were
down to what is known as the "220
foot level." When at that depth, a sub-
terranean lake of boiling water was
tapped. This accident flooded both
mines to a depth of 100 feet. After this
water had all been pumped out except
that which had gathered in basins and
in the inaccessible portions of the
works, and when the water still had
a temperature of 128 degrees—nearly
scalding hot—many queer looking little
blood red fish were taken out. In appearance they somewhat resembled the
goldfish.

They seemed lively and sportive
enough when they were in their native
element—boiling water—notwithstanding
the fact that they did not even have
taken out of the hot water and put in
to buckets of cold water for the purpose of being transported to the sur-
face, they died as quickly as a perch or
a bass would if plunged into a kettle
of water that was scalding hot; not
only this, but the skin peeled off exactly
as if it had been boiled.

Eyesless fish are common enough in
all subterranean lakes and rivers, but
this is the only case on record of living
fish being found in boiling water.

Passing a Plate in a Church.

There was a very large congregation,
and the rector seeing that there was
only one alms dish made signs to a rustic from the chancel entrance to come
to him and bade him go into the rectory garden through a glass door into
the dining room, where there had been
a slight refectory before the service,
bring a dish from the table, take it
down one side of the north aisle and
clergyman at the place from which he started. The rustic disappeared, reappeared with the dish, took it as he was ordered and presented it to the people
on either side of the aisle, and then ap-
proaching the rector whispered in his ear: "I've done as you told me, sir. I've taken it down one side of the aisle and
up the other—they'll none of 'em have any." No order had been given to
empty the dish, and it was full of bis-
cuits—Dean Hole's "Memories."

Shellac in Chinese Works of Art.

If softening shellac with heat it
may be drawn out and twisted into al-
most white sticks and of a fine silky
luster. Extreme beauty is given to Chinese works of art by the use of shellac. Some of them are very ancient
and of great value. They are chiefly
chowchow boxes, tea basins or other
small objects made of wood or metal.
They are covered with a coat of shel-
lac, colored with vermilion, and while
the layer of shellac is soft and pliable
it is molded and shaped into beautiful
patterns. Some of these works thus
ornamented are so rare and beautiful
that even in China they cost fabulous
sums.

P. H. C. Social.

Arrangements have been completed for a social and lawn fete to be given by the new lodge of the Protected Home Circle, recently organized on Pleasant Heights. The date has been fixed for next Thursday night, and an invitation has been extended to the members of all other circles in the city. The affair will be held in the open air near the terminus of the East Liverpool railway, and promises to be well attended.

Birthday Party.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Feist, of Washington street, to about 60 of the young friends of their sons, Carl and Ambrose, in honor of their twelfth and sixth birthdays. From 5 until 9 o'clock this evening the little ones will make merry with games and other amusements. Refreshments of ice cream and cake will be served.

Probationers' Meeting.

The probationers and new members of the First M. E. church are invited to meet at the home of Josiah T. Smith, Calcutta road, on Thursday evening. The time will be occupied in devotional and social exercises and the evening will be thoroughly enjoyable.

TRYING TO OUST WESTERN UNION

RAILROAD WILL TRY PEACEFUL MEANS IN THE WEST.

No Property of the Telegraph Company to Be Destroyed on Ft. Wayne or C. & P.

Salem, June 8.—The Pennsylvania company will destroy no property of the Western Union Telegraph company on the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh. This statement can be made on the authority of the counsel for one of the interested parties.

At present the Pennsylvania is trying to oust the Western Union by legal action from the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago and the Cleveland & Pittsburgh. The suits have already been entered and testimony is now being taken in the case.

In the meantime the drastic action taken on the lines east of Pittsburgh where poles and wires were leveled in two days, is not to be repeated in the west. The effect of the destruction of property was not exactly to the liking of the Pennsylvania itself. It is said, and the powers in New York had little difficulty in making a trace which will prevent its repetition. The evacuation of these two rights of way by the Western Union is of the greatest importance to the Pennsylvania in its plans of connecting closely with the Postal Telegraph Cable company. It will give the Postal a through route from New York to Chicago and Cleveland along the Pennsylvania's right of way.

The Pennsylvania company, including all the lines west of Pittsburgh, has completed detailed plans for taking over the various restaurants and eating houses in important cities along the system. The properties will be purchased outright and placed under the control of the railroad company. E. W. Westlake, now superintendent of dining car service, will have charge.

SUITS ENTERED FOR BACK TAXES

East Liverpool And Wellsville Property Holders Are Sued as Delinquents.

"No Clothing Fits Like Ours"

ette by the coat collar with one hand and Hines with the other. He had both of them standing simultaneously and was starting to leave for a patrol box with his prisoners when another chapter was added to the already exciting incident. Friends of the Italian and the Irishman concluded that they would not allow them taken prisoners and in one grand rush they shoved the officer to the wall, tore the prisoners loose and a fierce struggle was immediately on.

The noise by this time had attracted a large crowd and while the fight was on in earnest there were at least two score rushing madly on all sides, men of inferior strength were being felled, hats were off, the hair and clothing were ruffled and the wild look on the faces of nearly all gave to the scene an aspect of tragedy impossible to describe.

Miglioretti had been drawn through the crowd and pushed up the stairs in the hallway adjoining and for the time being McDermott turned his attention to Hines. When he started at the man a number jumped between them and it was necessary again for the officer to swing them right and left. One man made a grab for his gun, but he felled him like a log by a terrific blow with his left hand. He was successful as before, and taking a firm hold on the prisoner held him securely. While he was on the way to the street a brother of Miglioretti rushed at Hines, landed a blow on his head and again it looked much as if the fight were only started.

The plucky officer, however, prevented the third onslaught when he grasped his club and yelled, "The first man that makes another move will get his head mashed into a pulp." The crowd commenced to realize that McDermott meant every word of it, and he was allowed to escort Hines to the city jail. Landing the man safely behind prison bars he returned to the scene and found Miglioretti in bed with several brothers dressing his wounds. He demanded a forfeit for his appearance and getting it allowed the injured foreigner to remain in his room.

Hines has only been in the city a few days. He came here from Pittsburgh and secured work with the railroad contractors. He states that he has always harbored hatred for Italians and that when Miglioretti addressed an insulting remark at him, he politely resented by knocking him to the floor. The characteristic of an Italian is to befriend his brother and to that end they will die. Consequently when they saw one of their number sprawling on the floor they all pitched in to avenge the suffering caused by Miglioretti.

Hines and Miglioretti pleaded guilty when arraigned before the mayor this morning and each was fined $5 and costs. The Italian made his plea with reluctance. He said that Hines was just getting ready to shoot him when the bunch jumped on him. Friends of Hines appeared at the city hall and stated that they would pay his fine regardless of the amount. They would not stand for one of their brethren being incarcerated as the result of a fight with a foreigner.
